3. The location of missions or new churches shall be determined by the need revealed in an adequate survey conducted by the Missions Committee and local interested groups or churches.

ARTICLE VIII — ORDINATION AND CALLING OF PASTORS

Section 1. Inasmuch as the ordination of a man to the gospel ministry by any church in this Association is expected to be recognized by the denomination as a whole, the churches are counseled to be extremely careful in the matter of setting men apart for this sacred calling, ordaining only those who, by irreproachable character, piety of life, doctrinal soundness and suitable talents, give promise of honoring the name of Christ and of rendering acceptable service in the missionary Baptist ministry.

Section 2. To aid the churches in this vital matter, the Association will appoint each year a committee of five of the pastors to be called the Committee on Ordination. Any church desiring to ordain a brother to the ministry may request the said Committee to act as a presbytery for the purpose of examining the brother as to his fitness for the Baptist ministry, and, if he is found qualified, to assist in the ordination.

Section 3. The churches are urged also to exercise the utmost care and wisdom, earnestly seeking the guidance of the Holy Spirit, in calling of their pastors, choosing only men who give evidence by their Christian character, cooperative spirit and leadership ability, that they will serve the best interests of the churches, the denomination, and the cause of Christ.

ARTICLE IX — NEW CHURCHES

Baptist churches may be organized and established in localities within the territory of this Association when such new churches are seen to be needed. Those interested in organizing a new church may seek the Counsel of the Executive Committee and the Missions Committee of the Association.

ARTICLE X — RULES AND ORDER OF DECORUM

This Association shall be governed in its meetings by such rules and by-laws as may be adopted, amended, or set aside by a majority vote of the messengers present. Robert's Rules of Order will be the guide in all parliamentary matters.

ARTICLE XI — ADOPTION

The Constitution and By-Laws shall take effect immediately upon its adoption by a two - thirds majority vote of the messengers present and shall supersede any and all constitutions, by-laws, and amendments previously adopted.

ARTICLE XII — AMENDMENTS

This Constitution and By-Laws may be amended at any regular annual meeting by a two-thirds majority vote of the messengers present, provided the proposed amendment shall have been presented in written form on the first day of the Annual Meeting. The vote on any proposed amendment so presented may be deferred until the second day if requested by a majority vote of the messengers present.

Executive Committee Report

Your Executive Committee and Council have been quite active this past year. Acting on a number of recommendations that do not come before it very often.

At our August 6 meeting the Planning Committee did recommend that the Association purchase the West Side Methodist Church building and a little over one acre of land for $20,000.00, to be used as an office for the missionary. This was approved by the committee.

On August 26, your Moderator called the Association into special Session at Asheboro First to act on the matter of purchasing this property. You approved the purchasing of the West Side property.

The Finance Committee was asked to present some type of gift or favor for your retiring Missionary, Rev. R. T. Smith. The Finance Committee did recommend, and it carried one hundred percent, that the Association sell to Rev. Smith the home he is now residing in, for $30,000.00. The proceeds are to be put in a Savings and Loan, at the highest interest rate. The interest to be paid to the New Missionary as a housing allowance.

Literature Report

The Old Testament prophet Hosea declared, "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge." Because of a great information void concerning truth, Jeremiah also cried, "Publish and conceal not."

Just as in Old Testament days, communication still remains one of the most sensitive problems in our churches. Think for a moment —how many problems has your church had that could be traced to a lack of communication? Too many church members are misled because they are uninformed, poorly informed, or misinformed. Churches must take initiative to provide accurate information if work in the local church, association, and convention continue to show progress.

Each year more churches understand the importance of providing the RECORDER for each family. When this is done, members become responsive because they are better informed. Baptists have made encouraging progress in recent years through bold mission enterprises and this can be traced to better-informed church members. Stewardship gains also go hand in hand with better communications. As an example, 79 of the 80 churches which led their associations in per capita mission gifts last year have a RECORDER club.

Each church needs to look at its budget carefully and then make provision to send the RECORDER to each family. Although nearly 1,100 churches in the state have the RECORDER in the budget, at least 500 more churches should take this step. Such action could be the difference between mediocrity and greatness in your church.

W. A. Criswell, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Dallas, Tex., urges all Baptists to "stay with the state paper. Increase its circulation. Send it to the homes of all people. The reward will be great."

Louie D. Newton of Georgia who has done more than any other person to interpret the value of Baptist state papers, said: "The investment any church can make in furthering the Kingdom of God is to put the Baptist state paper in the homes of the membership. These papers are the packhorses of every phase of denominational life.

If this "packhorse", meaning the RECORDER, is not going to every family in your church, this may be the year that you take this step.

Respectfully submitted,
Carl L. Zeigler

Brotherhood Report

At the local church level renewed interest in Baptist Men and Royal Ambassador work is gathering mometum. The Brotherhood Emphasis held at Cedar Falls Church in January, the joint session at Union Grove Church in April, the Orvil Reid Rally in September and the September workshop at Caraway for local church and the associational Baptist Men & R A Leaders, were well attended. However, the challenge is still confronting many of our pastor and laymen to begin new work for men and boys in many of our churches.

Not only is the challenge here but for the many churches with ongoing work, we must begin to take advantage of the broader Baptist Men and Royal Ambassador programs offered through North Carolina Baptist Men. There are many tasks that can best be accomplished by unity of men working cooperatively with associations, regional or state groups. Open doors for service in God's Kingdom include Mission Study, Baptist Men Corps, Lay Renewal, Correctional Missions Ministries, Resort Missions, Lay Witness Revivals, Disaster Relief, Lay Overseas Mission and many more.

Remember, every man and boy is either a missionary or in mission field.

Respectfully submitted,
Bill Applewhite

20 The report on State Missions was given at this time.

State Missions Report

1976 has been a year of cooperation. The celebration of the American Bicentennial emphasized the cooperative spirit of this nation. What Americans share in common outweighs their diversity. We are a United States because we are cooperative states.

Cooperation and diversity are cherished principles among Baptists. One hundred forty years before the nation's beginning, a Baptist leader, Roger Williams, opposed coercion in matters of religion. The broad principles of religious liberty, later guaranteed to all Americans, led to the founding of Rhode Island. Three years later, in 1639, the First Baptist Church in America was established there.

Cooperation and diversity are cherished principles among Baptists. mission program. We are a state convention of 3,458 autonomous churches coming together ". . . to promote missions, evangelism, education, social serves." (Constitution, Article II). The convention was founded for missions. It is held together because of missions. And its future growth depends upon a commitment to missions.

Basic to that commitment is a strong program of State Missions. The state of State Missions strongly affects the state of Home and Foreign missions. Mission programs in distant areas depend upon the strength of the "sending churches" back home. Overseas and national missions look to the churches for prayer, concern, missionaries, and money. To be weak on the "home front" is to be even weaker in distant lands.

During the past several years State Missions has emphasized programs to strengthen church and association minstries. Two important emphases are Bible study and leadership training. A strong Christian education program is the backbone of mission support. The Church Program departments—Sunday School, Church Ministries and Training, Church Music, WMU, and Brotherhood—are wholly committed to these tasks.

A second major program of State Missions are the "direct misson" ministries. These programs lengthen the churches' concern across the state, representing you in areas where your church does not serve. The ministries include Deaf Missions, Resort Missions, Student Missions, Chaplaincy and Language Ministries, Christian Social Ministries, and Inter-racial Ministries.

Cooperation in Baptist missions is also evident in the way the programs are conducted. Report Missions for example, is usually a joint project of area churches, Associational Missions, State Missions, and Home Missions. In fact, the vast majority of Home Mission projects in North Carolina are financed 64 percent by State Missions.

State Missions is supported by the cooperative program and the annual State Missions Offering, September 19. The special offering is similar to the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering (Foreign Missions) and the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering (Home Missions).

The 1976 State Missions Offering goal is $400,000. The offering distribution, approved by the 1975 Baptist State Convention, is as follows:

| $175,000 | Basic State Mission Budget |
| 43,000 | Fruitland Classroom Building |
| 72,000 | Caraway Conference Center |
| 10,000 | Special Mission Projects |
| 100,000 | Baptist Assembly (Caswell) |

Home Missions Report

In keeping with the denomination's 1977-79 theme, "Sharing Christ in Bold Mission in the Secular Society," the Home Mission Board gave major attention last year to planning a "Bold Mission Thrust" in the Thrust" in the homeland. There are more than 600 counties in the United States that do not have a Southern Baptist congregation. Direct objectives of the "Bold Mission Thrust" are to "Let every person in our land have an an opportunity to share in the witness and ministry of a NewTestament fellowship of believers."

The Home Mission's Program of Evangelism Development was joined by two more programs, Personal Evangelism and Mass Evangelism. The Program of Personal Evangelism promoted the "Lifestyle Evangelism" project in the denominational emphasis, developed a central strategy for personal evangelism in the local church, assisted 23 state conventions in developing renewal evangelism strategy and conducted a research conference on evangelism with young adults. The Program of Mass Evangelism in 1975 provided plans and support materials for the local church, "Proclamation '76' revivals, trained five area crusade directors, received 21,932 mail responses from the viewing audiences of the syndicated television series, "Spring Street, USA", conducted a conference for Southern Baptist vocational evangelists, and conducted three mass evangelism consultations.

Cooperative Program receipts were up 8.95 percent and the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering advanced 4 percent. The 1975 AAEO receipts totaled $8,491,653, a record offering. The 1976 goal is $9.5 million.

Disaster relief needs in five states were assisted in being met with funds totaling $44,000 distributed through the Department of Social Ministries. The department conducted state and regional conferences on Christian Social Ministries, plus conferences dealing with specialized areas such as youth and family services, ministering to older adults and literacy missions.

Southern Baptist chaplains relating to the Chaplaincy Division conducted 45,439 worship services and 22,689 Bible classes in 1975. A total of 200 denominational endorsements were granted to include military, active duty and reserves, Civilian Air Patrol, hospital, veteran's administration, industrial and institutional chaplaincy; and 15 volunteer chaplaincy ministries were establshed in 1975. Military and civilian chaplains in active service totaled 837, plus 510 in various reserve categories. Southern Baptist chaplains reported 11,689 professions of faith in 1975.

During 1975 the division of Church Loans gave counsel to approximately 1,300 churches, assisting many to receive local financing. Where local financing was not available, loan applications from 185 churches were processed and approved for $12,190,095.

At the close of 1975 a total of 2,124 missionaries were under HMB appointment. This employed force was augmented by 1,208 student summer missionaries, 28 semester missionaries, and 34 sojourners. The list was swelled further by more than 10,000 youths and adults who served one or two weeks through church-sponsored mission programs and by 141 adults who served in the Christian Service Corps.

More than 137,000 Vietnamese and other Southeast Asians entered the U.S. last year. Immediate steps were taken by the HMB's Immigration and Refugee Service Staff. By December, almost 800 churches had participated in resettling 2,777 persons in 768 family units.

As a Southern Baptist I am proud to be a small part of such a great work for our Lord Jesus Christ in this great land called America. Praise God for America and Christians who call themselves Southern Baptist.

Respectfully submitted,
Bill Smithwick

22 Foreign Missions report by Mrs. Carl King.

Foreign Mission Report

The work of Foreign Missions for the past year has been both exciting and rewarding, as well as disappointing. Much has been achieved through the dedicated efforts of our faithful missionaries, in many areas of the world.

After 17 years, working under extreme difficulty, our missionaries reluctantly withdrew from Viet Nam. Because of the Communist take over of the government in Angola, our missionaries have also had to leave that country. This was even more tragic, because the Angolan people were very receptive to the Gospel. The missionaries who remain in Lebanon are working under severe hardship and danger. However, some of our missionaries have been able to work with the refugees from Viet Nam to Singapore, Philippines and U.S.; from Angola, Mozambique to South West Africa to Portugal.

Southern Baptists have responded to the needs of people by sending relief to the people of Bangladesh, Angola and the victims of the South and Central American Earthquakes. A total of $1.67 million was given for world hunger and disaster relief last year. A trained and experienced Specialist, with former missionary service, was reappointed and sent as a relief co-ordinator to the area of greatest current urgency. Over 1200 lay volunteers served overseas last year. Among these were: Evangelists, Medical Doctors, Technicians, construction teams, Youth workers Teachers, Business managers and Agriculturists. A new Agriculture mission program was begun in Antigua. A team of Lay People from N.C. served there for a short time last summer.

Southern Baptist are also demonstrating a greater awareness of Worldwide Missions. There has been an increase in giving through the Co-operative Program and Special offerings. There has also been a continuous flow of inquiries about Mission Service and a growth of prayer concern for Missions.

Last year 265 Missionaries were appointed for Foreign Service. Included in this group were: 134 Career Missionaries, 20 reappointments, 29 Missionary Associates, 80 Missionary Journeymen, and 2 Special Project Nurses. These appointments increased the total number of Southern Baptist Missionaries to 2,667, serving in 82 Foreign Fields. There is now an URGENT REQUEST for 1200 more Missionaries.

Let us be obedient to the Command of our Lord in the great Commission to go and tell the Good News of the Gospel to all men everywhere. Through the avenue of Foreign Missions, let us continue to express God's loving desire for saving a lost world. Never has the challenge been greater, or the need more urgent. May we still be a part of the answer, instad of the problem in today's world, because we do have the Answer in Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior.

31 Bro. Andy Grose gave the Sunday School report.

Sunday School Report

The Sunday School of any church has always been the pivotal organization for the church. The church always grows in comparison to the progress made by the Sunday School in terms of deeper christian commitment and outreach to the unchurched and the unreached.

Our purpose in Sunday School work must always be kept before our people as a reminder. OUR purpose is to TEACH THE BIBLE at all times, in all places to all people, in all ways; to REACH PEOPLE for Bible Study, for Christ, for Church Membership, for Christian Service; and to LEAD MEMBERS in personal development, in concerned Ministry, in divine worship, in dynamic witness, and in application of Biblical principles. Let us never forget our purposes.

This year we held a very successful Vacation Bible School Clinic at First Baptist, Ramseur in April, and so far the reports have been good on the schools that have been held each year. Three areas of development for your VBS next year. If you have not had Adults in Bible Study during this time, you are missing a wonderful new opportunity to teach the Bible. We also encourage Mission VBS in an underpriveleged area or a Backyard Bible Club, which can be taught in any neighborhood where there are children.

A new program, which is catching fire in the Southern Baptist Convention, is called "Action", a program of enrolling people anywhere, anytime, and with their permission for the purpose of Bible study. Many churches have greatly increased their Sunday School, church memberships, and number of baptisms through this unique, innovative program for our Lord Jesus. If you have questions about it, I would be delighted to discuss it with you.

Respectfully submitted,
Andrew P. Grose

32 Rev. B. C. Owenby presented the Cooperative Program report.

Cooperative Program Report

The faithful stewardship of individual Christians and the missionary vision of our churches, expressed through their support of the Cooperative Program enables Southern Baptists to maintain a growing World Missions Program. The stewardship theme for this year is "Bold Believers in Giving." Through the Cooperative Program we demonstrate our mission commitment.

For the Christian, commitment to the task that Jesus set forth involves a total way of life. This may be referred to as the Christian life style. One man said that as he turned his life over to the lordship of Christ and discovered the demands of discipleship, he suddenly realized that his house, his possessions, and his occupational skills belonged to Christ literally, and that they were to be used in trust to accomplish Christ's mission.

For the church, commitment to the bold mission task calls for a specific life style. Churches are stewards, too. The church must demonstrate a commitment to the mission task in the use of all possessions if it is to be true to the command of Jesus. Every church is challenged to increase annually the percentage of its income given through the Cooperative Program. Churches should consider prayerfully the 15 percentage increase suggested by the state convention for Cooperative Program and the increase suggested by the association for associational ministries.

Last year, 1126 churches increased for their gifts through the Cooperative Program by 15% or more, and 4 associations in our state had 100 percent of their churches giving through the Cooperative Program.

WE RECOMMEND:

1. That a stewardship chairman be elected in every church in our association.
2. That a stewardship conference or Stewardship Decision Night be held for interested churches in order to make available to them guidance materials for use in their stewardship programs.
3. That every church conduct a stewardship emphasis this year.
4. Every church in the association giving something through the Cooperative Program for world mission support, every month.
5. Every church in the association increasing the percentage of the total budget income given through the Cooperative Program.
6. Every church in the association giving the suggested amount for the support of associational missions, every month.
7. Have a special prayer for some Cooperative Program ministry during every service in each church during the month of October.

Respectfully submitted,
B. C. Owenby

34 The Church Training report was presented by Mrs. T. B. McCollum, Jr.

35 Speaking to the report was Mr. Rick Taylor.

Church Training Report

Church Training is a vital organization that performs its own unique ministry through God's children because of their willingness to become involved.

No church can afford to be without this organization. Because of this, we are compelled to help strength existing church Training Organizations and help build new ones.

Your 1975-76 Directors who have shared the opportunities and accepted the challenge with me this year are:

Mr. Joe Anderson — Church Leader Training Director
Mr. Charles Beane — Church Member Training Director
Mr. Doyle Owen — New Member Orientation Director

These officers and myself made up your Associational Church Training Council.

We set 2 goals for this year:

1. To organize one new Church Training Organization in the Randolph Association.

2. 10% increase in enrollment of each of the churches' on-going Church Training Organizations.

These goals were presented at "M" Night.

"M" Night was held on Monday, November 24, 1975 at Greystone Baptist Church in Asheboro, N. C. Our guest speaker was the outstanding layman from Tabernacle Baptist Church in Raleigh, N. C., who has served so faithfully in many capacities in the Church Training area of his local church, his association and also on the State level. Mr. Straughn not only challenged us with a great message, but he also shared with us his artistic ability which made his message come alive.

An "M" Night Banner was presented to Oakwood Park Baptist Church for the highest percentage of their Church Training enrollment being represented at "M" Night.

The Association Children's Bible Drill was held on Monday, May 24, at Oakhurst Baptist Church. We had seven winners, six from First Baptist Church, Asheboro, N. C., and one from Greystone Baptist Church, Asheboro, N. C. Two of these winners from First Baptist Church were 3 year winners. These seven went on to represent us in the State Tournament also and were winners again.

The Associational Youth Night was held on Monday, August 23, at Camp Caraway. This night included fun, food, fellowship and inspiration for everyone. Our guest speaker was Rev. Richard W. Everette, Assistant Director of Evangelism in the Baptist State Convention. He shared a very stirring and challenging message on choosing our Master of Life. Special music was provided by the Calvary Baptist Youth Choir from Reidsville, N. C. This choir also involved us in this music portion of the worship service and also led us in testimonials.

This was truly a great night for all who were fortunate enough to be a part of it.

Our attendance goal for Youth Night was set at 300 and with the Lord's help we went over our goal and achieved an attendance of 315.

Everyone who helped make this night a reality, whether they be the cooks who prepared the food, the promoters, the ones who set up the props or whoever they might be, they certainly turned out in greater numbers than we anticipated.

The Lord has been good to us in Church Training this year and if our efforts and enthusiasm continue, he will bless us even more next year.

As I have served in this area this year, I have yet to ask for help from anyone in the Randolph Association that I did not receive more help than I ask for. With this kind of support we can only move forward. Thank you all for your much needed prayers and continued support.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. T. B. McCollum, Jr.

36 Mr. Otus Thomas presented the Christian Education report.

Christian Education Report

Baptist Colleges and Baptist History

A careful reading of North Carolina Baptist history reveals that the Baptist State Convention was organized primarily for the purpose of establishing a Baptist college. When the Convention was organized primarily for the purpose of establishing a Baptist college. When the Convention was formed in 1830, there were two church academies already in existence, as well as the University of North Carolina in Chapel Hill. However, Baptists wanted their own school. Wake Forest Institute was begun in 1834. Five years later the Institute became Wake Forest College. Thus, Baptists in this state have been closely identified with Christian higher education for 142 years.

Today, the Christian higher education system for Baptists embraces six other colleges in addition to Wake Forest: Campbell, Chowan, Gardner-Webb, Mars Hill, Meredith, and Wingate. Since 1944, these schools have been guided in their development by the Council on Christian Higher Education of the Baptist State Convention. The Council is the only organization of its kind in the Southern Baptist Convention, and is one of the oldest educational cooperatives in America.

Cooperation Between Colleges and Churches

It is not enough that North Carolina Baptists have begun and now support six colleges and one university. As important as history and tradition are, they cannot substitute for warm vital relationships in the present. The need for colleges and churches to give fresh attention to their partnership and their mutual dpendence is always present. Listed below are some of the ways this partnership finds tangible expression year after year:

1. North Carolina Baptists continue to support their colleges through the cooperative Program and the Baptist College Day offering on Father's Day.
2. The colleges continue to provide training for most of the pastors and other church staff persons who lead North Carolina Baptist churches.
3. Pastors have helped the colleges in their efforts to recruit Baptist young people by furnishing the names of high school students for contact by the colleges.
4. The colleges pledge to North Carolina Baptist youth that financial aid is available to assist them in attending a Baptist college. No qualified student is turned away for financial reasons. Grants, loans, and work scholarships are available.
5. Churches, pastors' conferences, and associations invite the colleges to send students and faculty to speak and lead programs.
6. Baptist colleges are anxious to receive invitations to serve the churches and associations. Each of the colleges is prepared to send speakers upon request.

North Carolina Baptists Colleges and the Southern Baptist Convention

There are 53 colleges supported by the various Baptist State Conventions. The enrollment of the seven North Carolina Baptist colleges comprises about 15% of the total enrollment of these 53 schools. While the Southern Baptist Convention does not own any colleges, there is a strong emphasis by the denominations upon Christian higher education through the SBC Education Commission. In the Baptist Faith and Message, adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in 1963, the following statement occurs: "The cause of education in the kingdom of Christ is co-ordinate with the causes of missions and general benevolence and should receive along with these the liberal support of the churches. An adequate system of Christian schools is necessary to complete spiritual program for Christ's people."

The Mission of Baptist Colleges

In a secular world with its materialistic priorities, Baptist Colleges are committed to the guidance of Christian values in the search for truth. Believing that God is the source of all knowledge and wisdom, Baptist Colleges can urge students to search for truth in all areas of knowledge without fear.

Baptist colleges reaffirm their gratitude for the support given by Baptists through the Cooperative program. We further reaffirm our faith in and our suport of the local church, and the broad programs of our denomination.

LET US CONTINUE TO SUPPORT OUR SCHOOLS WITH OUR PRAYERS, OUR BEST THOUGHT, OUR GENUINE INTEREST, AND OUR FINANCIAL CONTRIBUTIONS. THEY DESERVE THE BEST WE CAN GIVE THEM.

Respectfully submitted,
Otus Thomas

40 Report on Temperance and Morals by Neal Cockerham.

Temperance And Morals

Before writing on a subject of morals, one must first look at the definition. I believe we can say that morals mean good in character or conduct according to civilized standards of right and wrong, based on the principles of right conduct rather than on law or custom. Moral implies to the rules and accepted standards of society. When a person looks at the word morals, it reminds him of the word ethics which comes from the same root as morals. However, it is convenient to distinguish between ethics which refers to the systematic general science of right and wrong conduct and the direct working rules of moral action.

One of man's special traits is to ask thoughtful questions about what he should or should not do. He does not have to ask about breathing or digesting, but he does have to ask whether he should accept a bribe or how he should treat his children. I have studied several books on morality and have looked at the view points of the scholars in trying to explain moral ethics but all seem to uplift themselves in their own knowledge. Most of the time when trying to explain moral character, they will say I think this and I think that, but they are never sure about anything.

It's not up to man to say whats rights or whats wrong in the world today, because men think different and they don't always agree with each other. Psychologist and Sociologist will never be able to solve the problem of moral ethics by themselves. The only way man will be able to understand his morals, is reaching back to the Bible and gathering the valuable information in there which covers our whole life. The world today is becoming complexed and confused because we no longer depend on God's word for the answer, but look to ourselves for the answer. We come up with many answers that is subject to change at any time, but God's answers never change. We ask ourselves what happened to the morals in our society, and at the same time we allowed the Bible to be taken out of the schools and stand by and listen to someone trying to pass a law to take, In God We Trust off of our money.

God has already laid out a plan to take care of the morals in our society if we will accept it. If we don't accept, we must pay the price, which is very high. In studying the Bible, one will find that our morals are already laid out. All we have to do is read the word and do what it says. However, if we refuse to go the Bible route, we must listen to man's knowledge which is very limited. We have all types of groups in our society that don't agree with how the past generations have looked on morality, so they say we must be different from that generation and they are willing to make a full change on morality without studying any history on morality because they just want to be different.

Everyday our Nation's Morals are attacked by some ethic group that wants to do their own thing. The crime rate is rising everyday, but our nation seems to be too blind to see whats happening. I think we need to look at the morality of a christian and the morality of a sinner and pick which moralist we would want to be like. After all, God has given up a choice to choose between his life style or man's own life style. Which one will you choose???

Respectfully submitted,
Neal Cockerham

41 Mr. Carl King presented the report on Annuity.

Annuity Board Report

Southern Baptist churches depend on the Annuity Board to provide retirement and insurance protection to pastors and others in church-related vocations.

The Board holds in trust retirement contributions from nearly 40,000 persons. Their contributions will be converted into annuity benefits when they retire.

These contributions taken together, are considered as funds held in trust by the Annuity Board. They now amount to $401,135,261. While this appears to be a great deal of money, this must be divided among the 40,000 future annuitants and serve their lifetime, post-retirement needs.

Darold H. Morgan, president of the Board, described 1975 as "an excellent year of recovery, growth, and optimism" for the agency. Income from the investment of funds held in trust attained a one-year record of $23,149,064.

Benefits paid to retirees, widows, and the disabled in 1975 amounted to $15,734,003. During the Annuity Board's 58 years of existence, it has paid more than $141 million in retirement and protection benefits.

A 13th Check issued in December, 1975 provided 8,221 annuitants with an eextra month's income to help them combat the rapidly rising cost of living. The combined amount of this extra benefit came to $733,585. It is called the 13th Check because it is over and above the 12 regular monthly payments.

The Annuity Board helps churches and SBC agencies get the best coverage at the most advantageous rates in life, health, and disability insurance.

Additional information about the Annuity Board may be obtained through the Development Office, Annuity Board, SBC, 511 North Akard Building, Dallas, Texas, 75201.

In North Carolina 2667 staff members of 2140 churches and associations are participating in the Southern Baptist Retirement Program —2421 in the Family Benefit Section, 1069, in the Age Security Section, and 240 in the Variable Benefit Section.

The following churches are the ones who are now participating in the Annuity Program in our association; Armfield Heights, Asbury, Asheboro, First, Balfour, Caraway, Central Falls, Clearview, Deep River, Forest Park, Franklinville, Glenola, Gravel Hill, Greystone, Huldah, Liberty First, Macedonia, Maple Springs, Mt. Lebanon, Oakhurst, Oakwood, Ramseur First, Randleman First, Russells Grove, Union Grove, Worthville and the Randolph Baptist Association.

I urge every full time church in the Randolph Baptist Association to consider enrolling your pastor in one of the plans offered by our Annuity Board.

Respectfully submitted,
Carl L. King

42 The Children's Home report given by Rev. T. W. Nelson.

Baptist Children's Homes Report

As our nation enters its third century, we are reminded that its future is in its children. We have no greater national need than strength of character and wholeness of persons in our citizens. Yet, too many children, through family tragedy or breakdown or weakness, are deprived of the growing experiences so essential to wholeness of life.

The purpose of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina is to help make up this loss through a Christian ministry of quality child care. Emergency Care is offered the child who needs immediate short-term care to provide time for a more permanent plan. Group Care is offered the child who needs the multiple relationships which a group of his peers and a staff of Christian professionals can provide.

Foster Care is offered the preschooler and the older child who needs the closer relationships of a family setting. Maternity Care is offered the unwed mother and her child. Preschool care and education are offered a select group of younger children. Consultation in child development and family life education is offered to churches concerned for families and children in their communites. Varied planning and counselling services are offered to families in stress.

In each of these services, the focus is on the whole family, the motivation is Christian love, the aim is wholeness and health for the persons served.

To make these varied services available to families and children, a statewide network of facilities and programs has emerged. Indian Beach, Kinston, Pembroke, Fayetteville, Raleigh, Burlington, Wallburg, Thomasville, Charlotte, Forest City, Asheville, Waynesville—each site is a base of operations from which families in need can secure assistance. Furthermore, the staff is prepared to call on the additional resources of religious, educational, medical, psychological, recreational, and social service personnel in the communities to help persons grow to their full potential.

No greater investment can be made in the future of God's Kingdom or in the future of American than to invest in children. Our support of missions through the co-operative Program is the lifeline of our Baptist Children's Homes, and our special gift at Thanksgiving further guarantees the continuance of Christian child care. So let each of us in Randolph Association join our hearts and voices in prayer for the staff and leaders of our children's homes and provide a generous offering during our Thanksgiving season for each phase of our child care program.

Respectfully submitted,
T. W. Nelson

43 Rev. H. C. Neathery gave the report on the Baptist Hospital.

44 Speaking to the Hospital report was Rev. Calvin Wright.

Baptist Hospital Report

Our Baptist Hospital continues to grow and show signs of being a modern, up-to-date, progressive medical institution with a program designed to meet the needs of people in every situation. The institution attempts to create and maintain an atmosphere that is conducive to healing for body, mind, and soul. The hospital's leadership takes the lead in this by holding to a philosophy of administration based on stewardship and tries to pass this on to all its employees. An effort is made to help every employee, whatever his particular job, to realize and feel that he is a part of a team involved in a Christian ministry of healing.

This sense of stewardship demands a continual updating and upgrading of medical procedures to assure patients the highest quality care. One of the most significant recent developments is the creation of a department of Family Medicine. This department provides primary health care for a limited number of families and offers training in family medicine for physicians who will enter this field of medical practice.

Improvement of physical facilities is another expression of the hospital's sense of stewardship. In recent months renovation of the west and south wings of the hospital has been completed; construction has been completed on an addition to the water chilling facilities; construction has begun on a four level parking deck in front of Reynolds Tower which will provide approximately 800 parking spaces for visitors; and construction has begun on a new building to house the new department of Family Medicine.

The Pastoral Care Department continues to make its contributions toward the fulfillment of our stewardship. A chaplain is assigned to each area of the hospital and is responsible for providing a pastoral ministry to patients, staff and visitors in that area. There are capacity enrollments in all phases of the clinical pastoral educational programs. A third satellite has opened in Morganton during the past year.

Mother's Day gifts for the fiscal year ending June 30 were $405,946.52 compared to a total of $390,000 for the preceding fiscal year. We believe this fine record of achievement merits the strong support of our people in North Carolina.

45 Baptist Homes for the Aging report given by Kenneth Tucker.

Baptist Homes For The Aging

In 1951, the Baptist Homes for the Aging began their work. In March of 1976, they pased a great mile-stone marking 25 years of service and growth. There are at present five homes and an exceellent nursing facility housing 230 residents and patients. Hundreds have been cared for and their families helped through the gifts and offerings of Southern Baptists.

The 1975-76 year entered Southern Baptist into a special Fund-Raising effort to supply $1,000,000 dollars for the construction of the Western North Carolina Baptist Home in Asheville. This new home will accommodate 50 people, raising the total capacity of all the homes to 280.

Another venture of the Baptist Homes is the building of apartments at the Hayes Home in Winston Salem. The first of these is to be completed in the fall of 1977.

The love gifts of North Carolina Baptists through the Special Feb ruary Offerings and the Cooperative Program, provide more than 35% of the income for the Baptist Homes. As the Homes for the Aging expand their program to care for more residents, let us as Christians and Southern Baptist expand our giving to share the responsibility and the blessings with them.

Kenneth E. Tucker

47 Rev. W. A. Gillett, Jr., presented the Report on Evangelism.

Evangelism Report

We Christians are involved in evangelism to the degree that we are truly christian.[1]

Evangelism according to Christ, our Lord, is not an extra, an elective, an occasional activity. Evangelism is Christianity at work, producing the fruits of discpleshp. Evangelism is not the fighting of sporadic battles, but is an unceasing warfare. Evangelism is never defensive; it has but one strategy—conquest![2]

In consideration of the fact that our Christian faith is always "just one generation from being lost from the earth",[3] what are we as North Carolina and Randolph Baptists doing to make assurance that the next generation will know our Lord, too?

First of all, let's look back to opportunities we shared together for personal enrichment and challenge. In February, the 30th, Statewide Evangelism Conference in Asheville, with over 2600 in attendance, provided for us probably one of the best blessings we have had in recent years. Lay evangelism schools are continuing to provide excellent training in lay witness. Over 14,284 persons from 1,150 churches and 62 associations have participated. There have been 896 professions of faith, thus far recorded from these efforts. Approximately 12,000 youth and youth leaders attended the 6th Statewide Evangelism Night in Greensboro. Hundreds of decisions were recorded and forwarded to local churches throughout the state followup with those who responded. The two summer youth evangelism teams directed youth revivals and youth witness training in 18 churches across the state for a one week period in each church. Many youth made decisions for Christ under the teams' leadership.

In Randolph Association, the highlight experience for this year was the three night evangelism conference featuring Dr. Vance Havner. Over 1300 attended and were truly blessed.

As we look ahead for 1976-77, we encourage each of you to lead your church into various evangelism emphases, as: C.A.R.E. Revivals for 1977; Youth Evangelism Strategy, (which emphasizes (1) Family Leadership; (2) Touch Ministry; (3) Discipleship Groups; (4) Joy Explosion and (5) the W.O.W. — Win Our World — which involves specific witness training for youth), and by all means, since the 31st Statewide Evangelism Conference will be Feb. 7-9, 1977, in Greensboro, please take several of your church leadres with you to receive these blessings, too.

In Appreciation

We are grateful to God for the abundant blessings which He so graciously bestows upon us. We are thankful for the privilege of serving in His name through our Churches and our Association.

Our gratiude to all the persons who had a part in perparing the inspiring program, and those who participated.

Our deepest appreciation to Brother Talmadge Smith, our Associational Missionary, for his 25 years of faithful services for his patience, wise counsel, and fine help rendered to our churches, pastors and people. Brother Talmadge, we Randolph Baptists love you.

May we continue to show our gratitude to our Heavenly Father by re-committing ourselves to Him in service and love.

a. The promotion of harmony, fellowship and cooperation among the churches of the Association.

b. The propagation of the Gospel within the territory of the Association and to the uttermost part of the earth.

ARTICLE II — MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. The membership of the Association shall consist of messengers of Baptist churches regularly affiliated with the Association. All churches desiring affiliation with the Association shall present to the Committee on Reception of New Churches proper petitions, accompanied by satisfactory evidences of doctrinal regularity and general acceptability. After one year under the watchcare of the Association the said Committee will report to the Association its recommendation. Upon a favorable vote of two-thirds majority of the messengers present at the annual associational meeting the petitioning church may become regularly affiliated with the Association.

"Fellowship may be withdrawn by the Association at any annual meeting upon recommendation of the Executive Committee, from any church in its membership that has been found, by due investigation, to have departed from the Missionary Baptist faith and practices, or has failed to abide by the provision of this Constitution and By-laws, or has failed to either have its pastor or lay member or both in attendance in one or more of the four regular meetings of the Executive Committee, or has failed to make a contribution to the expenses of the Association in addition to the cost of Association minutes, or has failed to properly prepare and return to the Association office a copy of the associational letter, or has failed to send one or more messengers to the annual session of the Association."

(B) Such a church may, upon recommendation of the Executive Committee and vote of the Association, be placed on probation until the conditions prompting such action have been corrected. Messengers from any church on probation shall not be allowed to vote in the meetings of the Association.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of each church to furnish to the Association each year a letter, on the form provided by the Clerk, giving full information and statistics provided for on the form, and to send with the letter or by messenger a contribution toward the cost of printing the minutes and other expenses of the Association.

Section 4. It is understood that each church in this Association is independent and sovereign in its own affairs, and the Association has no authority over the churches, except of an advisory nature.

Section 5. A church may withdraw from membership in the Association by a vote of the church according to its own by-laws, regulations or procedure.

ARTICLE III — MEETINGS

Section 1. The Association shall meet annually on two days during the week following the Third Sunday in October.

e. The Nominating Committee shall nominate a complete slate of officers for the next year, excepting the Moderator, Vice-Moderator, Clerk and Treasurer.

f. Guiding Principles for the Work of the Missions Committee of the Randolph Association.

1. The Committee is to seek to discover areas where new work is needed and to lead in the sponsorship or establishment of new work to meet present need or the securing of property by a local church and/or the Association in the anticipation of future need.

2. All new work does not necessarily need to be nor should be intended to become an organized or constituted church. New work may be started and maintained on the basis of a mission to meet particular need (this provides for institutional missions such as jails, prisons, rest homes, etc.)

3. The location of missions or new churches shall be determined by the need revealed in an adequate survey conducted by the Missions Committee and local interested groups or churches.

4. Any church, committee, group or individuals considering beginning new work, acting with or without church sponsorship, should approach the Missions Committee for guidance before having any service or choosing a temporary or permanent location.

5. The Missions Committee shall institute basic, understandable operational procedures and practices for a mission that leads in establishing and strongly urges that each church establishing a mission does the same. The guidance of missions by the Missions Committee shall continue until a co-operating church or churches can be led to accept the responsibility of sponsorship.

6. A mission organized or assisted by the Missions Committee shall accept the recognized principles and practices of a church co-operating with the Randolph Association, the Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE VIII — ORDINATION AND CALLING OF PASTORS

Section 1. Inasmuch as the ordination of a man to the gospel ministry by any church in this Association is expected to be recognized by the denomination as a whole, the churches are counseled to be extremely careful in the matter of setting men apart for this sacred calling, ordaining only those who, by irreproachable character, piety of life, doctrinal soundness and suitable talents, give promise of honoring the name of Christ and of rendering acceptable service in the missionary Baptist ministry.

Section 2. To aid the churches in this vital matter, the Association will appoint each year a committee of five of the pastors to be called the Committee on Ordination. Any church desiring to ordain a brother to the ministry may request the said Committee to act as a presbytery for the purpose of examining the brother as to his fitness for the Baptist ministry, and, if he is found qualified, to assist in the ordination.

Section 3. The churches are urged also to exercise the utmost care and wisdom, earnestly seeking the guidance of the Holy Spirit, in calling of their pastors, choosing only men who give evidence by their Christian character, cooperative spirit and leadership ability, that they will serve the best interests of the churches, the denomination, and the cause of Christ.

ARTICLE IX — NEW CHURCHES

Baptist churches may be organized and established in localities within the territory of this Association when such new churches are seen to be needed. Those interested in organizing a new church may seek the Counsel of the Executive Committee and the Missions Committee of the Association.

ARTICLE X — RULES AND ORDER OF DECORUM

This Association shall be governed in its meetings by such rules and by-laws as may be adopted, amended, or set aside by a majority vote of the messengers present. Robert's Rules of Order will be the guide in all parliamentary matters.

ARTICLE XI — ADOPTION

The Constitution and By-Laws shall take effect immediately upon its adoption by a two - thirds majority vote of the messengers present and shall supersede any and all constitutions, by-laws, and amendments previously adopted.

ARTICLE XII — AMENDMENTS

This Constitution and By-Laws may be amended at any regular annual meeting by a two-thirds majority vote of the messengers present, provided the proposed amendment shall have been presented in written form on the first day of the Annual Meeting. The vote on any proposed amendment so presented may be deferred until the second day if requested by a majority vote of the messengers present.

11 Changes in the constitution presented and approved at this time.

Constitution Proposals

1. In keeping with the terminology now used by our State and Southern Baptist Convention, the Constitution Committee proposed that the term "Director of Missions" replace the term "Field Worker" whenever the term "Field Worker" appears in our constitution.

2. In order to provide our Director of Missions with a representative group with whom he can confer on a more regular and inimate basis, the Constitution Committee proposed that the existing Association Council be utilized in this capacity by changing Article VI, Section 2, part A, which reads: "The Associational Council shall hold meetings once each quarter and at such other times as deemed necessary by the Chairman, or at the call of not less than 5 members of the Council," to read, "The Associational Council shall hold meetings once each month and at such other times as deemed necessary by the chairman, Director of Missions or at the call of not less than 5 members of the Council."

12 Rev. Tom Patterson made the motion that the Association send a telegram on Wednesday morning to Mrs. Justus Rotan, in the loss of her father.

14 Special Music by the Cedar Falls Baptist Church Choir.

16 Rev. Carl Zeigler presented the Christian Literature Report.

17 Speaking to the Christian Literature Report was Mr. Worth Grant.

Christian Literature Report

What is perhaps the greatest challenge faced in all the history of Southern Baptists is before our people for the remaining 23 years of the 20th century. It has been called "Bold Missions Thrust," and the success in the venture is yet to be determined. There is no doubt concerning the importance or the motivation for the undertaking, but there is uncertainty as to whether the motivating message will be successfully communicated to some 13 million Southern Baptists, and to our more than 34,000 churches. Without adequate communication channels, the program cannot succeed.

The heart of the program is to evangelize and congregationalize the world's population, and the trust is confronting all human beings everywhere with the gospel, and affording them the opportunity of knowing and trusting Christ as Saviour, and then leading them to understanding of His lordship.

The program is so big, and the challenge so great, that every Baptist must be involved to make it successful. Not since Jesus presented his disciples the goal of going into all the world has such boldness been demonstrated.

The most difficult problems faced in our churches are related to communications. When people are uninformed, poorly informed, or misinformed, they get into trouble. When they know what is taking place in their local congregation and in the denomination, interest is generated and cooperation results. Openness is therefore important, and the purpose of the BIBLICAL RECORDER is to keep Baptist church members informed concerning involvement in their denomination, and in the Christian world.

In light of developments presently underway in our denomination, it is important that every Baptist church member in N. C. receive the BIBLICAL RECORDER weekly. Already more than 1100 churches in our state are providing through their budgets for the RECORDER to go to all resident families. The Southern Baptist Convention has adopted a circulation goal of eight million for state papers by 1980. The SBC believes that every Baptist family ought to be receiving its state Baptist paper. RECORDER circulation approaches 120,000 but should be increased in the immediate future to 150,000.

If your church is not sending the RECORDER to resident families at the present time, arrangements should be made immediately to do so by incorporating it in your church budget. Costing less than half the price of a postage stamp per issue, it is delivered by U. S. mail directly to your home address.

The RECORDER doesn't cost; it pays! Your church will be a healthier congregation if you provide the RECORDER for your resident families. It is the most widely read piece of literature received by North Carolina Baptists. No investment pays greater dividends.

Respectfully submitted,
Carl L. Zeigler

18 The president of the W.M.U., Mrs. Gordon Ray, presented the W.M.U. report.

W.M.U. Report

I have had so much difficulty preparing this report! As a small child my mother instilled in me to not "brag" or call attention to any accomplishments I might achieve in life; to let someone else praise me if I did anything praiseworthy. I know I haven't accomplished very much this year but it's hard for me to list what we, as your WMU Council did; to keep a record of our "good deeds."

Then God so beautifully and gently reminded me, "you aren't bragging on yourself at all! You're bragging on me because without you allowing me to lead and work through you, nothing could have been done."

Then it all started falling into place and I was amazed at what God had succeeded in doing through our feeble efforts. The Holy Spirit gave me comfort through the song "Little is Much if God is in it." it is in this spirit that I now give this report; please accept it in the same manner.

The WMU Watchword for 1976-77 taken from Eph. 6:13 "Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand," and the hymn, "Stand Up, Stand Up for Jesus" reminded us that the Christian life is a fight with evil every day and the only way to withstand is to gird ourselves with the gospel armour.

As my guideline for this year, God impressed me with a verse from II Timothy 2:15. "Work hard so God can say to you, "Well done! Be a good workman, one who does not need to be ashamed when God examines your work. Know what His Word says and means." (L.B.)

Will you join in prayer with me as we continue to let God work through us to accomplish His will?

19 The Brotherhood Report was presented by Mr. William Applewhite, President.

Brotherhood Report

The key to any successful Baptist Men or Royal Ambassador program is to be found in the dedication of the leadership in each local church. The ringing question that must be answered by each pastor and layperson in turn is this, If we are "mission minded" and we claim to be, how can we fail to teach missions to our men and boys.

We now have seventeen churches reporting Baptist Men or Royal Ambassador work, an increase of two churches with an 18 percent increase in enrollment to 529. We are growing and this is encouraging but there is much to be done. With a renewed effort from our church leaders, we hope to see more churches beginning programmed mission activities for men and boys. Out of 80 associations in North Carolina 38 reported enrollment of more than 529 in 1976. However, with our location here in central North Carolina; with Caraway and the new Conference Center so close; and so many growth opportunities available to our men and boys in Randolph Association, we should show substantial growth as we strive to be continuously deserving of being called "Missionary Baptist."

Respectfully submitted,
Bill Applewhite

20 Mrs. Calvin Brower presented the State Missions Report.

State Missions Report

State Missions is a variety of people-centered ministries that both strengthen and lengthen the witness of local churches in North Carolina.

State Missions strengthens churches through pastoral aid (supplement to pastor's salaries), lot aid (low interest loans for church property), and financial supplement to ministers' retirement programs. State Missions also helps churches by sponsoring conferences, workshops, seminars, and retreats. These range from larger meetings like the Statewide Evangelism Conference to smaller, regional retreats on family life or weekday early education.

State Missions lengthens the witness of local churches through specialized ministries — ones which most churches could not support alone. These programs include deaf ministries, resort missions, migrant missions, chaplaincy ministries, Christian social ministries, and language missions.

North Carolina Baptist boldly set an offering goal of $1,385,000.00 for 1977. The purpose and challenge of the million-dollar increase was debt retirement.

Randolph Baptist Association cooperated with N. C. State Convention in the Opening The Door to Bold Missions campaign by providing twenty interpreters for our local churches.

The State Mission interpreters were: Stan Haywood, Dr. Fred Graham, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Carl King, Mrs. Fred Garner, James Lane, Miss Lois Grece, Otus Thomas, Mrs. Calvin Brower, Mrs. Ray McNeill, Mrs. Betty Sands, Marvin Caviness, Ray Cashatt, Bill Applewhite, Clinton McNeill, Mrs. Gary Kimrey, Rev. Justus McKeel, and J. T. Martin.

In preparation for their role as an interpreter, seven attended a State Missions Banquet training session at the Royal Villa, Greensboro, and eleven at a meeting with Dave Langford, representative of Brotherhood Department, and Mrs. Calvin Brower, chairman.

Each informed church was challenged to set a goal and respond with a bold committment on September 18.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Calvin Brower

21 The Home Missions Report was presented by Mrs. B. W. Jackson.

Home Missions Report

Did you know that more than half of our nation's people work, love, and play without any concern for, or awareness of, the person of Jesus Christ? In cooperation with the Southern Baptist Convention's four-year emphasis, the Home Mission Board is gearing up to help churches and individuals change this cold hard fact.

The plan is Bold Mission Thrust. Its timespan is 1976-1979. Its objectives are:

- Let every person in our land have an opportunity to hear and accept the gospel of Jesus Christ.
- Let every person in our land have an opportunity to share in the witness and ministry of a New Testament fellowship of believers.

To describe these objectives, Home Mission Board strategists and planners are using — and shaping — two words:

Evangelize: "This means, simply, giving people a chance to hear, accept or reject the gospel. It means making believers of non-believers.

Congregationalize: This is a newly coined word which means to give people a chance for congregational expression of their faith, and to be a part of a fellowship of believers who share and witness to their faith.

The major part of the Home Missions Board's 1977 operating budget of $24,600,000 comes from the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering and Cooperative Program funds. $11,250,000 of the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering will go to the areas related to the two Bold Mission Thrust objectives.

As Baptists, we have the opportunity to provide for every person in our land to hear and accept the gospel and to have opportunity to worship in a fellowship of kindred believers. Let us pray to God to reveal to us the Bold Mission actions which our churches should undertake.

The Home Mission Board works in all 50 states plus Puerto Rico and American Samoa.

More than 2,400 missionaries, staff and office personnel serve full-time for the HMB. The HMB also uses around 19,000 special workers on mission fields every year: youth groups and choirs, Student Summer Missionaries, Sojourners, Campers on Mission and Christian Service Corps volunteers. The HMB also endorses more than 1,500 men and women serving as chaplains in hospitals, institutions, industry and in the military.

More than half of all home missionaries — more than 1,000 — are language missionaries, ministering to Americans of non-English language and culture. About 300 home missionaries serve in Christian social ministries, and between 350 and 400 pastors receive church pastoral aid.

The HMB's ministries are funded by Southern Baptist giving through two channels, the Cooperative Program and the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering. Each one makes up about half of the HMB's total budget.

Dr. William G. Tanner, the Home Mission Board's young, new executive director, said, "I am convinced God is going to reach America through the Home Mission Board. I really believe it. I don't condition my statement by saying, 'If he does . . .' because I believe he is going to do it. I believe we are on the verge of it."

We share in this great task of winning America for Christ. Let us be obedient to the command of our Lord Jesus Christ to tell the Good News of the Gospel beginning in Randolph Association.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Ruth E. Jackson

22 Rev. Vernon McDaniel, Pastor of Asheboro First, presented the Foreign Missions Report.

Foreign Missions Report

Foreign Missions continued to occupy a great part of Southern Baptists' ministry to the whole world during this past year as we continued to respond to the challenge of the Great Commission in Matthew 28.

The eyes of the whole world is focused on the challenge of Southern Baptists that was laid down and unanimously picked up at the meeting in Kansas City, Missouri, this past June. The theme for the challenge of foreign missions projected for the last quarter of this century is: TOTAL MISSIONS THRUST: Global Discipleship.

The first part of the theme, TOTAL MISSION THRUST, suggests comprehensive, dynamic, action-oriented foreign missions programs. These programs will require the cooperative efforts of all Southern Baptists and thousands of national Christians with whom our missionaries labor. Involved will be the acceleration and enlargement of existing programs as well as initiation of new approaches to gospel proclamation.

The second part of the theme, Global Discipleship, in part represents both the ultimate goal as well as the prerequisite for attaining this goal. Christian disciples who are disciplined, committed, and responsive to their Lord's command must move out across the world in ever-increasing numbers if we attain the primary objective of our plans: to proclaim the gospel to all people by the end of the century.

Objectives to accomplish this is both exciting and awesome: (1) A missionary staff of more than 5,000 which will call for at least 9,000 new missionaries to be sent out over the next 25 years. (2) Increased tempo of volunteer lay involvement overseas up to 10,000 per year by A.D. 2000. (3) Missionaries at work in at least 125 countries (84 at present) as God may lead. Other objectives have been laid down to help and accomplish establishment, penetration, and saturation of the gospel message to the peoples of the world by the year A.D. 2000.

Looking back just briefly, at the end of 1976 we had a total missionary force of 2,115. The annual Lottie Moon Christmas Offering exceeded the $26 million mark for the first time. A total $26,145,220 was received. Gifts for world relief through the Foreign Mission Board reached $1,646,131, about the same as the previous year.

The challenge is before us — to tell the world about Jesus by A.D. 2000. Never have we been asked to do so much in a BOLD way. Randolph Baptists are challenged by TOTAL MISSIONS THRUST and pledge our prayerful, material, and physical support of this effort. We challenge each sister church to lay the challenge of foreign missions before our youth as never before, praying all the while that "God will send forth laborers unto His harvest."

Respectfully submitted,
Vernon B. McDaniel

29 Rev. Bud Gillett presented the Nominating Committee report and this will be found in the directory section of the minutes.

30 Sunday School report was presented at this time by the Moderator.

31 Speaking to the Sunday School report was Miss Janice Haywood, Bible School worker from the North Carolina State Convention.

Sunday School Report

The emphasis for this year has been the Bible Teaching-Learning Improvement. We held one of the Nationwide Teaching-Learning Workshops at First Baptist, Asheboro, on March 7, 1977 and continued with a two night study of the new leadership training manuals for teaching/learning improvements on September 19-20 at First Baptist Church, Asheboro.

One of the programs which has gained momentum across our Southern Baptist Convention in recent years is called the ACTION plan for starting new Sunday Schools. Phenomenal growth has been experienced by those churches who have tried this plan. Your Sunday School can start another Sunday School by utilizing the ACTION plan. The idea behind this emphasis is that every church needs to examine it's potential for starting new Sunday Schools. When a church realizes this potential, a tool is available for the task — ACTION. Throughout 1977-78, the move is on for starting new Sunday Schools.

ADULT START-A-CLASS EMPHASIS

You can reach out and teach more adults if you will organize new Sunday School classes for young married adults, single adults, college adults, median adults, and senior adults. The second Sunday in each quarter could be designated Start A Class Sunday. It should be preceded by a week of enrollment effort. You may be wondering: What's ahead for our people in 1977-78? What can we, as a church, do to make this coming year one of the best ever?

Before you begin to search for an easy automatic formula, examine these three verbs: PRAY, PLAN, and WORK.

PRAY. — Pray about your Sunday School and your place in it. Never fall into the trap of thinking that training, planning, and organization guarantee a successful, growing Sunday School. It is only through God's power that success is achieved and Bible study is made meaningful. Praying about the needs and plans of your Sunday School is the beginning of hope, assurance, and joy for 1977-78.

PLAN. To be ready for 1977-78, you need to plan for exciting, adventuresome times for your Sunday School. Growth, improved teaching, and caring outreach do not happen spontaneously; they must be desired, planned for, and worked at before they can be realized.

The emphasis suggested for 1977-78 can become successful realities in your Sunday School if you take the time to plan their adoption, preparation, implementation, and evaluation. To plan, you need people and materials. Gather your people, pastor, minister of education, Sunday School director, department directors, and other general officers — for planning. Collect your materials — the BIBLE TEACHING PROGRAM PLAN BOOK, 1977-78, OUTREACH magazine, ADULT LEADERSHIP, your Bible Teaching-Learning Improvement materials, and Free Leaflets. Involve your people and learn your materials. The best is yet to come as you look ahead to reaching and teaching more people in 1977-78.

WORK. You can pray, and you can plan, but if you stop there, you might as well quit. There is no substitute for dedicated work. If you really want a great year in your Sunday School, you must work at it. Work until your hands are sore, your feet ache, your head is spinning, and your heart is weary; then keep working. Your determination puts feet to your prayers and your plans.

32 Rev. B. C. Owenby presented the Cooperative Program Report at this time.

Stewardship-Cooperative Program Report

Will you lead every member of the church where you serve to give a tithe or more of his income into the church treasury and lead the church to give the suggested amount to the Association plus giving from 10% to 50% of church receipts through the Cooperative Program?

The Southern Baptist Convention theme for this year is "Bold Missions". "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and to the end of the earth." This command of Jesus in Acts 1:8 clearly calls for boldness on the part of His followers. These words emphasize our commitment to missions and mission support.

In I Corinthians 3:9, the apostle Paul says, ". . . we are labourers together for God". We must continually challenge one another as Baptists to minister in Christ's name through the church, through the association, and through the Cooperative Program in bold support of missions at home and around the world.

WE RECOMMEND THESE GOALS:

1. Every church in the association BOLDLY ADVANCING THEIR GIVING through the Cooperative Program for world mission support, and giving the suggested amount to Associational Missions.
2. Every church in the association increasing the percentage of the total budget income given through the Cooperative Program.
3. That every church seriously consider its responsibility to develop Christian stewards and determine to elect and train a stewardship committee to assist the church in developing Christian stewards.
4. That every church conduct a stewardship emphasis this year. This coming year, the stewardship theme is "Bold Believers in Giving Through a Growing Commitment.
5. That an associational stewardship conference to be held in order to assist churches in planning and conducting their stewardship programs.
6. That every church double Cooperative Program giving and associational missions giving by 1982.

Respectfully submitted,
B. C. Owenby

33 The report on Christian Education was presented at this time by Otus Thomas.

Christian Education Report

The need for Christian Education is perhaps greater now than ever before. The 'Ways of the World' and the 'Wiles of the Devil' are tempting more people, especially youth, today more than ever before in history. Apathy and selfishness along with permissiveness are abundant. Love and Care seem to have taken a backward step, it seems.

When we think of Christian Education, we must think of the home, as the parents are more or less responsible for the formative years of the educational process. We must first reach the home with Christianity. Churches and schools have now reached into the homes and are taking the younger children more than in years past. They now help in the formative years to a greater extent. Thus it is essential that ALL teachers be Christian. Some children never reach college and must be taught in early life a Christian viewpoint or they will never get it. In the world of work, we need Christian employers who care also.

A Christian college is a distinctive institution. It puts its stamp on Christian truth and Christian interpretation on its classroom teachings. It seeks to train its students to live more intelligent and devout Christian lives. A Christian college should have Christian Ownership, Christian Administration, Christian Faculty, Christian Students, Christian Ideals, Christian Teaching, and Christian Service. Our Baptist colleges reflect the above marks of a Christian college and have accumulated 598 years of Christian Educational Service.

The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina owns and operates seven colleges, a complex of children's homes, and homes for the aging, a hospital, a Bible institute (Fruitland), three camps, one assembly, seven Baptist Student Centers, the Biblical Recorder, the Baptist Foundation, and the Baptist Building in Raleigh. The property value for all of these institutions and agencies is more than $250 million. The annual operating costs total another $145 million. This is BIG business. It is run under a trust system which involves several boards of trustees. North Carolina Baptists have used this trustee system of ownership and operation for almost 150 years. This concept is an interesting blend of freedom, control, and accountability.

There are encouraging signs in Baptist colleges. At a time when some schools are struggling for survival or even existence, Baptist colleges and seminaries are experiencing their best days in enrollment and financial strength. This is hardly an accident. It comes at a time when these colleges are reaffrming their vital link with the denomination and the churches. In North Carolina, Baptist colleges remain healthy, in spite of the stormy predictions of a decade ago and the controversies of today. Enrollments are either growing or have been stabilized deliberately. Budgets are balanced. No North Carolina Baptist college is in financial difficulty. There are two reasons why our colleges are prospering says our General Secretary-Treasurer, Cecil A. Ray; (1) "they are determined to stay close to the churches" and (2) "they have learned to work together through the Council of Christian Higher Education".

Education, of course is the main business of any college or university. For a Baptist college, education takes place within a Christian context. Education from the Christian perspective can so fill our lives with an understanding of God and His love for us that we become less prejudiced, more tolerant, less bigoted, more compassionate, more honest, and we seek more to improve our morality and integrity. In addition, a Baptist college provides certain other 'fringe benefits' for our denomination. These may be listed in at least three categories; (1) specific ministries to churches and the denomination; (2) the witness of students and faculty; and (3) special cooperative ministries such as the Baptist Youth Corps. Our seven Baptist colleges — Campbell, Chowan, Gardner-Webb, Mars Hill, Meredith, Wake Forest, and Wingate — involve themselves in the life and development of our churches and the Convention. There are many examples of this. To be familiar with these examples, just read the BIBLICAL RECORDER regularly and wholly.

This year over 13,000 students were expected to enroll at the seven Baptist colleges as these campuses came alive. This was an increase in enrollment at each college. Campbell expected 1,900; Chowan 1,000; Gardner-Webb 1,440; Mars Hill 1,750; Meredith 1,335; Wake Forest 4,400; and Wingate 1,325. These campuses have been 'busy with activity' during the summer months with all kinds of very worthwhile programs being carried out. Some of these activities are carried on by campus groups and some by off-campus groups using the college's meeting rooms and other facilities.

A new year stretches before us and we are hopeful, but even colleges which today appear sound and well-braced for the future could succumb to the devastating effects of inflation, declining enrollments, and dwindling support. WE MUST SUPPORT OUR CHRISTIAN COLLEGES!

May we remember that each of us in one way or another has a role to play in the Christian Education of all others. In our prayers, let us continue to thank God for leading us thus far and keep praying for God's continued help in leading us to use our talents, our time, and our means, as well as our very lives in the best way possible for the benefit of all peoples, especially through the offering of a Christian Education inferior to none.

Respectfully submitted,
Otus Thomas

34 Mrs. T. B. McCollum, Jr., gave the Church Training report.

Church Training Report

The Church Training program keeps the full demands of Christian discipleship before the people of God. We desire to help bring church members to a geniune commitment to the person of Jesus Christ, and then to a life of growth and ministry in His name. The objectives of Christian training deal solidly with God's claim upon our lives as His people. These tasks serve to guide Christ's followers towards growth in discipleship.

All Christians must continue to study Christian theology, Christian ethics, Christian history and church policy and organization. It is essential for all church members to get further training in how to worship, witness, educate, minister and apply their faith. New Church Member, Church Member and Church Leader Training are important. The children of God are never full-grown, completely trained, or fully mature. That's why Christian discipleship is a process of becoming rather than a state of being. It is the effort to "press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus" (Phil. 3:14)

Your 1976-77 Associational Church Training Council are as follows:

Mr. Joe Anderson — Church Leader Training Director

Mr. Charles Beane — Church Member Training Director

Mr. Doyle Owen — New Member Orientation Director

These officers and myself have shared the opportunities and accepted the challenge this year has presented us.

"M" Night was held on Monday night, November 29, 1976 at Forest Park Baptist Church in Asheboro, N. C. We felt a very warm reception and a spirit of love was shared by all. There were 267 attending with 17 churches represented. Fourteen Pastors and twelve Church Training Directors were present.

Our guest speaker was Mrs. J. Winston Pearce who truly won our hearts with a most inspiring message. We were very fortunate that she came our way because she is in such demand all over the Southern Baptist Convention for speaking engagements, and all who hear her, love her.

We presented five banners to the following churches:

1. Highest Total Attendance — FOREST PARK
2. Highest Attendance — Church without a Church Training Program — SANDY CREEK
3. Highest Percentage Attendance for Enrollment — FOREST PARK
4. Newest Church Training Program — GLENOLA
5. Best Enrollment Compared to Size of Church — OAKWOOD PARK

The Associational Children's Bible Drill Tournament was held at Calvary Baptist Church, Monday night, May 23. We had 10 winners, five from First Baptist Church, Asheboro and five from Oakhurst Baptist Church. These 10 went on to represent us in the State Tournament also and were winners again.

The Associational Youth Night was held on Monday, August 29, at Camp Caraway with 220 attending. This special night included fun, food, fellowship and inspiration for everyone. Our guest speaker was Rev. Charles W. Freeman, better known as Rev. Buddy, who is Campus Minister and Coordinator of Religious Affairs at Gardner-Webb College, Boiling Springs, N. C. His mesage was dynamic and challenging to all. Rev. Buddy will long be remembered.

The Victory Singers from Union Grove Baptist Church shared with us through song and testimony and truly blessed our hearts and minds for God. Union Grove was recognized for having the largest number representing their church at Youth Night. They had 39 attending. We thank God for everyone who helped in any way to make this night possible. We were also honored to have Rev. A. Judson Rotan, our new Director of Missions, with us and who led us in prayer.

This has been a good year in Church Training and I still say, with the spirit of cooperation we have in the Randolph Association, we can only move forward, and strive more to become that person God would have us to be.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. T. B. McCollum, Jr.

35 The motion was made, second, and approved that the Association sell to Mr. Colon Pierce Lot No. 27 of the Hillcrest Subdivision for the amount of $500.00.

36 Motion made, second and approved that Finance Committee is authorized to use the proceeds from the sale of lot to purchase various items for the Associational Offices.

37 Hymn No. 117 — "Send the Light" led by Rev. Carl Zeigler, with Mrs. Tommy Butler at the piano.

38 Special message: THE NATURE OF THE CHURCH by Dr. Dale Moody of the Southern Seminary.

39 Mr. Neal Cockerham of Balfour Baptist presented the report on Temperance and Morals.

Temperance and Morals Report

If we wanted to give a definition of morals, we would say that it is the teachings or practices conforming to a standard of right and wrong. People in our society relationships are organized and structured by morals. Morality in other words is the principle of organization in a society. Without morals there would be no human society as we know it. Morality is transmitted from generation to generation by methods such as education, children interacting with other children and adults, the bedtime stories around the fireplace, and of course, Bible teaching. To grow up morally strong we sometimes say, one's morals must come from a strong foundation. This is where the confusion of morality begins. We have stated that morality is a standard of right and wrong. There are two standards in our society of wrong and right and they are man's standards and God's standards. See, when man takes his moral standards apart from Christ, those standards are likely to change over a period of time. This causes a generation to be confused of their teachings of morality; therefore causing a great deal of rebellion in the sociey. When God sets a standard of morals for His people to live with, he never changes it. If you know Jesus Christ as your personal Saviour, your morals will outshine any that man apart from God will ever produce. The production of morals is not obtained by what you know, but by who you know. Do you know Jesus?

Neal Cockerham

40 The Annuity Report was presented by Mr. Carl King.

Annuity Report

In 1976, the Annuity Board of the Southern Baptist Convention recommended a new retirement program which was approved by all at the state Baptist Conventions. The new program called the Southern Baptist Retirement Program will go into effect January 1, 1978.

Detailed information will be presented to churches in the early fall with a ROUTE 10 promotional theme, according to Darold H. Morgan, president of the Board.

The Board paid $17,138,343 in benefits to 11,925 widows, retired or disabled members in 1976. During its 59 years of service, the Board has paid more than $158 million in retirement and protection benefits.

A 13th Check amounting to one month's income was mailed for the eleventh time to annuitants. The combined amount of this extra benefit came to $830,525.

Most members benefit from a decision to increase the interest rate for firguring retirement benefits. Annuitants began receiving larger checks as of January 1, 1977.

For almost 45,000 members, the Board held in trust funds totaling $472,218,669 for retirement benefits for the year ending 1976.

The Annuity Board also administers life, medical and disability insurance programs, which reflected increases in membership.

Additional information concerning the Annuity Board and its programs of retirement and insurance may be obtained from the state convention offices or by contacting the Annuity Board, SBC, 511 North Akard Building, Dallas, Texas 75201.

Twenty-seven churches in the Association are now participating in the Annuity Program .

41 Rev. T. W. Nelson presented the Childrens Home Report.

Baptist Children's Home Report

Baptists of North Carolina provide a ministry of love and care to children, young people and their families. The program is more than rooms and meals and activities and recreation. It's more than buildings and grounds. The care of children is missions . . . reaching out with a helping hand; it is evangelism . . . sharing the joy of life in Christ; it is love and affection . . . the giving of hugs and kisses and friendship; it is education . . . teaching an appreciation for the finer things in life; it is restoration . . . enables families to function again.

Campuses at Mills Home, Thomasville; Kennedy Home, Kinston; Odum Home, Pembroke; and Broyhill Home, Waynesville-Clyde continue to serve as centers of service and operation in their respective areas of the state.

Foster Home Care, a state wide program of the Homes, is vital to numbers of children needing special help. Additional foster homes are needed throughout the state. We welcome opportunities to talk with prospective foster parents about this area of service.

Emergency Shelters at Forest City, Charlotte, Burlington and Henderson are meeting a critical need. They provide a ready resource for children who need help immdiately. During a period of one to ninety days responsible planning is made for the child's future.

The Maternity Home in Asheville, opened in 1970, has proved to be a much-needed and well-received service. More than 300 girls have been served from throughout North Carolina and beyond. It is recognized for its quality of care and Christian concern.

Social Work and Family Resource Centers enable us to work with families in providing services to children, family rehabilitation, family education and preventive services. These Centers are located at Waynesville, Asheville, Charlotte, Thomasville, Burlington, Raleigh, Kinston, Fayetteville and Pembroke.

The Child Development Center on the Mills Home Campus at Thomasville provides a demonstration program for churches who are interested in establishing services for preschool age children in nursery school education, day care and kindergarten. We welcome opportunities to assist churches any place in the State who want to develop this type program.

Members of our staff are anxious to have you and members of your churches visit on any of our campuses. To see, observe and to feel in person what it is like to live in a children's home is to appreciate our child care ministry. Thank you for your dependable support in numerous ways. It shall be our purpose to keep this a dynamic ministry and to meet the needs of those whom we serve.

It was my privilege again this year to visit our Home for this information and to have supper with the workers there. We visited the cottage in the circle where a group of young children were playing. We saw love at first sight as a small girl told us how she loved her house parents.

Do your best in Randolph for our Baptist Children's Home with your Thanksgiving Offerings. Do pray for our workers there.

42 The Baptist Hospital Report was presented by Rev. H. C. Neathery.

Baptist Hospital Report

The Baptist Hospital has been commissioned the three-fold task-healing, teaching and preaching. However, its primary task is healing. The best personnel and equipment available are employed for this task. The medical task consists of competent, dedicated men and women in all the various specialities of medicine. Persons with rare and complicated medical problems are referred to Baptist Hospital by their physicians for treatment. Last year 158,863 visits were made in the hospital's Outpatient Department and the Bowman Gray Department of Clinics. There were 22,365 admissions to the hospital for a total of 193,942 patient days. These patients came from 90 counties in North Carolina, from 29 other states and from 3 foreign countries.

Baptist Hospital is also involved in teaching. In cooperation with the Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest University, it helped to train 1,188 students last year for careers in medicine and allied health fields. In addition, there were 87 graduate students in the basic sciences. The hospital also provided clinical facilities for 483 student nurses from 3 nearby schools of nursing and for 120 students in other allied schools. The School of Pastoral Care last year enrolled a total of 75 students in various levels of Clinical Pastoral Education.

The hospital also has a preaching ministry. There is preaching in the formal sense at least four times a week in the worship services held in Davis Chapel. In a less formal sense, the Christian Gospel is proclaimed daily by staff, students, patients and others who witness their faith in word and deed.

In all these ministries, Baptist Hospital is mindful of its Christian heritage and its strong ties with the Baptist State Convention. This tie is maintained and strengthened through the services of capable, dedicated trustees who are elected by and are responsible to the convention. The tie is also strengthened through the financial support from the churches. Last year $294,324 was received through the Cooperative Program and $405,947 through the Mother's Day Offering.

Several members of the hospital staff have assumed active roles in denominational life at the associational level and the state convention level, as well as in their local churches. For the past five years hospital personnel have assisted in Cooperative Program promotion in at least two associations each year. Staff members are pleased to do everything possible to strengthen the denominational tie, believing that this tie adds a dimension to the ministry of healing, teaching, and preaching.

Mother's Day gifts for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1977, were $411,225.50 compared to a total of $405,946.52 for the preceding fiscal year. Let us hope and pray that the churches of this association and convention will continue to show this fine spirit of cooperation and support of the Baptist Hospital in its three-fold mission of healing, teaching and preaching in the coming year of 1978.

Respectfully submitted,
Hansel C. Neathery

43 Rev. Kenneth Tucker presented the report on Baptist Homes for the Aging.

44 Speaking to the report was Rev. William Poole, Administrator.

Baptist Homes For The Aging Report

The faithfulness of Southern Baptist and their willingness to share with the elderly through their love gifts, have made the twenty-sixth year of the Baptist Homes for the Aging very productive and rewarding.

Last year's report stated plan for the construction of a sixth Baptist Home in Asheville, and duplex apartments at the Hayes Home site in Winston-Salem. It is a pleasure to report that the ground has been broken and construction is under way in Asheville, and there are four apartments that will be ready for occupancy in Winston by the end of this fiscal year. Within the next two years, sixty-six more people will be served through the Baptist Homes.

While much is being done today, and God be praised for that, the special needs of the elderly in our society are great and without end. There are about ninety-five persons waiting to enter the five Baptist Homes, and close to one hundred fourteen elderly sick people waiting to enter the nursing unit. Ninety percent can not provide their own funds and are totally dependent upon the love gifts provided by Southern Baptist.

The needs of the elderly truly are great, however the plans to meet some of those needs are great also. More duplex apartments to accommodate seventy-two people, additions and renovations to accommodate a hundred more, and a nursing care unit to care for two hundred and forty patients are in the planning and working stages. A goal has been announced to have five hundred persons in residence by 1980. This is a substantial increase above the near three hundred now being served. It is a commendable goal and worthy of the backing and support of Southern Baptist. With God's help through special love gifts and the Cooperative Program, it is a goal to be easily reached.

"And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as you have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

Respectfully submitted,
Kenneth E. Tucker

45 The Evangelism Report was presented at this time by Rev. Bud Gillett.

Evangelism Report

"Bold in Creative Witness" was the theme of the 31st Statewide Evangelism Conference at the War Memorial Auditorium, Greensboro, during February 7-9, 1977. About 2,400 pastors and lay persons were present to hear the challenging messages of the evangelistic speakers.

About 12,000 youth, pastors, and adult leaders attended the 7th Statewide Youth Evangelism Night — August 19 — at the Greensboro Coliseum. Jim Wilson and Larry McFadend of Orlando, Florida were the guest preacher and soloist. All youth who made decisions for Christ are contacted by pastors and adults with regard to specific follow-up counseling.

Thirty-six churches across the state had one week youth revivals and youth witness training under the direction of four Summer Youth Evangelism Teams. Let us rejoice in all the decisions for Christ made through the ministry of these youth.

Associations and churches are now involved in the Youth Evangelism Strategy which includes these four areas: Leadership Family; Touch Ministry; Discipleship Groups; and Joy Explosion. W.O.W. — Win Our World — has to do with specific witness training for youth in the local churches.

65 associations have participated in one week Lay Evangelism Schools in recent years with over 14,400 youth and adults receiving lay witness training from 1,175 churches. More lay persons need to become involved in consistent witnessing to unsaved individuals.

The 32nd Statewide Evangelism Conference will be held at War Memorial Auditorium in Greensboro, on Februray 6-7, 1978.

Randolph Association had as our Evangelism Night speaker, Dr. Lee Satterfield, of Alta Vista, Virginia. A very small crowd was present, but Dr. Satterfield did a magnificent job in challenging each heart.

Our 1978 meeting will be held at Union Grove Church on March 20, 1978, with Evangelist Jay Strack of Ft. Worth, Texas, as guest speaker.

Division On Christian Life and Public Affairs Report

The Christian Life Council majored on two aspects in 1977 — the family and legislative issues. W. Douglas Cole became director of the Christian Family Life Department, January 1, 1977. Under his leadership, the Council sponsored marriage enrichment retreats, minister-wife retreats, parenting workshops, conference for engaged couples, sex-education conference and promoted the National Single Adult Conference at Ridgecrest. In addition, many tracts on the family are printed and distributed among North Carolina Baptists.

Since the General Assembly was in session during 1977, the Council was involved on a number of issues. Some of the issues were assigned to the Council by the Convention. Other issues were suggested by the twenty persons who comprise the Council. Some of the legislative concerns were pornography, liquor-by-the-drink, capital punishment, Equal Rights Amendment, chaplains for prisons, etc.

The Council also sponsored a state-wide workshop on death and dying, particularly as it related to euthanasia (easy death) or, as it is commonly called, "mercy killing."

Numerous calls from Baptists for help on social issues keep being received and responded to. The Council attempts to provide information on how to apply one's Christian faith to everyday life.

America suffers from a crisis in morality and integrity. Only as Christians live out their faith will a lost world be improved and changed. To that end the Christian Life Council is dedcated.

Christian Action League

The N. C. Christian action League has been engaged in a two pronged attack on the moral front during the past year. A real effort has been made to curb the flow of pornography, and the liquor-by-the-drink issue has been opposed at every turn.

In the legislative program of the League a questionnaire was sent to each candidite for the State Senate and the House of Representatives asking for views on the question of the disemination of hard-core pornographic materials. Another question went so far as to suggest a state-wide vote on the matter of regulating and controlling distribution of pornographic materials.

Senate Bill No. 539 was introduced by Senator I. Beverly Lake, Jr., of Wake County. It is hoped that this law will regulate and eventually do away with hard-core pornography in N. C. The bill was amended many times, but the strength of the statute remains intact. This new law will permit the solicitor or the attorney general to proceed against pornography.

Another bill has been enacted that will prohibit the display of pornographic magazines and other materials on racks in public places where they can be viewed by minors. Still another law was passed that will make it illegal to use minors in the production of pornographic materials.

The effort against liquor-by-the-drink began before the election of Senators and Representatives last year. An all out campaign was conducted to ascertain the views of candidates on the question of more liberal laws in relation to the sale of alcoholic beverages. Many committed themselves to oppose any such legislation and became voting members of the 1977 Assembly. We counted heavily upon these friends to hold the line against the encroachment of any new legislation that would merchandise whiskey like apples and oranges, and no legislation was passed during the 1977 session.

Senate Bill No. 735 was introduced in May. This bill would have given a vote to any county, city or town which had an ABC store to determine if liquor-by-the-drink sales would be authorized. The bill would have allowed the addition of such sales on top of "brown-bagging". In other words, a restaurant which qualified could have had both types of permits. This would have given N. C. one of the most liberal systems in the U. S. Due to some vote-swapping to revive the pornography bill, this measure passed the Senate by a 24 to 23 vote. The proponents of the bill, realizing that it was headed for defeat in the House by at least 15 votes, made a last minute move which sent the bill back to the House ABC Committee where it will await next year's session of the General Assembly.

This gives us time to organize our forces and to make contacts with our Representatives. You spoke loud and clear in opposition on the state-wide referendum in 1973, and we don't believe you have changed your minds. You are urged to contact your Representatives and either encourage him in opposition to the bill or request his support for the defeat of Senate Bill No. 735.

The Christian Action League appreciates the support which has been given this past year, and reminds you that we can do only that which you enable us to do through your contributions.

Respectfully submitted,
D. P. McFarland, Executive Director
Christian Action League of N. C.

All churches desiring to affiliate with the Association shall present to the Missions Committee proper petitions, accompanied by satisfactory evidences of doctrinal regularity and general acceptability. After one year under the watchcare of the Association the said Committee will report to the Association its recommendation. Upon a favorable vote of two-thirds majority of the messengers present at the annual associational meeting the petitioning church may become regularly affiliated with the Association.

"Fellowship may be withdrawn by the Association at any annual meeting upon recommendation of the Executive Committee, from any church in its membership that has been found, by due investigation, to have departed from the Missionary Baptist faith and practices, or has failed to abide by the provision of this Constitution and By-laws, or has failed to either have its pastor or lay member or both in attendance in one or more of the four regular meetings of the Executive Committee, or has failed to make a contribution to the expenses of the Association in addition to the cost of Association minutes, or has failed to properly prepare and return to the Association office a copy of the associational letter, or has failed to send one or more messengers to the annual session of the Association."

(B) Such a church may, upon recommendation of the Executive Committee and vote of the Association, be placed on probation until the conditions prompting such action have been corrected. Messengers from any church on probation shall not be allowed to vote in the meetings of the Association.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of each church to furnish to the Association each year a letter, on the form provided by the Clerk, giving full information and statistics provided for on the form, and to send with the letter or by messenger a contribution toward the cost of printing the minutes and other expenses of the Association.

Section 4. It is understood that each church in this Association is independent and sovereign in its own affairs, and the Association has no authority over the churches, except of an advisory nature.

Section 5. A church may withdraw from membership in the Association by a vote of the church according to its own by-laws, regulations or procedure.

f. Guiding Principles for the Work of the Missions Committee of the Randolph Association.

1. The Committee is to seek to discover areas where new work is needed and to lead in the sponsorship or establishment of new work to meet present need or the securing of property by a local church and/or the Association in the anticipation of future need.

2. All new work does not necessarily need to be nor should be intended to become an organized or constituted church. New work may be started and maintained on the basis of a mission to meet particular need (this provides for institutional missions such as jails, prisons, rest homes, etc.)

3. The location of missions or new churches shall be determined by the need revealed in an adequate survey conducted by the Missions Committee and local interested groups or churches.

4. Any church, committee, group or individuals considering beginning new work, acting with or without church sponsorship, should approach the Missions Committee for guidance before having any service or choosing a temporary or permanent location.

5. The Missions Committee shall institute basic, understandable operational procedures and practices for a mission that leads in establishing and strongly urges that each church establishing a mission does the same. The guidance of missions by the Missions Committee shall continue until a co-operating church or churches can be led to accept the responsibility of sponsorship.

6. A mission organized or assisted by the Missions Committee shall accept the recognized principles and practices of a church co-operating with the Randolph Association, the Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE VIII — ORDINATION AND CALLING OF PASTORS

Section 1. Inasmuch as the ordination of a man to the gospel ministry by any church in this Association is expected to be recognized by the denomination as a whole, the churches are counseled to be extremely careful in the matter of setting men apart for this sacred calling, ordaining only those who, by irreproachable character, piety of life, doctrinal soundness and suitable talents, give promise of honoring the name of Christ and of rendering acceptable service in the missionary Baptist ministry.

Section 2. To aid the churches in this vital matter, the Association will appoint each year a committee of five of the pastors to be called the Committee on Ordination. Any church desiring to ordain a brother to the ministry may request the said Committee to act as a presbytery for the purpose of examining the brother as to his fitness for the Baptist ministry, and, if he is found qualified, to assist in the ordination.

Section 3. The churches are urged also to exercise the utmost care and wisdom, earnestly seeking the guidance of the Holy Spirit, in calling of their pastors, choosing only men who give evidence by their Christian character, cooperative spirit and leadership ability, that they will serve the best interests of the churches, the denomination, and the cause of Christ.

ARTICLE IX — NEW CHURCHES

Baptist churches may be organized and established in localities within the territory of this Association when such new churches are seen to be needed. Those interested in organizing a new church may seek the Counsel of the Executive Committee and the Missions Committee of the Association.

ARTICLE X — RULES AND ORDER OF DECORUM

This Association shall be governed in its meetings by such rules and by-laws as may be adopted, amended, or set aside by a majority vote of the messengers present. Robert's Rules of Order will be the guide in all parliamentary matters.

ARTICLE XI — ADOPTION

The Constitution and By-Laws shall take effect immediately upon its adoption by a two - thirds majority vote of the messengers present and shall supersede any and all constitutions, by-laws, and amendments previously adopted.

ARTICLE XII — AMENDMENTS

Director Of Missions Report

In the September issue of the 1977 Baptist Program, K. S. Brunson from Venice, Florida wrote, "We no longer need directors of associational missions as they have chosen to be called. I cannot point my finger at a thing that the director of associational missions has done through our church in a positive, constructive manner that would not have been done by the local church anyway — and there would have been more done in some areas had the association had not a director of associational missions." If this is true, it has not been expressed in Randolph Association. I have found that the Director of Missions is a very busy person. In fact, I have found there is more than can be done or more you would like to do, but time and schedule does not permit.

I report to you that this has been an exciting year learning the work of our association. I came to Randolph thinking it would take me several years to learn the work and to make the necessary adjustment. But in one year I have begun to feel as if I have been here for many years. I have been thrilled with the events and programs that we have had. During the past associational year it has been my joy to be in all of our churches except six. My desire and hope is that I will be in those before 1979. The invitations to preach continues to be numerous, and this reduces the opportunity to visit in many churches for their regular worship services. Beyond preaching in many churches, I have conducted January Bible Studies, Mission studies, Stewardship emphasis, Associational emphasis and helped in several ordination services for deacons. Along with this schedule has been the regular meetings of the Executive Committee and the Associational Council.

Our big event this past year was our Bold Mission Bible Conference in the spring when around 200 from 18 of our churches participated. For three nights, our church leaders studied the Biblical basis for missions in the world.

This fall we conducted a Church Training Leadership Conference and a Sunday School Leadership Conference. State and approved workers from across the state came to share with us in these two-night conferences. Around 40 attended the Church Training Conference and 175 attended the Sunday School Conference.

Another thing I found myself doing was sharing and lending assistance to four committees of our churches as they looked for a pastor. Also I found myself sharing with many persons who have come to the office to share a concern, a problem and who needed just a time of friendship and fellowship. It has been an exciting and thrill-year. God has blessed our efforts.

Someone asked me, "what does a Director of Missions do?" So I have tried to put together the following thoughts of what I do and am available to do. I CARE: It is a little difficult to fit this into a statistical report. I care for the welfare of the pastors and the churches. I am concerned when there is hurt. I am glad when there is victory. I pray for the churches and pastors and seek ways to better their lot. Sometimes the main thing that a church or pastor needs is for someone to care.

I AM AVAILABLE: I am available to each church to supply the pulpit, teach study courses, survey mission needs, try to find methods that will help in church growth, counsel with pulpit committees, preach revivals, lead mission Vacation Bible Schools, conduct deacons retreats and training sessions, and anything elso that I am capable of doing. But I can do these things only by invitation.

I TRY TO BE INFORMED: I seek information concerning the direction that our denomination will take, new methods in church work, the present condition of the churches in the area and the condition of the pastors. (The burdens that some pastors carry are enough to kill an ordinary man. Fortunately, our pastors are not ordinary men — God-directed men). I seek to be an able student of the Bible. I try to prepare messages that will bless and challenge our churches. I try never to embarrass a pastor by doing a poor job in the pulpit. All of this requires time to study.

I WORK: I visit the churches and pastors; I help committees in the association; I help plan associational programs; I put out the monthly newsletter; I look for the untouched mission needs; I work at encouraging others; I counsel with pulpit committees; I attend most of the meetings in the association, and I do many other things in my work as the needs arise.

If this does not fit your concept of what the work of the Director of Missions should be, I would be happy to hear your suggestions.

The hope for the 1978-79 year in Randolph Association is for the involvement of all of our church members in Bold Mission Thrust. Every church should seek to be bold in its going, bold in its growing, and bold in its giving. All of the organizations of the local church should be channeled in this direction. Bold Missions is a spirit from the heart of God that we must possess in fulfilling God's plan and will for our lives and churches in this particular time in history. In our association through task forces in Evangelism, Church Organizations, Giving, and Volunteers in Missions, we hope to lead out in our Bold Missions Thrust, that in turn our churches will be challenged and motivated toward its Bold Missions Thrust.

It is my prayer that we who stand in places of leadership in the association will take the initiative in this venture that is so vitally needed in our association. The task of associational missions is to help every church live and work where it is. As your Director of Missions I stand ready to do what I can to bring this to pass.

In Christ,
Judson Rotan

Sunday School Report

This associational year, 1977-78, has been a year filled with many challenges and commitments in the Sunday School Department Our main goals have been that of Bible Teaching-Bible Learning-and Bible Improvement along with special emphasis in Sunday School Outreach.

An associational Pastor-Sunday School Director-Outreach Leader Conference was held on February 13 at the Associational Building. There was 10 churches represented. We feel that this was the beginning of a growing interest in many of our churches in the area of Sunday School.

Our VBS staff attended the State VBS clinic at Caraway on March 2-3. On April 10-11 an associational clinic was held at Asheboro, First with over a 100 workers attending from 18 of our churches. The Bold Mission Bible Conference was held at Balfour Church on April 17-19. We had a total enrollment of 176 for the three nights. Dr. Cecil Ray spoke to over 200 on Wednesday night. Again, 18 of our churches out of 43 were represented. This was an enriching experience for us. It is our prayer that God will show us opportunities to share Christ through Sunday School and Bible Study.

The month of May was an exciting month for us as we had 16 people representing a team of associational leaders who participated in the Key Leadership Training Conference at Ridgecrest. This was a time of training, challenge and motivation. Inspirational messages were delivered by our state and Convention leaders to motivate our churches to fulfill our Bold Mission goals. We believe our goals are tremendous. They are worthy and acceptable to every church and its membership. These goals are:

1. TO DOUBLE BAPTISM IN OUR CHURCHES BY 1982.

2. TO INCREASE SUNDAY SCHOOL ENROLLMENT AND ATTENDANCE BY 25 PERCENT BY 1982.

3. TO DOUBLE OUR COOPERATIVE PROGRAM MISSION GIVING IN OUR CHURCHES BY 1982.

4. TO DOUBLE THE LOCAL CHURCH BUDGET BY 1982.

5. TO DOUBLE THE FINANCIAL SUPPORT OF THE ASSOCIATION BY 1982.

The week of July 15, my family and I had the privilege of attending the Convention-wide Associational Sunday School Director's Conference at Ridgecrest. I feel that this week was of great importance to me as an individual as well as that of your Associational Sunday School Director.

On July 31, we had a one-night conference for all church leadership positions. This was designed to help each person to do the best job possible in promoting Church Growth and Mission Support through Bible teaching programs. There were 31 churches represented with over 200 present.

This year we have been blessed with a new position — Outreach Director. Rev. Kenneth Warner has already given support and help by teaching at our Key Leadership Conference and by attending Ridgecrest for additional training. We feel that this position is of utmost importance in the area of Sunday School for our association.

On September 25 and 26 we held a Sunday School Leadership Conference at Balfour Church. State and approved workers came and shared with us on new methods of teaching and reaching our people through Sunday School. There were 175 present for this two-night conference.

Church Training Report

Church Training is that vital and unique organization that no church can afford to be without. Church Training offers something available nowhere else. It is in effect a University in Christian Living. In Church Training we explore what we believe and why. It is the training headquarters for all the organizations of the church.

Your 1977-78 Directors who have served with me this year are:

Mr. Joe Anderson — Church Leader Training Director
Mr. Charles Beane — Church Member Training Director
Mr. Doyle Owen — New Member Orientation Director

We have had the privilege of sharing and working together under God's leadership as your Associational Church Training Council this year and have received much needed support from you and for this, we express our gratitude.

"M" Night was held on Monday night, November 28 at First Baptist Church in Randleman, N. C. We felt a very warm reception. God's Holy Spirit was there in all His glory that night as Mr. Wilmer Mizell shared God's message with us in a way that stirred our hearts. Mr. Delbert Garner alerted us to the importance of the part Church Training plays in making us the Disciples God would have us to be as he shared his testimony with us. We also appreciated the special music by Mr. Garner and his wife that night. Our banners were awarded as follows:

1. Highest Total Attendance — Randleman, First
2. Highest Attendance for a Church without a Church Training program — Sandy Creek
3. Highest percentage attendance for Enrollment — Randleman, First
4. Newest Church Training Program — Glenola.
5. Best Enrollment compared to size of church — Oakwood Park We had 126 attending and the fellowship was great.

This year for the first time, we had an Interpretation Workshop on all Church Training materials which was held on Thursday night, January 12 at the Associational Building. This workshop was led by Mr. Jim Simpson who is Assistant Church Training Director for the Baptist State Convention and also Adult Leader. The workshop was very informative and was well attended. Church Training Leaders and pastors in our association had a new insight into the vast resource materials available for Church Training.

During May of this year, Mr. Joe Anderson our Church Leader Training Director represented our Association as a Key Leader at Ridgecrest. He brought back to us vital information from this conference. He also organized and presented the Church Training Conferece at our local Key Leadership — Bold Mission Conference that was held at the Asheboro, First church in July and we are indeed grateful to him for the excellent job he did.

The Associational Children's Bible Drill was held on Monday, May 29 at Oakwood Park Church. We had thirteen winners, eight from First Baptist Church, Asheboro and five from Oakhurst Baptist Church, Asheboro. One of the winners from First Baptist Church was a three year winner. These thirteen went on to represent us in the State Tournament also and were winners again.

Our Associational Youth Night was held on Monday, August 28 at Camp Caraway. This night included fun, food, fellowship and inspiration for everyone. This year a team from Gardner-Webb College was in charge of our worship service. Brad Riddle from Etowah, N. C., Beth Summers from Shelby, N. C. and our own Mark McMasters from Asheboro, N. C. made up the team. Brad and Beth provided the music and Mark presented a most stirring message on love which touched everyone present. We had 146 attending that night and it was one of the best Youth Nights we have had because many decisions were made for Christ. God's Holy Spirit certainly led in a beautiful way that night and we are so thankful to God that he was able to work through this team in such a mighty way.

Another first this year for many years was a Church Training Leadership Workshop which was held at Greystone Baptist Church on Monday and Tuesday nights, September 11 and 12. Our State leaders came and led the age group conferences. There were five age groups consisting of preschool, children, youth, adult and General Officers. We had approximately 40 attending and each group was well represented by leaders from various churches.

We would like to thank God for his blessings in Church Training this year. We truly feel there is new life and renewed interest in this area all over our Southern Baptist Convention and for this we thank God.

Thank you again for your prayers and support that have made this year possible.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. T. B. McCollum, Jr.

19 Presentation of the Brotherhood report was by William Applewhite.

Brotherhood Report

The 1977-78 Associational year has afforded our Baptist Men and Royal Ambassador leaders many opportunities for growth.

"January Brotherhood Emphasis" held at Camp Caraway gave us the opportunity to meet and hear Dr. Cecil Ray, our Executive Secretary, Dr. Mark Corts, President of the North Carolina Baptist Convention, Brother Ed Bullock, Brotherhood Director and Brother Joe Lennon, President of N. C. Baptist Men. It was a most eventful night for those who attended.

In April, approximately 65 of our men attended the "Meet the Candidates Rally" as well as the Joint Session of the Association. Here we were able to meet and hear seven candidates running for election to the North Carolina General Assembly. These candidates addressed themselves to the role of Christians in the political scene and also how Christians can influence politics. These candidates were likewise asked to speak to their commitments to the electorate if they were elected. Further response was made regarding the question of alcohol by each candidate. Many of our Baptist people expressed an interest in continuing this type of forum for future elections.

Brother Clinton McNeill prepared well at Ridgecrest in the Spring to lead the Key Leadership Conference for Baptist Men and P.A. Leaders held at First Baptist Church in July. This conference was well attended and a great deal of information was shared.

I encourage our church leaders to seek every opportunity to strengthen our mission program in the churches. Twenty-six of our churches are still not reporting Brotherhood programs. It is important that we seriously consider these effective ways of enriching and strengthening the lives of our men and boys in missions.

Respectfully submitted,
Bill Applewhite

20 The President of the W.M.U., Mrs. Gordon Ray, presented her report.

W.M.U. Report

Teach Missions; to be, to do. The greatest challenge ever given women has been thrust upon Southern Baptist WMU. Our task, teach missions, is an awesome, yet very rewarding responsibility.

WMU is at the heart of being involved in what the Southern Baptist Foreign and Home Mission Boards are projecting. Both mission boards have some far-reaching objectives, but it will take every person being involved and doing his part.

The Foreign Mission Board is already into a plan to preach the gospel to every person in the world by the year 2000. The Home Mission Board has two goals: letting every person in our land have an opportunity to hear and accept the gospel, and to share in the witness and ministry of a New Testament fellowship of believers.

WMU's emphasis is to equip the entire church to know what is happening on US and overseas mission fields.

Through mission support — praying, giving, and committing one's life to mission service, each member can be involved personally. This is what missions is all about!

WMU and Brotherhood are special partners in leading the entire church in missions education.

The WMU and Denominational Emphasis for 1977-78: Let the Church Reach Out — Bold Mission. Watchword: "But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run and not be weary; and they shall walk and not faint." 21 The Evangelism report was presented at this time by Rev. Bud Gillett.

Evangelism Report

A significant goal in Bold Missions is to encourage every church to double baptisms by 1982 or sooner Christians need to lead unsaved persons to make genuine commitments to Christ and to guide them in their spiritual development. Pastors and church leaders can use the notebook — Bold Evangelism Through the Local Church — to plan and develop an ongoing program of evangelism. Free noteboks will be available and training sessions will be held in associational evangelism clinics across the state.

"The Evangelistic Church on Bold Mission" was the theme of the 32nd Statewide Evangelism Conference at the War Memorial Auditorium, Greensboro, during February 6-7, 1978. Evangelistic speakers challenged about 2,400 pastors and lay persons to involve church members in bold evangelism.

Four summer youth evangelism teams preached in one week youth revivals and directed youth witness training in many churches across the state. One of these teams led youth revivals in nine churches in Maryland in a joint Bold Mission effort. Genuine decisions for Christ were made by many youth.

Over 900 youth and adults attended the largest Youth Ministry Week during July 3-8 at the North Carolina Baptist Assembly. All persons participated in specific witness training sessions. The emphasis also included vocational guidance and recreation.

About 12,005 youth, pastors, and adult leaders attended the 8th Statewide Youth Evangelism Night — August 18 — at Greensboro Coliseum. Bill Hogue, Director, Evangelism Section, Home Mission Board, Atlanta, was the preacher; Richard and Judy Bradford, Albuquerque, New Mexico, were the soloists, and other youth shared on the program. Follow-up work is always assigned to pastors with all youth who make decisions.

Churches are encouraged to become more involved in Renewal Evangelism. The Division of Evangelism cooperates with the Brotherhod Department in this phase of the work.

Sixty-eight associations have participated in one week Lay Evangelism Schools in recent years with 15,000 youth and adults receiving lay witness training from 1,245 churches. Consistent witnessing to non-Christians is essential.

Youth Evangelism Strategy can help associations and churches train their youth in witnessing to the unsaved and in personal discipleship. Also, this program equips adults to work with youth in evangelism.

Excellent reports on revival meetings, city-wide crusades, and associational evangelism clinics have been received. There has been a good response to associational youth evangelism emphases.

The 33rd Statewide Evangelism Conference will be held at Cumberland County Memorial Auditorium, Fayetteville, on February 5-6, 1979.

In Randolph Association we had our Annual Evangelism Conference on March 20, 1978, with Texas Evangelist Jay Strack as speaker. There were over 400 in attendance to hear his timely message for our age. (Twelve pastors were present and fifteen churches were represented.)

Our new church year offers some necessary and strategic changes in the evangelism department of the Association. Rev. Vernon McDaniel will serve as the chairman, and for the first time, there will be an evangelism committee to work with the chairman to promote a more effective thrust for evangelizing our area through Randolph Baptist Churches.

Bud Gillett

22 The Executive Committee report was presented by the Associational Clerk.

Executive Committee Report

This past year has been a good year for the Randolph Baptist Association. The attendance at our meetings have been good, along with the reports from the department heads.

Your new office building has certainly been a big asset to the Association and is being used quite a bit by the various committees for all of their meeting, and this is as it should be.

The Missions Committee, having met with and have studied the Cross Road Baptist Church, recommend that the Executive Committee approve the Cross Road Baptist Church to be presented to the Annual Meeting on October 17-18, 1978 for watchcare for one year. This was approved after proper motion and second.

The Key Leaders of your association attended a Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest in May of this year. The conferences were on "BOLD MISSION THRUST".

State Missions Report

North Carolina Baptists took an unprecedented step in 1977 at Charlotte to enter into "Bold Missions." Now Bold Missions is here! We took a giant step forward in State Missions Offering last year in raising over 900 thousand dollars. This represented a 250% increase over the 1976 offering. We believe, for the first time, many of our sister churches across the state are joining hands in State Missions that never were involved before.

The challenge for 1978 as a goal for State Missions is $1,200,000.00. Almost a 400 thousand dollar increase over the 1977 offering. Much publicity and work has gone into "interpreting" the ministries that come under the banner of State Missions. More than 1,000 persons across our state have been involved in this effort. Churches responded beautifully and monies are still coming in toward the goal for this year.

The super-challenge for North Carolina Baptists will come in 1979 for State Missions as we move closer to Bold Missions with a goal of two million dollars and the combination of all state convention special offerings into "North Carolina Missions Offering" in September. This means that most churches will combine offerings such as homes for aging, hospital, education, Heck-Jones, state missions, and children's home into one gigantic push in September to meet the challenge of two million dollars! Multiple blessings and the kingdom of God will be nearer to reality if we meet these challenges of Bold Missions in 1978-79 than they will if we "maintain our own" in a rapidly changing world. May God help us meet the challenge of these days!

Respectfully submitted,
Vernon B. McDaniel

39 Kenneth Warner presented the Home Mission report.

Home Mission Report

Bold Mission Thrust — the Southern Baptist Convention's plan to reach the nation for Christ — occupied a top spot in the attention of staff, missionary personnel and directors of the Southern Baptist Home Board during 1977. In cooperation with state conventions, the Home Mission Board devoted considerable attention and effort to working with both state and associational leadership in the implementation of Bold Missions Thrust plans. The staff of the Home Mission Board also was engaged in consultations with state leaders to select key cities and key under-evangelized counties for special Bold Missions Thrust assistance. In 1977, Phase One of the concentrated effort gave attention to six metropolitan areas and some 60 counties.

As a result of action by messengers to the 1977 Southern Baptist Convention annual meeting in Kansas City, Mo., the Home Mission Board is now deeply involved in developing procedures and recruiting volunteers for the Mission Service Corps. Mission Service Corps has a goal of enlisting 5,000 volunteers to serve one or two years, either in the United States or abroad, in an effort to reach the objectives of Bold Mission Thrust. The time-line for the recruitment is 1982. In order to better fulfill the action, David Bunch was elected in December to coordinate the entire Mission Service Corp program for the Home Mission Board. By year's end, five persons were serving on the field and 1,100 places of service had been identified and catalogued.

At the year's end, the Home Mission Board staff reached 102. In the past decade, 29 positions have been added to the staff. During 1977, three new positions were added; assistant director of the language missions department, assistant director of church extension, and director of Mission Service Corp coordination. During the year, the missionary force increased to 338, growing 2,830 persons under appointment.

Again, during 1977, financial support of the work of the Home Mission Board was outstanding. Cooperative Program gifts increased 15 percent and contributions to the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for Home Missions gained 11.58 percent. The Home Mission Board received $9.4 million in the basic Cooperative Program allocation, plus $431,507 from the challenge section. The Annie Armstrong Easter Offering provided $10,745,968.

The Home Mission Board and the Southern Baptist Convention now work in all states in the union and have grown to more than 13 million members in 35,000 plus churches across our nation.

Home missions begin with each one of us as Christians through our commitments to share the Good News with all, and with all to whom we have the opportunity.

Respectfully submitted,
Kenneth E. Warner

40 Foreign Mission report by Mrs. Aleta Stetler.

Foreign Missions Report

The sending out and maintaining of missionaries is primary in Southern Baptist overseas missions through the channel of the Foreign Mission Board. The appointment of 279 missionaries in all categories of service during 1977 exceeded the record of all previous years. Much prayer and missionary education in the churches are reflected in this response to Christ's calling.

As of January 1, 1978, Southern Baptists were at work in 90 countries, with a missionary staff of 2,776 (including 2,365 career missionaries, 217 associates, 183 journeymen, and 11 special project workers). The new appointees included 127 career missionaries, 18 reappointments, 31 missionary associates, 94 missionary journeymen, and nine special project workers. The 1977 appointments bring the total appointed since 1845 to 6,147.

There was thrilling response to the Bold Mission Thrust, with the Mission Service Corps and volunteers in missions programs. A total of 2,413 people in addition to the missionary staff went overseas in 1977 for periods of auxiliary service ranging from two weeks to one year.

Increase in missionary personnel automatically means the assumption by the Foreign Mission Board of responsibility for support for the new missionaries. Southern Baptist, committed to the task of making Christ known to all the world during the remainder of this century, continued to provide undergirding for this vast outreach through the Cooperative Program and the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering.

Evangelism and church development are central to the objectives of missions; making disciples, maturing disciples in the fellowship of local churches, and developing churches into a cooperative effort for a continued outreach. Churches overseas are stimulated by the Foreign Mission Board and its missionaries, but rather than being extensions of our churches, they stand in fraternal relationship with the Southern Baptist Convention. Accomplishments are laregly those of national churches, leaders, and conventions, with the assistance of missionary co-workers and resources from Southern Baptists.

41 Rev. B. C. Owenby presented the Cooperative Program report.

Cooperative Program Report

Let us consider the goals of Bold Missions in stewardship programing:

(1) Every church double its budget by 1982.

(2) Doubling of Cooperative Program giving by 1982, and doubling twice again by the year 2000.

(3) Every church in North Carolina making an annual cooperative program increase.

(4) Doubling gifts to asociational missions.

These goals can be met provided the leaders and the people of the churches offer "themselves willingly". (Judges 5:2,9)

Baptist Homes For The Aging Report

> "This is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel; And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:" (Acts 2:16-17)

God is still pouring out of His Spirit, men still dream dreams, and prophesy of things to come. Such is the case with Southern Baptist in these early days of Bold Missions. We shall see many great things become a reality that were only dreams yesterday. Hard work, sacrificial giving, and dedicated people will make it so.

The Baptist Homes for the Aging, as we know them now, began with such a vision and dream twenty-seven years ago. From one Home and one resident, God has brought us to six Homes for the Aging, a skilled Nursing Facility, and an apartment complex, all with a capacity for 300 people — soon to be 350. Hard work, sacrificial giving, and dedicated people have made it a reality.

The new Western North Carolina Baptist Home, in Asheville, is now under construction and will accommodate 50 residents. The completion date for this Home is January or February of 1979. Progress is being made also at the Hayes Home in Winston-Salem. There have been 4 new duplex apartments added, expanding the total apartment complex to house 120 people.

As dreams become realities, other dreams take their place. Plans are being made to build an addition to the Hayes Home. This will provide 32 additional skilled nursing beds, 19 residential rooms, and a recreation and dining room for nursing care patients. Plans are also being made for repairs and renovation for the present building.

The more than 3400 Baptist churches in North Carolina have much to be thankful for, and much to be proud of as they consider the Baptist Homes. They have received support through two vial sources through the years.

(1) The Cooperative Program which supplies 8% of the total budget.

(2) The Special Offerings which supplies 16% of the total budget.

The gifts are used to supplement the care of the majority of the residents and are a life-line to residents who could not possibly pay the cost of care.

In February of 1978, the last Special Offering for the Baptist Homes was received. There is a great concern that the churches and the people continue their loyal support for the Homes.

In September of 1979, the just combined State Missions Offering, with a goal of $2,000,000.00, will be received. The Baptist Homes will share with the other Baptist institutions, and with the specific causes of State Missions in that $2,000,000.00. The Homes for the Aging will receive $300,000.00 if the goal is reached. They normally receive this amount through the Special Offering however, they will receive less this year if the goal is not reached.

Another great concern is the fact that the Baptist Home in Asheville is to open prior to the September 1979 State Missions Offering and with no additional increase from the Cooperative Program. It is estimated that an additional $100,000 will be needed to operate this home. They will most likely have to borrow money to operate during this period. Through the Cooperative Program, loyal dedicated people, and bold sacrificial giving, I believe these needs can and will be met.

The needs of the Baptist Homes for the Aging are greater now than ever. The growing edge of our national and state population is in the area of the aging, those 65 years of age and above. We must continue to care for them, undertake more for then in our churches, in our communities, and in our Baptist Homes. We must continue to dream dreams and, as unto the Lord, support the visions of our leaders. We must continue to give sacrificially. We must continue to labor to make those dreams realities by the Grace of God, through the leadership of His Spirit, and in the name of His dear Son.

Baptist Hospital Report

Our North Carolina Baptist Hospital continues to find ways of enlarging and improving its care of patients.

During the past year, the Department of Family Medicine moved into new quarters. It is anticipated that with the larger area, the Family Practice Center will provide primary health care for more than 5,000 families by 1980. Also, the teaching for resident physicians in Family Medicine will increase to 36 positions by 1980. Many of these physicians are expected to enter family practice in N. C.

Other improvements in patient care include the installation of a wholebody scanner and the opening of new and larger facilities for the Intensive Care and Intermediate Nurseries. The body scanner is particularly useful in locating and defining problems such as tumors in the chest, abdomen and pelvic areas; in determining the spread of disease from one organ to another; and visualizing aneurysms in the abdomen. The new nurseries have already played a significant role in reducing the infant death rate and improving the chances of premature babies growing up without lasting effects from earlier medical problems.

Creation of a new Department of Patient Relations and the employment of full-time director has also helped to improve the quality of patient care. The primary function of this department is to respond to specific concerns patients have regarding their hospital care and to act in behalf of patients and their families in resolving problems and meeting needs.

A close circuit television system will soon be carrying services from the hospital chapel, other devotional programs and educational programs to patient rooms. This system will also be used in staff education programs. The equipment was purchased with funds from the estate of Miss Olivia Hall who worked for the Baptist Hospital for nearly a half-century.

The Department of Pastoral Care continues to make a significant contribution to patient care as well as in clinical pastoral education, counseling and enrichment activities. During recent months the department has begun another satellite center; this fourth sattellite is in Charlotte and is operated in cooperation with the Mecklenburg Baptist Association. In April of this year, the Counseling Center received accreditation by the American Association of Pastoral Counselors.

In recent months, the Medical Center Challenge Program completed a successful fund campaign, over-subscribing its $18-million goal. The final project in this program will be the replacement of the original hospital building, open in 1923, with a new Focus Building which is scheduled for completion in 1980.

In the fiscal year ending June 30, 1977, Baptist Hospital had an operating budget of $51,333,000. Of this amount, $8,635,000 was for free services, bad debts, adjustments, etc. During this same period, the hospital received $315,015 through the Cooperative Program — used for the Pastoral Care Department — $405,719 through the Mother's Day Offering — used to assist financially needy patients. In the months ahead may our Baptist Constituency continue faithfully to give adequate financial support to this great institution in its threefold ministry of healing, teaching and preaching.

Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina Report

The programs, services and facilites of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina are being utilized well for the care of children and in providing assistance to families that need our help. North Carolina Baptists and other friends continue to suport this ministry through personal invlovement, prayer and financial support.

It is the purpose of the Homes to provide quality care and to be worthy of the faith and confidence of our many friends and supporters. campuses at Mills Home, Thomasville; Kennedy Home, Kinston, Odum Home, Pembroke and Broyhill Home, Waynesville, continue to serve as centers of service and operation in their areas of the state.

Requests are coming to the Homes from various sections of the state for additional community-based services (such as, emergency care and group homes). This is a wholesome trend in child care. Children can best be served and families strengthened when care can be provided reasonably close to a child's home. Our homes have been moving in that direction for several years. We will respond to additional requests for programs and services as financial resources permit.

North Carolina Baptists have reason to be pleased with work that is currently in progress throughout North Carolina. In the piedmont area, Mills Home, foster home, services, emergency care at Burlington, and Charlotte, the high adventure program at Wall Home, the Child Development Center on the Mills Home campus, programs of crisis intervention, counseling, and family education fill a particular need in this area of the State.

We are in constant need of well qualified staffs. This is particularly true of cottage parents and foster home parents. Join us in prayer that God will impress upon sufficient numbers of prospective workers that child care is a Christian vocation and that it affords wonderful opportunities for service.

We are deeply grateful for support of the Children's Homes which comes from our churches through the Cooperative Program, special gifts and the traditional Thanksgiving offering.

The forthcoming Thanksgiving offering is extremely important. This will be the last time that our people will have the challenge of making an over and above offering to the Children's Homes at Thanksgiving time. As a part of the Bold Missions thrust, the Thanksgiving offering for the Children's Homes in 1979 will become a part of the North Carolina Baptist State Missions offering to be received each September thereafter.

To bridge the transitional gap next year, our trustees have set a goal of $1,000,000 (one million dollars) through the 1978 Thanksgiving offering. We are dependent upon our friends for financial support sufficient to carry on this ministry.

May each of us in Randolph Association do his best financially and pray for our Children's Homes.

Respectfully submitted,
T. W. Nelson

50 Brother Carl King gave a report on the Annuity Board.

Annuity Report

Year of Contrasts

The year 1977 was one of contrasts for the Annuity Board.

While the Board grew markedly in new retirement and insurance accounts, investment earnings suffered due to poor stock market performance.

The year also represented a period of strong demands which resulted from servicing needs of new accounts, a complex asset allocation process, implementation of a new church retirement program and accounting responsibilities of new investment funds.

Key statistics in 1977 included:

1. A permanent 8.33 per cent increase in most annuitants' checks. The increase was retroactive to January 1.
2. A total of $19,085,316 paid in retirement and protection benefits. Insurance benefits through church, agency and seminarian programs exceeded $12 million.
3. The enrollment of 545 new churches in the basic retirement plan. New pastors and church employees in Plan A numbered 2,169 and 3,000 members upgraded their program.

Plan A members increased from 27,598 in 1976 to 29,142 in 1977. Enrollment in Plan B rose from 25,412 to 33,062, but Plan C's membership dipped from 5,987 the previous year to 4,885 for the year ended.

In 1977, premium income totaled $45,603,942 — including relief. Total assets climbed to $498,977,661, compared with $473,142,631 a year earlier.

We hope the churches in the Randolph Association will enter their pastors in the annuity program.

Appreciation Committee

We extend to the Randolph Baptist Association and its officers our sincere gratitude for their work in the past twelve months. So often we take for granted the untiring efforts of our leaders as they work in their various capacities without thought of gain or reward. We extend to them and to our Director of Missions our pledge of continued support.

We thank Beulah Baptist Church and Oakhurst Baptist Church for the use of their facilities and for their gracious hospitality. To each one who has had a part on the program we give a special word of thanks for the inspiration and information.

Then, we give special thanks to our Lord for His care and guidance through the past year and for His guidance in the year to come.

We're thankful to Him for the privilege of being able to assemble together in Christian fellowship and brotherly love. We look forward to another year of service together.

53 The Christian Literature report was given by Rev. Rginald Dawkins.

Christian Literature Report

Think about it for a minute. What if there were no BIBLICAL RECORDER? What means of communication would keep our Baptist people together in the state? What if we had to depend entirely on the secular news media?

These are questions that should not be taken lightly. Thanks to the wisdom and foresight of Baptist leaders back in 1833, the BIBLICAL RECORDER has been on the scene for 145 years serving North Carolina Baptists.

One of the most important jobs of the BIBLICAL RECORDER is to keep members of Baptist churches informed about what's going on in our denomination, not only here in North Carolina but around the world. When people know, they respond more quickly and in a more cooperative and generous manner.

In that connection, there's one more question: Does the RECORDER pay? Recently the RECORDER published a list of 50 churches which had the best per-capita giving to the Cooperative Program. Forty nine of the 50 had a good RECORDER club many of them sending the RECORDER to every resident family. The BIBLICAL RECORDER has a part in helping these congregations see the importance of supporting Baptist causes.

More than 1,100 churches provide their families with the RECORDER through the church budget at a cost of only six cents a week. Everyone benefits when the RECORDER goes into every home.

The price of the RECORDER remains reasonable, despite tremendous increases in postage, paper and printing. If your church plans to put the RECORDER in the budget, it should do so this year and thus save money because a price increase is likely.

With the dripping wet news media in North Carolina, our Baptist people must depend on the RECORDER for information about such matters as liquor by the drink. This is only one reason for every church to have a good RECORDER club or put it in the budget.

Woodrow W. Hill, assistant editor and field representative for the past seven years, reached retirement age this past year but has agreed to continue to help the RECORDER in associations and churches. He is loved by people all over the state and we are glad that he will continue to be identified with the RECORDER when needed for special assignments.

Reginald Dawkins

Christian Education Report

Believing that a strong Christian influence should be felt in every area of our society, Baptists have covenanted to religiously educate their children. To do this it is imperative that we begin in our homes to read and interpret the Word of God to our children and to show them its practical application to the problems in our lives. Although churches and schools touch the lives of our chldren at earlier ages than ever before, Christian parents must continue to hold up the teachings and ideals of Christ as they teach moral values to them. Of course, the home can not do it all, and it is necessary to have an adequate system of Christian schools to provide a complete spiritual program for our youth.

The Baptist State Convention of North Carolina supports and operates through elected trustees, six colleges and one universty: Campbell, Chowan, Gardner-Webb, Mars Hill, Meredith, Wingate, and Wake Forest University. These colleges and North Carolina Baptists have worked together for a total of 729 years, trying to provide a sound education in a Christian atmosphere to those who enter. Not all of the colleges were begun by the Convention per se, but all were begun by Baptists with strong convictions about the need for Christian higher education. Currently, faculty and staff number, 1,441. During the 1977-78 academic year, the total enrollment of the colleges was 13,000. The total enrollment, including summer school and special students, was more than 19,000.

Baptist colleges serve Christ and Baptist people best when they are truest to ther primary mission, Chrstian education. A Christian college is a college founded, maintained, and conducted by Christian people in the service of the kingdom of God. While our colleges prepare students for various vocations, they seek to build a strong sense of service within these students. To keep closer ties with the sponsorng churches, these colleges offer (1) specific ministries to them and the denomnation; (2) Christian witness on the campuses by students and faculties working through such groups as Baptist Student Union, Christan Service Corps, etc.; and (3) specal co-operative ministries such as the Baptist Youth Corps. Another means of strengthening the ties with the churches is afforded by summer camps, retreats, pastors' schools, and the like which are held on many campuses during the summer months.

Let us continue to encourage our students to attend Baptist colleges. Although the cost of private education continues to soar, each of our colleges is pledged to assist needy sudens with financial aid. Students who want aid should apply early in their senior year of high school.

Although Baptist colleges are ours in the sense that we provide total support for their operating costs. Let us remember that the students who attend are products of the homes of our communities; many are from our churches. Whereas we expect responsible actions, we must also allow for freedom to grow and mature. Let us reaffirm our position on education ("The Baptist Faith and Message," 1963, p. 16): "In Christian education there should be a proper balance between academc freedom and academic responsiblity. Freedom in any orderly relationship of human life is always limited and never absolute. The freedom of a teacher in a Christian school, college, or seminary is limited by the pre-eminence of Jesus Christ, by the authoritative nature of the Scriptures, and by the distinct purpose for which the school exists."

Bob Pratt

Temperance and Morals Report
The Christian, Christ, and Morals
Two Sides of the Law

I have served as a law enforcement officer in the County of Randolph for a quarter of a century and thought I knew what morality was all about. But, Christ makes the difference. A paradox you may say; however, I am on two sides of the law. Man's law and God's law. Laws, while made and governed by man are ordained by God. He is sovereign and all power in His hand. Police officers are human beings, not perfect, yet they deserve the utmost moral support and cooperation while performing their duty. We must understand that nothing is here by chance. Police officers are placed here by God. For those who obey the law of the land have nothing to fear, but those who do not obey, punishment awaits. As a police officer, I must live up to the highest level of my calling, I must not fail. As a Christian having held various positions as a Bible teacher, Men's Fellowship president, Deacon, and Counselor, I am responsible to God to fulfill my spiritual calling to the highest level of my ability, according to God's Word, the Holy Bible.

A Pharisee (lawyer) asked Jesus a question, Master, which is the greatest commandment? Jesus said unto him, "thou shalt love the Lord thy God, with all thy heart, with all thy soul, and with all thy mind." This is the first and great and the second is like it, thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Matt. 2:35-40. Before you can possess a high standard of morality, God's love and power must be manifested in your life. You must become a new creature. Then one will recognize high moral standards in your life because when they look your way, they will see Christ instead of you. Friend, I stand on this side of God's law and tell you, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us (Romans 5:8) what mercy and love ("that God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten son, Jesus Christ, in order that we may have eternal life with him. John 3:16) Because of God's great love and sacrifice, I can stand on this side of God's law and tell you that I have a new attitude toward my fellow man, a new purpose and direction in life and a new relationship with my Lord. One might say that I have become a moralist for Christ.

Death and danger are not strangers to me as a law-enforcement officer. Police killings are on the increase, we never know which moment will be the last; it pays to be ready because death is but one breath away. Remember, on one side of the law we have the human government, we stand before a judge for wrongs committed against society, but one day ALL must stand before a mighty God who will judge us according to our sins against him. Our self-righteous and sociey morals won't count.

True morals come from God, so unless you know him, your morals will probably change with time. . . .

Respectfully submitted,
Neal J. Cockerham

Christian Life Commission Report

During the past year there have been a number of encouraging developments on the moral scene: large numbers of Christians have become more highly sensitized to the increasing level of immorality which is beamed into their homes by television; new initiatives have been made to deal with world hunger; renewed attention has been given to human rights; the importance of doing the gospel in daily life has been more widely accepted in the churches; and the place of Christian morality as the natural outgrowth of Christian conversion has come to be more generally subscribed to among the people of God. There have been enough discouraging developments on the moral scene, however, to keep Christians humble: hunger and poverty persist; racial problems go unresolvel; gambling and alcohol interests keep on finding new victims; the arms race continues its malignant growth; the energy crisis keeps building; health care costs continue to rise; and both inflation and unemployment trouble multitudes of people at home and abroad.

The Christian Life Commission has responded with all its might to these moral challenges. Through conferences, literature, organizational activities, speeches, sermons, books, and the mass media, the Commission has assisted Baptists working to bring God's righteousness to a sinful world.

Renewed attention has been devoted to the problem of hunger and the terrible toll it extracts from human beings who have been denied their right to eat. The Christian Life Commission worked with several other agencies to lead Southern Baptists in the first observance of World Hunger Day on August 2. This fall a Convention-wide Convocation on Hunger is being sponsored by a group of Southern Baptist agencies chaired by the Christian Life Commission. The convocation is intended to raise consciousness about hunger and suggest effective ways through which Christians can combat world hunger.

Following last year's battle over "Soap",, the struggle against immoral television programming also has continued. The Christian Life Commission's "Help for Television Viewers" packet, distributed as a Cooperative Program-funded project to nearly 50,000 church leaders last year, has received wide publicity and use The ABC Evening News as well as Newsweek magazine, The New York Times, The Washington Post, and the Los Angeles Examiner gave attention to the packet and to the Christian Life Commission's work in the area of television morality.

The Commission has continued to help God's changed people in their task of changing the world. A number of regional conferences have been conducted in 1978 to assist pastors and laypersons in applying the gospel to daily life. A national seminar held in Nashville, Tennessee, considered current lifestyle issues in Christian perspective. Two consultations were held to aid Southern Baptists in their efforts to deal with moral problems related to alcohol and family life. A specialized conference helped church leaders come to grips with their moral responsibility in the energy crisis. Again the Christian Life Commission provided posters and literature to the many Southern Baptist churches choosing to observe Race Relations Sunday and Christian Citizenship Sunday.

The task is not complete. In this imperfect world, new moral challenges are constantly arising. Yet Christians have a sense of geniune satisfaction in knowing that during the past year God's people have been faithful as His salt and light in the world, a people truly on Bold Mission, doing the gospel of God in Christ. The Christian Life Commission, in accordance with its mandate from God and from Southern Baptists, continues in its commitment to help Southern Baptists work faithfully in the whole field of applied Christianity.

Motion To Adjourn

North Carolina Baptist Foundation, Inc.

A survey in several counties representative of the cross-section of our state has provided interesting information regarding the seriousness, or lack of seriousness, to which stewardship of estates is considered. Court records and wills were carefully studied in these counties to determine the disposition of possessions for a specific time. Facts revealed were:

1 30% of the decedents died without a written will.

2. Very little was provided for the church or any charitable cause through the wills that were probated (Six-tenths of one percent was given to all charitable causes and only 65 one-thousandths of one percent was left to all Baptist causes.)

3. 45% of all assets were left either to husbands or wives, 37% of all assets were left to children by parents, and 27% was left to grandchildren or other persons.

4. Projected to a statewide basis for one year, two-thirds of one billion dollars is left in estates each year.

5. Based on resident Baptist population in the state, a tithe of the estates of Baptists that die each year would provide in excess excess of $10,000,000 additional dollars annually to the support of Christian missions and ministries carried on by our churches and denomination.

Baptists who believe in Bold Mission endeavors will:

1. prepare a will or have their will updated;

2. provide for their church pledges and commitments to be fulfilled through their will;

3. seriously consider a tithe of their estates to a Christian cause.

An excellent example to follow is that set by two members of one church in the mountain area of North Carolina. They have willed their possessions to the North Carolina Baptist Foundation as Trustee. Ten percent of each estate will go back to their church and 90% in trust will be paid annually to the Cooperative Program through their church — an amount equal to the entire church contribution to the Cooperative Program in 1977. (And this was a substantial amount). These two persons through their wills will double the church gifts to missions.

During 1977-78 fiscal year, the Foundation has received $198,139 in additions to the trust funds being held. Twenty-seven new trusts were established.

The Baptist Foundation staff is available to assist any individual who wishes to have a will prepared or updated. Anyone using Foundation services and who designates through their will a bequest to any Baptist institution or Baptist mision cause can have their will prepared at no cost. Assistance in cost can also be provided for those who desire to have their wills prepared or reviewed by a local attorney.

3. The location of missions or new churches shall be determined by the need revealed in an adequate survey conducted by the Missions Committee and local interested groups or churches.

4. Any church, committee, group or individuals considering beginning new work, acting with or without church sponsorship, should approach the Missions Committee for guidance before having any service or choosing a temporary or permanent location.

5. The Missions Committee shall institute basic, understandable operational procedures and practices for a mission that leads in establishing and strongly urges that each church establishing a mission does the same. That guidance of missions by the Missions Committee shall continue until a co-operating church or churches can be led to accept the responsibility of sponsorship.

6. A mission organized or assisted by the Missions Committee shall accept the recognized principles and practices of a church cooperating with the Randolph Association, the Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention.

ARTICLE VIII — ORDINATION AND CALLING OF PASTORS

Section 1. Inasmuch as the ordination of a man to the gospel ministry by any church in this Association is expected to be recognized by the denomination as a whole, the churches are counseled to be extremely careful in the matter of setting men apart for this sacred calling, ordaining only those who, by irreproachable character, piety of life, doctrinal soundness and suitable talents, give promise of honoring the name of Christ and of rendering acceptable service in the missionary Baptist ministry.

The Missions Committee

The Cross Road Baptist Church was begun May 31, 1978 with five families. They constituted with 24 members. They have adopted the Church Covenant in the Southern Baptist church life and have also adopted the Faith and Message Articles adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention in May of 1963. During the past year, they met in the VFW Building on Old Albemarle Road. Rev. Don McIntyre was called as their pastor at the beginning of the constitution of the church. Several months after the constitution as a church, they purchased 17 acres on top of a mountain on Cox Road. On September 30, they dedicated the first unit of their building program.

Their associational letter for the year 1978-79 is as follows: Baptism - 43 Other Additions - 64 Total Membership - 205 Sunday School Enrollment - 232 Average Attendance - 128 Church Training - 128 Average Attendance - 75 Total Gifts - $106,450. Cooperative Program - $3,077 Associational Missions - $2,194 Total Gifts to Missions - $11,972.

The Missions Committee and the Executive Committee recommend that the Cross Road Baptist Church after a year of watchcare, be accepted as full pledged members of Randolph Baptist Association.

Sunday School Report

This associational year, 1978-79, has been a year filled with many challenges and commitments in the Sunday School department. Our main thrust has been that of Bible Teaching — Bible Learning — and Bible Improvement along with special emphasis in Sunday School Outreach.

The following are some highlights of the activities within the Associational Sunday School work:

1. Pastor - Sunday School Director - Outreach Leader Workshop - January 29 at Balfour with 10 churches represented and 20 attending. My sincere thanks to Rev. Judson Rotan, our Director of Missions, for conducting the workshop for me. This came during the time I was hospitalized and was unable to be present.

2. Associational Bible School Clinic - April 9-10 at Asheboro, First. Faculty for this clinic was Rev. Cecil Johnson, Rev. & Mrs. Bill Smithwick, Mrs. Mildred Denson, Rev. James Womble, Mrs. Arlene Fretwell and Mrs. Pat Smith.

3. State-Wide ASSIST Program - Associational Sunday School Leadership. Those attending were Rev. Thomas Brown, Mrs. Mildred Denson, Rev. James Womble, and Mrs. Pat Smith.

4. On April 21, Robert Stewart, North Carolina State Sunday School Director, presented a very challenging and informative program on Sunday School Improvement and Bible Teaching. During the week the 8 churches had their special sessions of sharing and progress reports. As a result of the Bible-Venture Campaign, we are confident these churches have had a renewed interest in the total area of Sunday School work.

5. As associational Sunday School Director, I attended the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest on May 14-16. This was a challenge and a motivating experience for all who attended.

6. On September 10, we had a Key Leadership Conference at Asheboro, First with approximately 125 people attending and 11 churches and Sunday School Directors participating.

Our hearts were challenged through the inspiring message of Rev. Dwane Campbell, pastor of First Baptist Church, Elkin, N. C.

I feel that as a result of this conference and others planned during the coming year our Sunday Schools will experience an area of challenge and growth.

Respectfully submitted,
Thomas G. Brown

15 Mrs. Hazel McCollum, Jr. of Greystone Baptist presented the report on Church Training.

Church Training Report

Church Training is a vital organization that makes, trains and equips disciples for the up building of God's Kingdom. This organization seeks to involve all ages nursery through adults so that there may be a continuous training period all through the Christians' life.

This year has been another exciting year in Church Training and one that has inspired us on to greater heights in the Lord.

Your 1978-79 Council who has served so faithfully with me this year are:

Mrs. W. T. (Mildred) Denson — Preschool Director

Mrs. J. R. (Cindy) Parker — Childrens Director

Rev. Cecil Baughman — Youth Director

Mr. Joe Anderson — Adult Director

Mr. Doyle Owen — New Member Orientation Director

We appreciate your prayers and support as we have all worked and shared together this year.

"M" Night was our first and largest meeting of the year which was held at First Baptist Church in Liberty. A warm and spirit filled welcome was felt by all. According to our records we registered 290 attending with 10 churches represented, 10 Pastors and 9 Church Training Directors .

We had 8 young ladies who represented their church in the "M" Night and Church Training Queen Contest. Miss Wendy Parker from Liberty, First was crowned Queen and was presented with both trophies by having the largest percentage of her church membership present and also the largest number. Marcie Mitzzer from Sandy Creek was 1st runner up, Joy Owen from Oakwood Park was 2nd runner up, and Pam Taylor from Greystone was 3rd runner-up. We are truly thankful to these young ladies who helped so much to make "M" Night a success for God.

We had 5 participating in the Children's Poster Contest and the winner was Kim Covington from Greystone. She was presented with a plaque to be displayed in the church.

The promotional features added much to the program, thanks to Pat Ray and Clinton McNeill from Union Grove and Tani Williamson and Pam Farlow from Oakhurst.

Rev. Judson Rotan climaxed "M" Night with a very inspiring and challenging message.

This year for the first time we had a youth rally which was held at Oakhurst Church, March 10 on a Saturday, thanks to Rev. Cecil Baughman who is our Youth Director. The spirit of the rally was great. The youth were all involved in the program. Five churches were represented. We were thankful for the attendance and spirit that prevailed.

Exciting things continued to happen in Church Training. Whites Memorial Church organized a Church Training and had 37 present Sunday, May 20. Congratulations go to Rev. Jack Sherron, their pastor and Mr. George Joyce, their Church Training Director.

Rev. Cecil Johnson was our representative for Church Training at the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest, May 14-16. He brought back vital information and shared it with us at our local Key Leadership conference this year. We are indeed grateful to Rev. Johnson for this.

Another exciting event was our Associational Children's Bible Drill Tournament which was held Sunday, May 27 at Greystone. Mrs. Johnny Parker, our Childrens Leader directed the drill. We had 13 participating who represented 3 churches as follows: 5 from Oakhurst, 5 from First Baptist, Asheboro and 2 from Greystone. All 13 were associational winners and represented us in the State Tournament which was held Saturday, June 2 at First Baptist Church in Asheboro.

Five of the 13 winners were 3 year winners in their local church and association.

I had the privilege of attending Ridgecrest during Church Training Week, July 7-13 and it was truly a mountain top experience in the mountains all week. The fellowship was wonderful. The inspiration was overwhelming. The food was delicious and a spirit of unity engrossed us all as we worshiped together. I truly hope more of our people will be able to attend this coming year.

A lot of us felt younger because of our involvement with our youth at Youth Night Friday, August 24 which was held at Oakhurst Baptist Church. We had 12 churches represented with 7 pastors and 2 Church Training Directors attending. A total of 107 were registered.

The spirit of God was truly in our midst as Blake Lambert from Appalachian College led our time of worship. He shared slides of his team's mission work this summer with us which was most inspirational. He also charmed us with his ability with his guitar which accompanied several songs he shared. His testimony permiated the whole service and was a challenge to all of us. We were truly blessed of God through Blake's witness to us. Rev. Cecil Baughman, our Youth Leader, involved several of our local youth in our worship service which climaxed the program in a very meaningful way.

Our food was delicious, thanks to all our dedicated people who prepared it for us.

The fellowship was wonderful as always when we get together. We thank God for the beautiful and loving spirit we had among our people at Youth Night.

This closes out another year in our Church Training. God has been so good to us and continues to be as we look forward to the new Equiping Centers that have come into being just this year. We also have a new Survival Kit for new Christians and a new build up program for our Church Training along with many new ideas that have been tried successfully and shared with us by God's people.

We would like to thank God for his blessings as we witness new life and vision all over our association and state.

Thank you again for your prayers and support that have made this year possible.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. T. B. (Hazel) McCollum, Jr.

16 The Brotherhood Report was presented by Clinton McNeill.

Brotherhood Report

1978/79 has been a good year for the Brotherhood. We have had good participation from many of our Brotherhood units. Some were not able due to illness or recovering from operations at time of our sessions.

In January, our Workshop was well attended as 13 of our 19 Brotherhood units were present. Also in September, we had a good time of review at the Key Leadership Conference as we put our heads together to face the coming year with questions of what can we do and the answers as we looked at the potentials of the coming year before us. Much good groundwork was laid at this conference

Through the year we sensed the desire of many to become involved in missions outreach. We look to the coming year with hopes that this can become a reality. With one of the associational goals of being to team up with a pioneer association for mission projects where help is needed. Also, with the project of disaster relief coming to surface, ground work being laid for ministry at our Zoo. Truly, this can be a year of Missions.

We are happy to announce added personnel to our team this year. Ronnie Hicks is with us this year to help start or strengthen R A units. Those of you who desire help, we would encourage your call. Also serving you again this year along with us are Paul Bouldin and Larry Cahoon. We offer ourselves in service to our churches.

Respectfully submitted,
Clinton McNeill

Director of Missions Report

What an exciting year this has been. I feel like a lady at the Southern Baptist Convention just after Bill Graham finished speaking in the Astro-Dome where 50,000 Baptists gathered for the Bold Mission Rally. She said "All this and heaven too." From vistting the churches to attending Ridgecrest for Home Missions Week. From preaching in 20 of our churches to being involved in two World Missions Conferences, speaking in twenty churches. From sharing in Mission Team Conferences at Caraway to preaching at Mars Hill College during the Week of Christian Studies and Fellowship for pastors and family. This has been a very busy year as I have traveled around our association to all of our churches, over 16,000 miles. Beyond preaching in many churches, I have conducted January Bible Studies, Mission Studies, Stewardship emphasis, Associational emphasis, Deacon clinics, and sharing in several ordination services for deacons. Five groups have been to our associational building to learn more about our work.

We have been very busy planning for the new associational program. Strategy planning has given us our priorities to which has come the results of the Associational Master Plan. This will help us strengthen our organizations and programs, plus conserve our energy for a lot of meetings. I believe this will become a strong arm for growth and development.

The two big events that were a blessing to our churches were the World Mission Conference in March and the Bible-Venture Campaign for Sunday School Improvement in April. Many lasting results came from these events.

The growing heartbeat is for Bold Missions not so much as people reached, or dollars given, or programs used, as much as a spirit that must be caught, a spirit that possesses us for evangelism and missions. It is the true spirit of Christ — His compassion possessing us for hundreds of people in our communities that need help, care and love. We boldly give of ourselves in witness, sharing, and support. If this spirit of Christ possesses us, then the goals for Bold Missions that we adopt will be reached.

Some of the exciting things that are happening and we pray will happen are:

(1) The Resource Center is becoming a reality. In the next several months we pray and hope for its completion. Literature, phamphlets, filmstrips, materials from all organizations will be displayed and available for our churches and their leaders.

(2) 1980 emphasis is on Evangelism. Events for this year are Reaching Book Clinics for Sunday School teachers and officers in March, Witnessing training in late summer, a Evangelism Rally and the week of Simultaneous Revivals in October.

(3) Leadership training of Association leaders at Caraway will be in November which will help build a strong Associational leadership.

(4) The Bold Missions Goals — fifteen goals for our association over the next five years — to be adopted and fulfilled.

(5) The effort to increase our associational giving for ministries in our county — N. C. Zoo, Rest Homes, Radio, Senior Citizens, Seminary Extension, and Fall Festival.

(6) Quarterly Leadership Meetings with all organizations. How can our churches relate to all that we are doing? One of the best ways is prayer and participation. Then make sure that your church is giving 3% on a regular basis to the association. If all of our churches would give 3%, then we can accept the challenge of mission work in our own area.

My heart is full with gratitude to Randolph Baptist for allowing me to serve as Director of Missions. My prayer is that God will lead us forward to fulfil the dreams and accept the task for reaching people for Christ and developing them into strong disciples.

In Ministry,
Judson Rotan, Director of Missions

Master Plan For Association

The Associational Council has spent this year studying our associational program and schedule. After looking at several plans and ideas for our association, the council presented the following plan to the associational Executive Committee on May 10, 1979 for its discussion and approval. It was accepted unanimously.

It is presented to the Annual Associational Meeting for its consideration and approval.

The Master Plan is an attempt to conserve our efforts in the association with meetings. It is an attempt to build fellowship among our church leaders and to provide training and encouragement to our organizations.

PLAN:

1. The Monday after the 2nd Sunday in each month is Associational night.

2. Quarterly.
   a. First Month — Quarterly Leadership Meeting (S.S., C.T., WMU, Bro., Deacons, and others).
      (It may be possible for some organizations not to meet each time.)
   b. Second Month — Executive Committee Meeting.
   c. Third Month — Special Event (Such as World Mission Conference, Witnessing Training, etc.)

SCHEDULE:

7:00 P.M. General Session with a special emphasis
7:40 P.M. Organizational Conferences
8:45 P.M. Fellowship Time
9:00 P.M. Adjourment

(or the plan could be reversed with organizational conferences first, followed by general sessions.)

OTHER EVENTS

This plan will still provide for the annual meetings for the organizations, such as Sunday School Preparation and Rally; Church

Training Youth Night and "M" Night; Brotherhood — R.A. Rally and Event; WMU Annual Meeting; and Week of Prayer Mission Rallies. Also the Annual Associational Meeting.

SPECIAL EVENTS:

The association may vote for a special emphasis or event to take place during other weeks or months than has been stated, such as Simultaneous Revival in October, 1980.

PURPOSE:

This Master Plan can provide the pastor and his leadership the opportunity to come once each quarter to the Quarterly Leadership Meeting for training and inspiration. These meetings would seek to confront issues in our churches, emphasize the current emphasis and train the leadership. One of the basic problems in our churches is training and informed leadership. This plan will attempt to reach our leadership with training and challenge. Instead of each organization having its own meeting on different nights, this will be an effort to combine our training each quarter

PROPOSED SCHEDULE FOR 1980

February — Executive Committee Meeting
March — Big Event - Reaching Books Clinic for S.S. Leaders
April — Quarterly Leadership Meeting
May — Executive Committee Meeting

Executive Committee Report

I am happy to report to you that the debt on the Associational Office building has been paid in full. This was made possible by your church having a Week of Prayer for Associational Missions in May of this year to raise money to retire the debt.

Your Association lost one church this year, Jackson Creek. The office received their letter of resigiation some two months ago.

We lost one, but you will be adding another to full fellowship, Cross Road Baptist Church, which has been under watchcare for the past year. This was approved at the August 9 Executive meeting.

Your Council has met ten times in the past year and the Executive Committee held their regular four meetings

Respectfully submitted,
Fred Lane, Clerk

20 The Evangelism Report was presented by Vernon McDaniel.

Evangelism Report

Baptists in search of unsaved and unchurched persons, are joining together in a Statewide Evangelistic Crusade scheduled for 1982. It is expected that the effort will include Simultaneous Revivals with dates and other activities to be announced soon. The Joint Evangelistic Crusade Committee, composed of both white and black Baptists, is chaired by Mark Corts of Winston-Salem, and co-chaired by C. W. Ward of Raleigh. The committee requests prayer support of the churches for this effort to reach every person in North Carolina with the gospel of Christ by the end of 1982.

The 33rd Statewide Evangelism Conference was held at the Cumberland County Memorial Auditorium, Fayetteville, North Carolina, during February 5-6, 1979. Over 2,500 pastors and lay persons were challenged by evangelistic preachers to involve church members more in direct witnessing for Christ to the unsaved.

Many churches from different associations across the state have already participated in Bold Evangelism Clinics, using the notebook — BOLD EVANGELISM THROUGH THE LOCAL CHURCH — with the emphasis related to on-going programs of evangelism in the local church. Other associations need to plan a Bold Evangelism Clinic. Every church in all our associations are encouraged to double baptisms by 1982, or sooner.

Pastors and lay persons participated in an important seminar on GROWING AN EVANGELISTIC CHURCH during March 26-29 at Caraway Conference Center. The seminar was co-sponsored by the Division of Evangelism and several of the staff of the Evangelism Section of the Home Mission Board. In-depth training sessions placed an emphasis on long-range planning to develop an evangelistic local church.

The Division of Evangelism now has the TELLset and training cartridges to train small groups in direct witnessing. There will be a renewed emphasis on Lay Evangelism Schools with the use of new materials and TELL witness training.

Decisions for Christ are being made by youth and adults as a result of the Youth Revivals led by four Summer Youth Evangelism Teams in one-week efforts among 36 churches across our state.

Churches and associations are now involved in Bold Revival Planing Clinics, using the Revival Planbook for the Local Church, Counseling Guide, and the Follow-Up Manual for New Christians. The Revival Planbook can help pastors and church leaders to plan for a more effective revival effort.

The 34th Statewide Evangelism Conference will be held in Greensboro during February 4-5, 1980.

Randolph Baptist Association will present plans through the Executive Committee for some kind of witness training in the spring of 1980. Our chairman of Evangelism will be attending the seminar in March, 1980 on "Growing an Evangelistic Church." The association is planning a simultaneous revival effort for October 5-12, 1980.

State Missions Report

Every year North Carolina Baptists have one opportunity to give to a special offering for foreign missions — the Lottie Moon Christmas Offering. This year we gave approximately 4 million dollars.

Every year North Carolina Baptists have one opportunity to give to a special offering for home missions — the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering. This year we gave over 1 million dollars.

This year North Carolina Baptists will have an opportunity to give to a special offering for North Carolina missions — the North Carolina Missions Offering. We are being asked to give 2 million dollars.

Some of the things that will have to be left out if the offering goal is not met are:

... a migrant child will not have a chance to attend Vacation Bible School.

... churches that need loans in order to build needed additions will be told they have to wait another year.

... some Japanese families residing in North Carolina will not hear the good news about Christ.

Jim was a student summer missionary last year in Alaska. Gene spent his Spring break this year helping migrants in Florida. Coy surrendered to preach late in life and now attends Fruitland. Charles teaches a Seminary Extension class in Goldsboro. Olna helps people learn to read in her living room in Gastonia. Maurico is a Spanish-speaking pastor in Fayettevillee. Ron is director of Christian Social Ministries there. Donna of North Wilkesboro teaches deaf people and "hearing" people how to teach the deaf. Art does the same work in Raleigh.

All of these people are part of North Carolina Baptists' mission program, a unity of caring. They all give and receive. They are all united for ministry.

We want these people to hear about Christ. I believe you do too. For their sake, let's reach the $2,000,000 goal. State Missions is one of six offerings that will be included in the North Carolina Missions Offering next year.

Respectfully submitted,
Tina Kincaid

38 Mrs. Faye McDaniel presented the Home Mission Report.

Home Missions Report

The Home Mission Board is now deeply involved in strategy related to BOLD MISSION THRUST. A booklet entitled: TARGET: A.D. 2000 states guidelines of action for the agency to the end of the century. The overall plan is, of course, broad; but the agency will be filling in the details during the next twenty-two years.

Plans have been drawn up for developing a long-range strategy for winning America to Christ. Second, the great spiritual needs of key cities and key counties over our nation are being genuinely and systematically attacked with the gospel. Third, the Mission Service Corps has come into being, and at the end of 1978, 100 persons were assigned to serve in 36 states.

The "era of the volunteer" has arrived and in 1978 over 21,671 persons were involved in volunteerism with some home mission activity. The expertise of lay people who are willing to serve is being tapped and put to use all over our nation. Over 1200 places of service have been identified where Mission Service Corps are needed.

Baptists are becoming concerned in an unprecedented way about the spiritual and moral life of our country. The Spirit of God is on the move all over America. Excitement about Bold Mission is evident in our churches and there is new realization that Christ is the answer to the gnawing hunger of souls and spirits.

Staff at the Home Mission Board stands at 104 and receives financial support from the Cooperative Program and the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering for the carrying on of its programs through 34 state conventions throughout the nation. The various programs supported by these funds include: Evangelism Development, Personal Evangelism, Mass Evangelism, Chaplaincy Ministries, Church Loans, Associational Administration Service, Metropolitan Missions, Rural-Urban Missions, Christian Social Ministries, Church Extension, Cooperative Ministries with National Baptists, Interfaith Witness, Language Missions, and Pioneer Missions.

Faye A. McDaniel

39 The Foreign Missions report was presented by Mrs. Aleta Stetler.

Foreign Missions Report

The sending out and maintaining of missionaries is primary in Southern Baptist missions through the channel of the Foreign Mission Board. Total board appointments reached a new high in 1978 for the third straight year. Appointments in all categories totaled 350, a 25 percent increase over 1977.

Net missionary personnel gain for 1978 was 130, the largest gain since 1966. At the end of the year, the missionary staff totaled 2,906, including 224 missionary associates, 183 journeymen, and 12 special project medical workers. The Bold Mission Thrust objective to increase the missionary staff to more than 5,000 by A.D. 2000 remains a challenge.

In 1978 workers on mission fields reported growth from 8,533 churches and 1,071,922 members to 10,440 churches and 1,214,699 members. Field reports indicated a total of 94,543 baptisms. The Bold Mission Thrust objective of a tenfold increase in churches calls for still larger efforts since the achievement of this goal is not yet on schedule.

In 1978, Southern Baptists' contributions for foreign missions totaled $64,995,017.

The 1978 Lottie Moon Christmas Offering topped off as of May 31, 1979 at $35,919,605.40. The 1979 offering goal is $40,500.000.

Approximately 50 percent of the Southern Baptist Convention Cooperative Program funds is made available annually for foreign missions. Still urgently needed on overseas fields are land, buildings, and equipment, amounting to several million dollars' worth. As the overall missionary personnel picture begins to express new boldness, the financing for world missions must also show a bold new thrust.

Respectfully submitted,
Aleta H. Stetler

40 The Rev B. C. Owenby presented the Cooperative Program report.

Cooperative Program Report

The Southern Baptist Convention was organized in 1845 for the purpose of mission support. In 1925 the Lord led Southern Baptists to establish the Cooperative Program. This great system for channeling prayer concern and financial support to the great missionary enterprise was formed. It has never been surpassed in efficiency. The way it works is ingenious, yet simple. This system makes it possible for every Southern Baptist to be at work in every part of the world every day. There are some simple steps in the Cooperative Program. The Cooperative Program begins with you. You must decide what you will give. You bring your gifts to the church. The Bible teaches us that we are to submit our-selves one to another. As we purpose in our hearts, we bring our gifts to the church. You, as a part of that church, must decide with other members how much you will share for the church's task beyond the church and how much you will retain for ministries closer home.

Whatever it decides, the church allocates a certain percentage for ministries through the association and a certain percentage for ministries through the Cooperative Program. The money for associational missions is sent to the associational office. The money for Cooperative Program ministries is sent to the office of the state Baptist convention. The churches in the state decide in their convention sessions each year how they are going to use the Cooperative Program money. In the Southern Baptist Convention sessions each year, messengers from the churches decide how the money will be distributed among the various ministries.

The way Baptists work is unique: there is no hierarchical organization. The association is made up of your church and other churches working cooperatively. The state convention is formed by messengers from your church and other churches in the state. The Southern Baptist Convention is also made up of messengers from your church and other churches in the Convention. Authority is not handed down, so to speak, from one organization to another. The individual churches in the Convention control each organization This is important. Each church maintains its independence and autonomy. The churches are thus freed to cooperate voluntarily with each other. And cooperate they do. Souls are won, lives are changed, bodies are healed, and we grow stronger together as we share the redemptive task as we pray and as we give through the Cooperative Program. When bodies are healed, you are there. When homes are mended, you are there. When a hand is extended, you are there. When souls come to Jesus, you are there-in your church, in your state, throughout the nation, and around the world. You are there when you take the world task upon you in prayer, and when you give through your church-through the Cooperative Program.

Let us consider the goals of Bold Missions in stewardship programing

(1) Every church doubling its budget by 1982.

(2) Doubling of Cooperative Program giving by 1982, and doubling twice again by the year 2000.

(3) Every church in North Carolina making an annual Cooperative Program increase.

(4) Doubling gifts to associational missions.

B. C. Owenby

Baptist Homes For The Aging

There are six Baptist Homes for the aging in North Carolina. In addition, there is the skilled nursing facility on the grounds of Hayes Home. Other homes are in Albemarle, Hamilton, Yanceyville, Winston-Salem, and the recently opened home in Asheville.

The homes were founded by the Baptist State Convention almost 30 years ago. Directed now by Reverend William A. Poole, they provide a comfortable secure home with an average age of 80. There is also an apartment complex for people who would prefer to do their own light housekeeping. The nursing care unit serves about 80 patients at a time.

The homes offer private rooms, meals in a dining room, medical care available 24 hours a day, physical therapy, and a variety of activities. There are church services, shopping trips, concerts, crafts classes, parties and such sports as fishing and golf. But the privacy and individual interests of residents are respected.

Reverend Poole, addressing himself to fellow Baptists in the July-August CHURCH LEADER states. "The tie between our North Carolina pastors and churches and our North Carolina Baptist Homes for the Aging is a sacred one indeed, one that has been strengthened through the twenty-eight years of our ministry. You have supported this ministry loyally in many ways, not among the least of them being the special love gifts that you have given through a special offering for the Homes. This offering has been the means of not only contributing to the total financial strength of the homes, but has been a direct life-line of supplemental financial support for five out of every six residents who could not possibly have paid the cost of care."

"The new plan of continuing special support for the Homes is now a united ministry through the North Carolina Missions offering which will include all of our ten Baptist institutions as well as the special challenges of State Missions.

"The total goal is $2,000,000 and North Carolina Baptist Homes, if the goal is reached, will receive 15 percent of the offering, or $300,000."

"Never has a group of people been more dependent upon the success of this offering than those in our Baptist institutions, and this is particularly true of our Baptist Homes for the Aging."

Respectfully submitted,
Reginald Dawkins

45 Bro. T. W. Nelson presented the report on Baptist Hospital.

Baptist Hospital Report

Although growth in bed capacity at Baptist Hospital has leveled off at just under 700 beds, there is continuing expansion of the hospital's services. This expansion results from new discoveries made through medical research, and is in response to the health care needs of people.

During the past year a 38-bed rehabilitation unit has opened to offer short-term services and family instruction to the disabled. The chief beneficiaries of this program are patients with strokes, arthritis, burns, long-term casts, joint replacement surgery, brain tumors, spinal cord injuries, hand injuries, and some cardiac problems.

A new six-bed burn unit is scheduled to open soon. This unit will permit the isolation of burn patients in a location where all required services are immediately available.

An automatic clinical analyzer, the first of its kind in the state, has been acquired and put into operation. This fully automated analyzer, which uses computer technology, can perform more than 200 tests. It analyzes blood serum and body fluids and provides results in less than eight minutes. These prompt and accurate results are of particular importance in critical care areas, such as the emergency room.

Another new ministry is a program of home visitation for children with cancer and their families. A team consisting of physicians, nurses, a psychologist and chaplains ministers to families during three critical periods: When a child has received a recent diagnosis of cancer, when a child is terminally ill, when a child has recently died.

Our chaplains lead worship services in Davis Chapel, which are relayed to all patient rooms by closed-circuit television. They also provide a pastoral ministry to patients, their families and to staff members; provide more than 15,000 hours of personal counselling annually; offer personal growth and enrichment events to hundreds of clergy and lay persons each year; and conduct the largest program of clinical pastoral education in the world. Ministries of the Pastoral Care department are made accessible to people across the state through satellites in Fayetteville, Raleigh, Morganton and Charlotte.

Baptist Hospital has actively participated in the Voluntary Effort to keep hospital costs as low as possible. Our hospital and several of its employees have been recognized and received awards for their cost-saving ideas and efforts. Our patients benefit in that the hospital's room rate increase this year — despite continuing inflation — is only 5%, as compared to an annual increase of 6% in recent years.

In recent months the hospital's oldest building — "Old Main" — has been torn down and a new six-story Focus Building is now rising on this site.

Our hospital staff members have been working with representatives from other denominational agencies and with leaders of the Baptist State Convention to promote the North Carolina Missions Offering. The hospital looks forward to receiving its share of this offering, as gifts from the churches in the fiscal year ending June 30 were $196,516, as compared to $388,122 in the preceeding fiscal year.

May each of us do his best for the State Missions Offering which is already in swing in our association and pray for our sick and shut ins. May God richly bless you.

Respectfully submitted,
T. W. Nelson

46 The Baptist Children's Homes report was presented by Albert Taylor.

Baptist Children's Home Report

Building a better tomorrow has always been the dedicated concern of the Baptist Children's Home of North Carolina. Todays children will become the adults who shape tomorrow's world. No task is more important than helping a child, hurt by life, to grow into healthy, well-adjusted, responsible citizenship.

Each child who comes to the Children's Home is different, with a different need to be met and a different problem to be solved. It is the responsibility of the Homes to find the best possible solution. For many years that meant providing food, clothing and shelter for orphans. Today the need has changed. Today our work is with children who for various reasons have lost the security of homes and parents.

Increasingly, you Homes are being called upon to serve Children who are disturbed and emotionally ill. In addition to traditional types of child care, there is a growing need for specialized supervision and services.

We owe a debt of deep gratitude to our friends whose genuine concern for the welfare of our children makes this help possible — especially our Baptist people. You have afforded hundreds of boys and girls opportunities and privileges which they otherwise could not have had.

May we in the Randolph Association continue to do our best through our giving to the Cooperative Program, and our North Carolina Baptist State Missions Offering to be received each September.

Respectfully submitted,
Albert L. Taylor

47 Miss Sara Ann Hobbs, Director of Division of Missions for the Baptist State Convention speaking to the reports.

48 Mr. Carl King presented the Annuity Report.

Annuity Report

The year 1978 was a "banner year" and a year of challenge for Annuity Board in serving churches and agencies of the Southern Baptist Convention, according to Dr. Darold H. Morgan, president.

Among the challenges he listed were extremes of market variations, staggering pressures of escalating costs, changes in personnel and organization, and the eroding presence of governmental regulations.

The banner side highlights included:

1. A "13 Check" equalling and additional full month's benefit and amounting to $1,036,914 was mailed to almost 10,000 annuitants in Board retirement programs.

2. A total of $25,558,637 was paid in retirement and protection benefits. Insurance benefits through church, agency and seminarian programs topped $13 million.

3. An Endowment Department, designed to seek funds for undergirding protection programs, was established. A goal of $25 million by 1988 was set.

4. New churches in the retirement program numbered 630, a record enrollment. New pastors and church employees totaled 2,545, with 3,721 members upgraded programs.

5. Participants in the new Southern Baptist Retirement Program grew to 6,066. Family Benefit Section (Plan A) counted 23,986 members, and Age Security Section (Plan B) recorded a marked increase from 33,062 in 1977 to 44,324. Variable Benefit Section (Plan C) membership declined from 4,885 to 4,217.

6. Premium income reached $51,797,996 (includes relief). Total assets climbed to $569,734,471, compared with $498,977,661 a year earlier.

In North Carolina as of March 31, 1979, 2,953 staff members of 2,290 churches and associations are participating in the Southern Baptist Retirement Program.

Bro. Sam Oneal came to Randolph Association during the year and invited the pastors for a discussion of programs.

In Randolph Baptist Association 31 churches and 36 staff members are participating in the retirement program.

Respectfully submitted,
Carl L. King

50 Rev. Hansel Neathery presented the Christian Literature report.

Christian Literature Report

Since the printed page is an important means of promoting the work of the Kingdom of God, Southern Baptists, through the Sunday School Board, the State Baptist Papers, the Broadman Press and other publishing agencies are continually striving to increase the quantity and the quality of literature for our denomination. During 1977-78 the Sunday School Board continued its efforts in at least three priority areas as follows:

(1) Bible teaching for the masses. In this area the Bible Book Curriculum Series was introduced for its first use in October, 1978. The series immediately claimed about 13 percent of total Sunday School youth and adult circulation in spite of the fact that its first focus was upon Genesis which had just been studied by more than half of the youth and adults enrolled in Sunday School

(2) Support and Enrichment of Family Life. In this area strong emphasis has been given to two fine magazines, Home Life, which has been given a circulation of 9,688,959 copies and Mature Living which has been given a circulation of 1,556,719 copies. Approval was also given for the production of a monthly magazine for single adults entitled, Christian Single.

(3) Equiping the Saints. In this area the most significant achievement was the enrollment of 1,382,104 persons in Church Music ministries which is the largest enrollment in history in the field of music. The Sunday School Board reports a periodical distribution of approximately 65,967,000 pieces.

The Sunday School Board has also spent some $27,850 in publishing literature giving strong support to the Bold Mission Thrust for promotional activities related to Mission Service Corps and other Bold Mission Thrust projects.

The work of the Broadman Press in the past year has also been significant. In 1978 the Broadman Press produced 541 new products. During the same period 119 old products were dropped by being declared out-of-print. Broadman, therefore, had a net increase of 422 new products in 1977-78.

Another bright spot in our field of Christian literature is our State Baptist Papers. The Southern Baptist Committee on Baptist State Papers reports that their outreach is steadily increasing. In the 1974 Convention in Dallas a combined circulation of 1,734,374 was reported. At the Southern Baptist Convention meeting in Atlanta in 1978, the committee reported an increase of approximately 100,000 in circulation. This increase has continued in 1979. Thus, a goal has been set of two million in circulation by 1980.

A word also must be said about our own State Baptist Paper, the Recorder, which is perhaps, one of the finest in the country and is in its 146th year of publication. It gives excellent coverage to denominational news and events, but perhaps the thing that makes it unique is its emphasis on and coverage of the local church which it believes in as the foundation stone of our mission enterprise. So, may we one and all be aware of the unique contribution of the State Baptist Papers to Southern Baptist life and work.

Respectfully submitted,
H. C. Neathery

51 The Christian Education was presented by Cecil N. Johnson.

Christian Education Report

When North Carolina Baptists call the college/university roll, there are seven reasons to be grateful and proud; Campbell, Chowan, Gardner-Webb, Mars Hill, Meredith, Wake Forest and Wingate. These are seven of 53 colleges and universities supported and nurtured by state conventions within the Southern Baptist Convention.

According to the latest figures printed by the Education Commission, SBC, of the 134,000 students attending the 53 Baptist colleges in the Convention, almost 20,000 are enrolled in our North Carolina schools. Thus, 15% of all Baptist college enrollments are located in this state.

The 1978-79 year witnessed change and progress. Enrollments were stable; budgets were balanced; Wingate College made history by graduating the first senior class; Campbell, once known as a senior college, announced a name change to Campbell University; the Campbell Law School graduated its first class; and churches all across the state answered the Council's request for names and addresses of prospective college students. In the main, it was a very good year for Baptist colleges.

All North Carolina Baptists are now aware of the current discussions between Wake Forest and the Council Committee to Study the Wake Forest University Proposal. Many hours of study and work have been given by that committee, and this work will continue at least until the Convention meets in Winston-Salem on November 13-14, 1979. The Council will make its recommendation to the General Board, and the General Board will report and recommend to the Convention,

The Council on Christian Higher Education joins in encouraging the churches to elect responsible and informed messengers to the Convention. Decisions made concerning the continuation of the Wake Forest Convention relationship will affect the life and work of the Convention and Wake Forest for many years to come.

We thank you for supporting the colleges. We call upon the churches to pray for all of our Baptist work, including the colleges. We look toward the crucial decisions in the fall with confidence in North Carolina Baptists, who have been supporting Christian higher education for almost 150 years.

Respectfully submitted,
Cecil N. Johnson

52 W M U report was presented by Mrs. Pat Ray.

W.M.U. Report

Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. Mark 16-15.

This command of Jesus should be a personal one to every believer. It is our job and privilege to share the love of Christ to everyone upon the earth; this takes dedication and vision, and my heart is heavy because I feel we are losing it. Sure, we have great programs, plans, and make many fine speeches, but when the showdown comes, we are failing.

The Randolph Association has 82,000 people with 50% unchurched. It takes 41 people to lead one person to be saved right here at home.

Dr. D. L. Johnson, Professor of Religion of Furman University, the Bible teacher at Ridgecrest for WMU Week gave this illustration that is a sad but true picture of the average church of today.

There was once a dangerous, fog shrouded harbor that caused many ships to wreck; thus many lives were lost to the sea. The people in the small seaport were concerned enough about the loss of so many lives that they formed a group of "life-savers." They bought a small boat and everytime there was trouble, they would sound an alarm and go to the rescue. Many people were rescued from certain death, but the townfolk weren't satisfied. They said, "If we knew better how to save lives and had a larger boat, we could save more people. "So, they started having "life-saving" classes and soon they had so many interested people they needed a larger place for their meetings. They decided to build a hugh building in which they could accommodate all the people interested in saving lives and went deep in debt for the building and a much larger boat that would hold many more as they dipped them from the sea.

The trap into which they were falling is all too familiar. Soon, they were so far in debt, they had to spend more time working to pay off their indebtedness and their spare time was spent "learning to be a life-saver." No time was left to go into the harbor so all the while people were dying - dying - dying.

By now, I'm sure you have seen the parallel between this situation and our local churches.

Isn't it tragic that while we are having lay-witness revivals - WIN schools - and "Share Your Faith seminars," people all around us are dying without ever having a chance to accept Christ?

What is the answer?

Sometimes the medicine is worse than the disease! The tests to diagnose the illness are far more painful that the symptoms and just as it hurts to probe a wound, so it is when someone lays a finger on our spiritual illness.

Bro. Judson Rotan recently preached a message I wish everyone could hear titled, "Where Have We Lost Jesus?" It was such a challenge to the local church, associational organizations, and to each individual.

Somewhere along the way we have lost Jesus in our churches.

There is an answer and it is found in the WMU Wachword for 1979: "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria and to the end of the earth." Acts 1:8 (R.V.)

There is no power that can equal the power of the Holy Spirit and I'm so grateful that because of Him we had some climatic moments in WMU.

Many meetings and conferences were conducted and attended by our Council, and I pray God has used these to strengthen each of us.

We had two unique WMU meetings: Feb. 26 at Russell's Grove our guest speaker was Rev. Ellis Fullbright, missionary to Zambia with Fran Davis from Greystone as guest soloist. There were 125 in attendance and I felt God move in a very special way as we united as one in prayer. Rev. Tommy Butler and his fine people made us feel right at home.

April 30: Ramseur, First was another inspiring fellowship at the WMU-Brotherhood Annual Meeting. Dr. Ivan deSouza - home missionary to seamen at Mobile, Alabama was our speaker and we gave him all the time he needed as he entertained us with guitar and singing in many languages the song "God is so Good' and "Because He Lives." The music was gloriously provided by Karen Brady and Kevin Allen from the host church. I'm sure it was God's plan for us to use these two talented young people at that time because they no longer are able to perform together. Kevin went home to be with God in August. Neither will we be able to engage Dr. deSouza because he and his family have moved back to Brazil, his home country. There were 180 present. Rev. Justus McKeel and his church prepared refreshments for fellowship afterward.

We had two more outstanding meetings here in the association. G. A. Daycamp on August 18 at Camp Caraway was highlighted with Rev. & Mrs. Gary Hartheock, Antiqua leading the first half with swimming from 1-3.

September 10 at Asheboro First we had a Key Leadership Conference with 16 in the WMU Conference. A challenge was given that I pray will motivate our people to support missions in a way they never have before.

The Acteens were fortunate enough to go to the Acteens Convention at Ridgecrest April 20-22. I am grateful to Sue Donnell for being responsible for the group and to Union Grove for providing the bus and drivers for transportation.

I believe in the association and I know that God uses these times we have together to draw us closer to each other and to Him. No one can live alone. We need each other. Aren't you glad God gave us other Christians from which we can learn, we can love and have fellowship?

But let's don't stop there! Let us commit ourselves to them go out and "teach all nations."

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Pat Ray

Christian Life and Public Affairs Report

The Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs is made up of twenty persons selected by the Convention. Eight come from the General Board, while the remaining twelve are elected at-large. These persons give overall leadership to the Council's staff.

There have been two changes in the staff. W. Douglas Cole has recently been named Director of the Division of Christian Life and Public Affairs. Earlier in the year Ted W. Williams was named Director of the Department of Aging.

The Christian Life Council has been concerned with a number of moral issues during 1979. The status and health of the family is of great importance. In an effort to strengthen family relationships, the Council has been involved in marriage enrichment retreats and associational family life conferences. In addition, a marriage enrichment retreat was held for ministers and their spouses. A family life poster has been printed and is being made available to churches.

More than seven hundred North Carolina Baptists participated in the newly-formed Legislative Information Network. Members of the Network received a guide-book containing relevant information on the North Carolina General Assembly. In addition, a regular newsletter was mailed to all participants, keeping them informed on a wide variety of legislative issues of interest to Christians.

Work by the Department of Aging was begun this year. Under the leadership of Ted Williams, the Council has sponsored a Senior Adult Conference and a Senior Adult Retreat. Efforts are being made to designate a senior adult co-ordinator in many churches and associations. As the number of senior adults in our society grows, it will be increasingly important for us to find creative ways to minister with senior adults and to help them to deal with the problems of growing old.

The plight of millions of hungry and starving people around the world has continued to hold the attention of Baptists. A packet of materials was prepared by the Christian Life Council to aid churches in the observance of World Hunger Day in August. Many churches have participated, through special services, offerings, study groups and other means, in helping hungry people around the world. Many more need to become active in feeding some of Jesus' brothers and sisters, in his name.

Applying the radical teachings of our Lord to our day-by-day lives is not easy. Jesus said that in order for his followers to come after him, they must first take up their crosses. The task of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs is to help North Carolina Baptist to live life as Christ would have us to live it.

Respectfully submitted,
Justus McKeel

Guiding Principles for the Work of the Missions Committee of the Randolph Association.

1. The Committee is to seek to discover areas where new work is needed and to lead in the sponsorship or establishment of new work to meet present need or the securing of property by a local church and/or the Association in the anticipation of future need.

2. All new work does not necessarily need to be nor should be intended to become an organized or constituted church. New work may be started and maintained on the basis of a mission to meet particular need (this provides for institutional missions such as jails, prisons, rest homes, etc.)

3. The location of missions or new churches shall be determined by the need revealed in an adequate survey conducted by the Missions Committee and local interested groups or churches.

4. Any church, committee, group or individuals considering beginning new work, acting with or without church sponsorship, should approach the Missions Committee for guidance before having any service or choosing a temporary or permanent location.

5. The Missions Committee shall institute basic, understandable operational procedures and practices for a mission that leads in establishing and strongly urges that each church establishing a mission does the same. That guidance of missions by the Missions Committee shall continue until a co-operating church or churches can be led to accept the responsibility of sponsorship.

6. A mission organized or assisted by the Missions Committee shall accept the recognized principles and practices of a church cooperating with the Randolph Association, the Baptist State Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention.

7. The Missions Committee shall plan and develop special associational projects and make the churches aware of these mission opportunities to participate.

d. Order of Business: The Order of Business Committee shall be composed of six members, two serving three (3) years, two serving two (2) years, and two serving one year. The committee will prepare well in advance a suggested order of business for the annual session. The committee will notify those who are to make reports or have part on the program. The program for the annual session of the association shall be sent to all persons on the program and to all pastors at least thirty (30) days before the annual meeting. The Moderator, Clerk, and Music Director shall be Ex-officio members of the committee.

This committee will be also responsible for promoting the annual session through the various news media.

e. Evangelism: The Evangelism committee shall be composed of six members, two serving three (3) years, two serving two (2) years and two serving one year. The committee shall promote the work of evangelism in the churches and the association in cooperation with the State Department of Evangelism. The committee shall plan and promote annual programs or clinics for persons to be trained and motivated to witness for Christ. The committee shall meet at least once each quarter and report its activities to the Executive Committee. The committee will give a written report to the annual session.

f. Ordinations: The Ordination Committee shall be composed of three members, one serving three (3) years, one serving two(2) years, and one serving one year. Also the Director of Missions, the pastor and deacons of the home and requesting churches, shall, when requested, assist with the examination and ordination of a candidate for the Gospel ministry.

Guidelines:

(1) The committee requires that it receive a copy of that portion of minutes, signed by the Clerk, of the church conference at which the home church voted to request examination of the candidate.

(2) The committee requires that the candidate be called by a church for ministry before requesting examination.

(3) The chairman shall notify the candidate of the time, place and procedure.

(4) The committee suggests that the candidate be questioned at least two weeks prior to his ordination.

(5) The committee shall question the candidate about his conversion, his call, his priorities, his doctrine, and his personal life. The committee may also counsel the candidate.

(6) The candidate should feel free to seek advice from the committee regarding any area of the ministry.

(7) In every instance, the committee shall be guided by the Scripture, especially I Timothy 3:1-7 and Titus 1:5-9. The Ordination Committee shall give written notice to the home church as to whether or not it recommends that the church proceed with the ordination.

The chairman shall report the committee's activities to the Executive Committee and provide a written report for the annual session.

g. Place, Time, and Preacher: This committee shall be composed of three members, one serving three (3) years, one serving two (2) years, and one serving one year. The committee will receive invitations from the churches which desire the association to meet with them the next year. It will recommend to the association in its annual session the time and place of the annual session the following year. This committee will also recommend a preacher and an alternate for the annual sermon.

ARTICLE VIII — ORDINATION AND CALLING OF PASTORS

Section 1. Inasmuch as the ordination of a man to the gospel ministry by any church in this Association is expected to be recognized by the denomination as a whole, the churches are counseled to be extremely careful in the matter of setting men apart for this sacred calling, ordaining only those who, by irreproachable character, piety of life, doctrinal soundness and suitable talents, give promise of honoring the name of Christ and of rendering acceptable service in the missionary Baptist ministry.

Section 2. To aid the churches in this vital matter, the Association will appoint each year a committee of five of the pastors to be called the Committee on Ordination. Any church desiring to ordain a brother to the ministry may request the Ordination Committee to act as a presbytery for the purpose of examining the brother according to the guidelines found under Duties of Ordination Committee.

Section 3. The churches are urged also to exercise the utmost care and wisdom, earnestly seeking the guidance of the Holy Spirit, in calling of their pastors, choosing only men who give evidence by their Christian character, cooperative spirit and leadership ability, that they will serve the best interests of the churches, the denomination, and the cause of Christ.

10 The Executive Committee report was given by Fred Lane, Clerk.

Executive Committee Report

The Council has been very active this past year, what with all the planning that goes into making up your organization and making run smoothly and keeping abreast of the changing times, preparing the clandar for twelve months. All this is time-consuming, but is a service that has to be rendared by some one and your Council tries to do a good job.

There is not much to report from the Executive Committee. It's meetings have been fairly routine, receiving reports from the various department heads each quarter, and acting on other matters as they are presented.

Respectfully submitted,
Fred Lane

11 Bro. Clinton McNeill, President of the Brotherhood, presented his report for approval, along with the following; The Baptist Men need help in converting a 45 foot trailer into a usable Disaster Relief unit. Work is being done each Saturday from 9:00 A.M. until 3:00 P.M. at Camp Caraway. Your help would be appreciated. Also, The Brotherhood, along with the W. M. U., desire to take $ 300.00 out of their budget to help finance a trip to Honduras by Bro. Judson Rotan to work with our missionaries there.

12 Hymn No. 265 "Love Lifted Me" led by Lonnie York, Director of music for host church.

13 THE ASSOCIATION SPEAKS:

(1) The director of Missions, A. Judson Rotan, presented his report.

Director of Missions Report

Since we met in annual session last year, many of the goals for Bold Mission Thrust have begun to be a reality. Baptisms have shown an increase. Cooperative Program gifts has increased greatly. Associational gifts are up 15%. In fact the budget we adopt this year is the projected goal for Bold Mission - $ 47,000. Thirteen of our churches participated in a week of Simultaneous Revival the first of October, with ten of the churches having revival in September or late October. We are grateful for the concern and interest in cooperating together for the cause of Christ.

I have been in thirty of our churches for at least one service during this associational year, and I hope to visit the other thirteen before long. Many of our churches have been without pastors and I have supplied several times in these churches. In fact, fourteen (14) of our churches have lost pastors this associational year.

Randolph Baptist, the monthly newsletter, has been published twelve times with 550 copies mailed each month to the leadership in our churches and interested friends of the association - a total of 6,600 for the year. I have driven my car 15,000 miles in performing my responsibilities to the association. Opportunities to speak continue to be numerous. I have missed only twelve Sundays in preaching in one of our churches.

During this associational year my record or calendar indicates that I must have spoken nearly 200 times - preaching, speaking to Brotherhood and WMU groups, Deacons Conferences, Bible Studies, mission studies, Sunday School rallies or leadership meetings, Senior Adults groups, pastor conference, G.A. groups, camp ground services and many other events. I have had 126 personal conferences and committees meeting or have met with committees from our churches, such as pulpit committees. It has been a good year exciting to me, to be fulfilling God's will in my life.

Along with the daily activities and events of the association work, I have participated in the following events in our state: Two Bible Venture Campaigns in Thomasville and Greensboro, N. C.: World Mission Conference, Atlantic Association, New Bern, N. C.; 150th Anniversary Rallies in Statesville, Lenior, and Taylorsville, N. C.; Churchmanship Seminar, Caraway Conference Center; Missionary for the week, Camp Mundo Vista; and Home Mission Conference, Ridgecrest, as one of the speakers at the Director of Missions Conference.

The heartbeat for our association is for Bold Missions to be a life-style for our churches. Bold Missions is not so much as people reached, or dollars given or programs planned. Bold Missions is a spirit that must be caught, a spirit that must possess us for evangelism and missions. It is the spirit of Christ leading and motivating us to to bold growth, bold giving and bold going in our churches and communities.

We are constantly looking and planning for ways to improve our training for our church leadership. We hope through our Quarterly Leadership Conference we can train and motivate our leadership to be good leaders in our churches.

Attention is being given now to the planning of 1981 activities. Several are:

(1) An attractive Calendar of Activities for 1981.
(2) Associational Handbook with pictures of our churches.
(3) A youth team from the Baptist State Convention, to work with youth in our churches for the summer months. (10 weeks)
(4) Cooperating with Baptist State Convention in surveying our county for mission churches and centers during the summer of 1981.
(5) Committees to be formed for the following events.
    a. Fall Festival
    b. Christian Family Life Conference - 1982
    c. World Mission Conference - 1983
(6) Churchmanship Conference in March
(7) Well-planned Quartly Leadership Conference

There are two events that I am personally looking forward to in this new associational year. First, in about a month I will be going with a group of twelve men - pastors and laymen, to Honduras for a mission work project. We will help finish building a church in South Honduras and also help to complete some rooms at the Baptist Seminary in Northern Honduras. We will leave on November 14 and return on Novtmber 26. The two weekends will be spent in preaching and witnessing in the churches in the area where we are working. I am excited about this opportunity through the Foreign Mission Board and Baptist Men of North Carlina.

Second event is next September, the national Conference for Director of missions at Ridgecrest. This will be a special conference for all

Director of missions in Southern Baptist Convention to meet and share in the planning and strategy for the 80's. It is to be called "Miissions in Context".

The whole idea of Associational Missions should embrace a togetherness concept of advance. We are laborours together with God. In days gone by, no horse was traded any quicker than the one which loafed in the grass. Since we don't trade people or churches, worthy goals must be established that will motivate us all toward pulling togeher with the Mission of Christ in our churches and communities.

The hope for the year of 1980-81 in Randolph Association is for the involvement of all of our church members in evangelism and missions in which we grow stronger churches. All of the organizations of the church will be channeled in this direction. May God lead us to be His witnesses in our day.

Respectfully submitted,
A. Judson Rotan

(2) Rev. Grady Edwards, Sunday School Director, presented his report at this time.

Sunday School Report

The thermometer is an instrument used to measure the temperature at a given time. It is a quantitative measurement, that is, it measures the amount of heat present. Heat, the lack of or the abundance of, does not determine the quality of a day. For it may be cold but a good day, or it may be hot and yet, still a good day. The qualitative measurement of a day or time requires several observations of which temperature is only one.

The Sunday School Report is really only a thermometer at this time, and not a complete gauge of the sucess or failure of a program or the effort of a year. The qualitative elvaluation will only be apparent with time. It shows the effort applied by man. It does not show the work of the Holy Sprirt. Only God knows the true worth of our efforts.

If the Sunday School is to have any worth, our message must be clear and distinct. During this past year there have been several attempts to clarify the message of our association by improving our techniques and better utilizing our resources.

During the month of November six members of our association were organized into a team to help our Sunday Schools. It was named the Assist Team and was comprised of Mrs. Mildred Denson, Mrs. Pat Smith, Rev. Alton Cook, Rev. Justus McKeel, Rev. Kenneth Warner and Rev. Judson Rotan. This Assist Team attended a one day workshop in Raleigh to learn how to teach the "Reaching" series of books. They brought these skills to the associational emphasis in March and taught this series to the Sunday School teachers of various age levels utilizing the team member and "Reaching" book for that particular age group teacher. To curtail lengthy distances of travel and time to travel, two conferences were held. One conference was held at Oakhurst, March 17-18, and another was held at First Baptist Church of Liberty on the 24th. and the 25th. of March.

Rev. Kenneth Warner in January led the association in a concentrated church growth effort where he correlated church growth with Sunday School as a key to growth.

There is an old adage that says "you can't change horses in the middle of the stream". It may be true, but with the departure of Kenneth Warner from our association we were forced to, at least send in a new rider for the horse. I agree to try to continue the programs planned by Bro. Warner for the association for the balance of the year. Therefore, in early May I attended a conference at Ridgecrest to better aquaint myself with the work of the Associational Sunday School Director.

In July the Randolph Key Leadership Conference was held at the First Baptist Church of Liberty. The Sunday School Workshop of that conference was attended by 16 Sunday School Directors and workers. They were introduced and familiarized with the goals, resources, and curriculum available for the new Sunday School year starting in October, 1980.

In reflective evaluation I feel much has been accomplished during this past year. I pray that we have rekindled old dreams, sparked new ideas, or reinforced your thinking about how to be a better witness for Christ. I further pray that these efforts will never be viewed as "grandstanding", but as a honest effort to carry the commission of Jesus Christ to a lost world.

Respectfully submitted,
Grady Edwards

Church Training Report

You know! I grew up during the B. Y. P. U. era. Later it was called B. T. U. Still later B. T. U. came to be called Training Union and more recently we refer to this organization as Church Training.

Regardless of what this organization is called and by whatever methods we use to minister the training needs of our people through this organization, it is still the same vital part of our church that makes, trains and equips disciples for the up-building of God's Kingdom. The involvement of all ages, nursery through adults, makes us aware that there is never a time in the Christians' life that should be without training.

This year has been very exciting and rewarding because of the many opportunities we have had to share together. Your 1979-80 Council who has served so faithfully with me this year are:

Mrs. W. T. (Mildred) Denson - Preschool Director
Mrs. J. R. (Cindy) Parker - Children's Director
Rev. Cecil Baughman - Youth Director
Mr. Joe Anderson - Adult Director
Mr. Doyle Owen - New Member Orientation Director

We appreciate your prayers and support as we have all worked and shared together this year.

"M" Night our first and largest meeting was held at Union Grove Baptist Church. We were received very warmly and God's Spirit was in our midst. According to our records we registered 205 attending with 13 churches represented, 10 pastors and 6 Church Training Directors. We had 4 young ladies who represented their church in the "M" Night and Church Training Queen Contest. Sarah Jordan from Union Grove was crowned Miss "M" NightQueen and was presented a trophy for having the highest percentage of her church membership present. Yvonne Johnson from Greystone was crowned Miss Church Training Queen and was also presented a trophy for having the next highest percentage of her church membership present. Sonya Lowe from Liberty, First and Rosanah Zeigler from Oakwood Park gave the Queens close competition. We are so thankful to these young ladies for the contribution they made to "M" Night to make it a success for God.

We had 4 participating in the Children's Poster Contest and the winner was Mark Sandlin from Greystone. He was presented a personal book of challenge and a plaque to be displayed in his church. Liberty, First Church was also represented in the Poster Contest by Eddie Barefoot, Tommie Routh and Michael Sawyer, who designed a poster together. They were presented with certificates for participating. We appreciate these children who shared their talents through these posters that related to Church Training. Thanks to Mrs. Cindy Parker who led this contest.

The promotional feature added much to the program, thanks to Rev. Vernon McDaniel for his telephone monologue. Mr. Bill Rotan and his brother Rev. Judson Rotan led us in our music and worship time. At the close of the worship service, we were treated to delicious refreshments by the ladies at Union Grove in their Fellowship Hall while we enjoyed our Church Training Fair which was very informative. The fellowship was great as always when we get together.

Our first QuarterlyLeadership Conference was held on January 14 at First Baptist Church in Asheboro. In our Church Training Session, we were fortunatate to have Doris Morgan from the State Convention to share with us how to conduct the new Children's Bible Drill, and Youth Bible Drill, and Youth Speakers Tournament. On Friday, January 25, seven of our people attended a Regional Workshop at First Baptist Church in Burlington, which was very informative. Mrs. Mildred Denson attended this same type of workshop which was held in Kernersville. All of our age groups were represented in these meetings which were sponsored by the State Convention.

On April 14 our second Quarterly Leadership Conference was held at First Baptist Church, Asheboro, N. C. and Rev. Cecil Baughman led the Church Training Conference. He shared thoughts with us about the Survival Kit for new Christians.

Our Associational Bible Drills for children and youth and also the Youth Speakers Tournament were held May 25 at Armfield Heights Baptist Church. Mrs. Johnny Parker, our Children's Leader directed the Children's Drill. Rev. Cecil Johnson directed the Youth Bible Drill and Speakers Tournament. In the Children's Bible Drill we had 11 participating who represented 2 churches as follows: 10 from Asheboro, First and 1 from Greystone. All 11 were associational winners and represented us in the State Tournament and won there also. Two of these 11 winners were three year winners from Asheboro, First Church.

Asheboro, First Chruch also had 4 participating in the Youth Bible Drill. They were all associational winners and 1 of these was eligible to represent us in the State Youth Bible Drill.

We were fortunate to have 1 participant in the Youth Speakers Tournament who was also from Asheboro, First Church. This participant was an associational winner and went on to win as regional winner and then to be a second place winner in the state.

Rev. Cecil Johnson was our Church Training representative at the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest in May. Rev. Johnson led our local Key Leadership Church Training Conference at First Baptist Church in Liberty, N. C. on July 14. He shared vital information with us that he brought back from Ridgecrest.

This has been a year of challenge and opportunities for us in Church Training. God has been so good to us and continues to be as we look forward to the manny resources that we have available to strengthen us as Christians. We would like to thank God for his many blessings. Thank you again for your prayers and support that have made this year possible.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Hazel McCollum

(4) Mrs. Connie Heilig, President of the W. M. U., presented W. M. U. report.

W.M.U. Report

The Randolph Associational WMU Council started the year off on October 1, 1979 by leading the WMU Workshop held at First Baptist, Asheboro.

In November the G. A.'s had a Mission Study for Foreign Missions which was held at Deep River.

During December we as an association, participated in Prison Ministry by sending gifts to Correctional Center for women.

We joined with the Brotherhood for the Quarterly Leadership Conference in January and heard some interesting facts from Christian Service Corps about Volunteer Service. Also in January, our director, Pat Ray resigned due to health and family problems. This was a sad thing to have happen but we are all glad she is recovering nicely.

The Acteens had a busy year with varied activities. In October they had a hot dog supper and heard a very inspiring talk from Journeyman Diane Keck, entitled "Jesus". January marked the 10th Anniversary for Acteens. There was a celebration entitled 10th Anniversary Celebration which was held at First Baptist, Liberty. After a short program on Acteens, there was singing and testimonies from a group called the Celebration Singers. This was a group of disabled persons who were eager to share their witness, in spite of their handicaps.

Also in March the Acteens enjoyed an afternoon with Journeyman Jill Branyon who served in Kenya. She was a thrill to be with and talk with for those girls.

In our April Quarterly Leadership Conference, Aleta Stetler from Union Grove conducted a stirring conference on Prayer and Evangelism.

Our Annual WMU & Brotherhood Meeting was held at Forest Park on April 21, 1980. Charles Wiggs, missionary to Korea for 20 years, was our guest speaker. He showed slides of the Korean people, his work there, and gave a challenging talk on life-changing commitments.
I was able to attend the Key Leadership Conference at Ridgecrest in May. I was thankful for this opportunity and was privileged to lead the Quarterly Leadership Conference at Liberty, First to share what I had learned and experienced.

Four members of the council attended the Associational WMU Workshop at Mundo Vista on August 22 and 23. We then conducted a workshop at First Baptist, Asheboro on September 22, 1980. There were 51 in attendance. Mrs. Sharon Buchannon for Sandy Creek Association had the BYW for this workshop. Bertha F. King led the Mission Friend's conference. She was also from the Sandy Creek Association.

The New church year will find us involved in a Statewide Enlistment Campaign, entitled "10,000 More by November 4." Pray with us that we will reach this goal and many others in the coming year.

Brotherhood Report

As we pause to evaluate the past year of mission opportunities, it is true again even as at other times of evaluation. We have not reached all that we had hoped to reach, but nonetheless, it has been an enlighting year. Much of this has been due to the Quarterly meeting proposal voted in by the association last year.

In January, we were privileged to have with us Mr. Sanford Smith, coordinator of Home Mission projects for this area, and Clifton Hix, Assn. Brotherhood Director of the Piedmont Association, along with their wives to share with us on the subject of "Home Missions Outreach Projects." They brought a slide presentation of some projects they personally had been involved in. They also shared information on up-coming projects. This conference was well attended by the Brotherhood and WMU. I feel many seeds of value were sown at this conference.

In April, we saw the true begining of the project "N.C. Baptist Men Disaster Relief" in this area. Mr. Leroy Yates brought the Brotherhood a slide presentation on what other states have at present time. Also, information where this help has already been a reality and the potential outreach ministry avalible to us here in North Carolina.

Actual work on this project started in June with the pulling of a 45 foot trailer to be renovated into a trailer suitable for service of this nature. Since then, several Saturdays have been spent with Baptist men at work. The project is at Camp Caraway, the unit is to be stationed at Caraway.

In July, we met at Liberty, First and discussed in depth many of the activities we desire for the coming year. There was much input by the men present. We look foward toward the new year with renewed hopes for further growth and involvement.

Respectfully sumitted,

Evangelism Report

All Baptist are urged to participate in the Joint Statewide Evangelistic Crusade in 1982. The theme will be "Here's Hope". Interpretation Meetings will be scheduled across the state to share suggested plans and basic thrusts for the 1982 Joint Crusade effort, which is co-sponsored by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and the General Baptist State Convention. The Simultaneous Revival dates for the three areas our state are: Costal - March 14-28; Piedmont April 4-18; and Mountian April 25-May 9, 1982. Every church is encouraged to plan a revival meeting during one of these suggested dates. Let us pray daily that every unsaved person in North Carolina will have the opportunity to hear the gospel of Christ by the end of 1982.

"Bold Witnessing Churches" was the theme of the 34th Statewide Evangelism Conference, February 4-5, 1980, at First Baptist Church and War Memorial Auditorium, Greensboro. Eight practical Evangelism Conferences, related to helps for growing churches and discipling members,were held during the first afternoon session at the First Baptist Church, Greensboro. About 2,400 pastors and lay persons heard inspirational speakers at War Memorial Auditorium.

Recently the Executive Committee of the General Board approved the department name change from Department of Youth and Renewel Evangelism to Department of Personal Evangelism. Richard W. Everett is director of this department. His department work now includes various phases of witnessing training for youth and adults.

Fifty-four associations have now involved their churches in a Bold Evangelism Clinic, encouraging church leaders to plan specific, on-going programs of evangelism in the local church, with the use of the notebook, Bold Evangelism through the Local Church. the other associations in our state are asked to plan a Bold Evangelism Clinic this fall or next spring. Also every church is urged to enlist a Local Church Task Force on Evangelism to involve more members in direct witnessing to unsaved persons.

New materials on Lay Evangelism Schools prepared by the Evangelism Section of the Home Mission Board, are now available for use by our churches. The Lay Evangelism School is a one week effort to train youth and adults to become more effective witnesses for Christ to the lost.

Evangelism Clinics for bi-vocational pastors are now being held across the state to assist pastors of rural-small church, and churches with no baptisms in practical ways of evangelism planning to involve members in witnessing.

Asheboro was the site of a Clyde Dupin Reachout Crusade held in the High School Stadium on June 8-15, 1980. Evangelist, Clyde Dupin of Kernersville and his team, led this combined evangelistic effort of over 50 churches. When the week was over 20,000 people had attended at least one service and over 300 decisions and redications were recorded. Baptist churches all over our association participated and many members worked on various committees.

Thousands of youth were involved in the 10th Statewide Youth Evangelism Conference at Greensboro Coliseum on Friday, August 15, 1980. A Discipleship Seminar was held during the afternoon session at Immanuel Church. We thank God for the hundreds of youth who have made various decisions for Christ during this ten year period.

Randolph Baptist Association held an Evangelism Rally on September 29, 1980 at the Balfor Baptist Church. Dr. Carl Bates of Charlotte was our guest speaker and Mr. Ray Love of Winston-Salem was our guest Musican. This rally was the forerunner to our Simultaneous Revival effort of October 5-12, and over 20 of our churches participated.

The 35th Statewide Evangelism Conference will be held in Asheville during Februry 2-3, 1981.

Baptist Homes For The Aging

North Carolina Baptist are in a unique situation. North Carolina is one of the few state conventions with a state-wide ministry to older persons. We can certainly take pride in our accomplishments as North Carolina Baptist. To be realistic as associational leaders, we must realize the ever-present needs in our ministry to older persons. The ever-growing waiting list, a Nursing Care Unit without space for a physical therapy room, and resident rooms lacing private baths, alert us to come of the needs.

Across the state, individuals are desiring to know about ministries to older persons. I am finding many individuals who are pleasantly surprised to learn of the ministry being performed through the Baptist Homes.

As leaders in your association, you can be a vital link in sharing the ministry and needs of the Baptist Homes with individuals and church families in your association. Many individuals across the state are giving themselves unselfishly in support of the Baptist Homes. We Baptists will want to be involved in supporting the Baptist Homes through the North Carolina Missions Offering and their personal gifts to the Homes.

The Ministry to older persons through our Baptist Homes is the youngest of all our social service ministries. We have just completed our 29th year of ministry, and are moving with faith and with gratitude into our 30th. year and into the new decade of the eighties. God has blessed us throughall these years in marvelous ways and has given to us the privilege of moving into five areas of our state with this special minstry—Resthaven, the Hayes Home, the Apartment Complex and the Nursing Unit all in Winston-Salem, and homes in Albemarle, Hamilton, Yanceyville, and Asheville. The past year has been filled with excitement and accomplishment. A dream was fulfilled when we moved into the new Western North Carolina Baptist Home in Asheville in March (1979), and have filled this beautiful new Home to the brim with 49 new residents who are a most welcome addition to our Baptist Homes family.

Gifts from our Baptist Churches, through the two vital sources of income for the Homes—through the Cooperative Program, and through the new North Carolina Missions Offering. Through these two sources of support, we will continue to supplement needy residents who cannot pay the full cost of care and are very dependent on these love gifts from North Carolina Baptists. Those who are supplemented at some time during their residence in our Baptist Homes family are in the majority.

The operating budget of the North Carolina Baptist Homes is rising. The need to care for more individuals is increasing. Every day, the American population has more and more members over 65 years of age and the increase will not peak, experts say, until about 2020.

I would like to encourage you who are able to go by and visit our Baptist Homes. They certainly need our prayers.

Bill Barnes

27 Kermit Gray presented the report on the Children's Home.

Baptist Children's Home Report

The Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Incorporated is an Institution of the Baptist State Convention and provides a Christian ministry of child care and family services.

During the past three years, members of the Board of Trustees and members of the administrative staff of the Homes completed an indepth evaluation of the Institution's total program of services. We share three significant statements from that report.

"The advancement of this mission and ministry requires (1) wise and resourceful leadership, (2) a well trained and highly skilled staff who really care about children, (3) a carefully planned program of child care and family services, (4) appropriate physical facilities, (5) adequate funds and sound fiscal policy, and (6) the confidence and support of an informed and devoted constituency."

"At this time the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina, Incorporated is in a position of strength. This strength comes ultimately from God and is discoverable in the commitment, the competence, and the faithful work of His people engaged in this ministry."

"This is not a time for complacency in child care and family services in N. C. It is a time for rigorous study, reflective planning, earnest prayer, and courageous action."

Progress is being made in implementing recommendations from the Trustee Evaluation more adequately to make all services of the Baptist Children's Homes of North Carolina readily avalible to people who need our help anywhere in the State. Nine Family Services areas are being designated as follows: Asheville, Charlotte, Thomasville, Kinston, Pembroke, Raleigh, Hickory, Jacksonville and Ahoskie.

The lives of more than forty-five hundred people were affected in a significant way by the services of the Children's Homes during the past year. Fifteen hundred of these were children for whom you helped for by providing care and related services. While serving children and young people, work was being done with important adults in their lives.

Necessary to the fulfillment of the mission of the Children's Homes are people resources, financial resources and spiritual resources. We are blessed with all of these. You, along with many other friends, assure us of your continuing concern for the well-being of neglected and dependant children through your prayers, through your giving and through various types of involvement. Members of our Board of Trustees and members of our staff, with your assistance, are dedicated to a continuing Christian ministry to children and members of their families.

28 The Baptist Hospital report was presented by Rev. Billy Kincaid.

Baptist Hospital Report

During the past year, our hospital has again received accreditation for maxium period, two years, by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals. Only about one-third of the hospitals in the nation receive the full two-year accreditation

Our hospital is constantly upgrading its staff, facilities and equipment. In recent months, a carbon dioxide surgical laser has been added. The laser emits an invisible beam of light which vaporizes tissue, cutting and coagulating at the same time. It is used now for delicate surgery of the larynx, upper respiratory tract, and lung. It has potential, also, for surgery of other internal organs.

New ultrasound equipment provides improved accuracy in determininglocation and degree of blocked arteries. The department of dentistry is being expanded to meet an increasing need for specialty dental services. An occupational therapist has been added to the staff to help patients recover functional skills lost through accident or disease. A new instrument has been acquired for testing infants with suspected hearing loss.

The financial counseling section is now better prepared to assist those who need its services. Through special arrangements with the Forsyth County Social Services Department, social workers and a counselor for the state's Cripple Children's Program are now stationed in the hospital and are immediately available to patients.

The staff and trustees continue to make every effort to keep operating costs as low as possible. In this connection, our hospital recently became a charter member of the Sun Alliance, an organization of 22 large hospitals in nine southeastern states. A primary purpose of the alliance is to keep operating costs (and consequently, patient charges) as low as possible through group purchasing of capital equipment, the development and sharing of comparative data and management information, and possible group arrangements with specialized consultants.

The Department of Pastoral Care continues to provide a pastoral ministry to hospital patients and their families, individual and group counseling in crisis situations, clinical pastoral education at many levels, and numerous events in human enrichment and development. During the past year, the department has begun a Minister's Care Plan, in which the Baptist State Convention provides financial assistance for ministers and or their families who seek pastoral counseling through one of the department's regional centers. Also, the position of Chaplain to Medical Students has been elevated to a staff faculty position.

Construction on the Focus Building, on the site of the Old Main building which was torn down two years ago, is almost complete. Several departments of the Medical Center will be occupying this building in the near future.

The hospital staff is grateful to the Baptist of N. C. for continuing financial support. During 1979, the hospital received $ 400,500 through the Cooperative Program, and $ 357,517 through the North Carolina Missions Offering and designated gifts.

32 Seminary Extension Report was given by Tim Strider.

Seminary Extension Report

Thank God for giving Baptist such a vision and then making it a reality. In Mathew 7:7 Jesus said, "Ask, and it shall be given you; seek and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you."

Many within the association have voiced such a need. Many have asked about a seminary Extension program for our Randolph Association. From this request our Associational Director, Judson Rotan with the Seminary Extension Committee prayed and sought a way to make this happen. We have now knocked on the portal of heaven and God has heard our cries.

Because of your concern to grow, which is an never ending process, Seminary Extension has come to Randolph Baptist. God has given us men willing to teach and better prepare us for what He has planned. The only thing missing in this program is "YOU".

We have two courses ready to be started. Alton Cook, will be teaching "The Life of Christ" at First Baptist Church, Liberty. Judson Rotan will be teaching "Understanding The Bible" at the Associational Building. Each course will be taught at night for nine sessions. There will be a fee of $ 15.00 which covers materials such as a study book given to each one who enrolls.

These courses are for both Pastors and lay-persons. Please pray for these teachers and programs and make it a success for the glory of God. May we join together in a joint effort of prayer and Bible study as the early Christians and march forth with the banner of Christ held high.

33 Rev. Justus McKeel presented the Christian Life and Public Affair report.

Christian Life and Public Affairs Report

The Christian Life Council is concerned with a number of moral and ethical issues that affect the life of every Christian in our state. Of great importance to the Council is the current state of the family.

In an attempt to strengthen family relationships, the Council has been involved in marriage enrichment retreats and associational family life conferences. In addition, marriage enrichment retreats have been held for ministers and their wives in order to strengthen the home life of the church staff. Also the Council provides literature concerning family issues that are available upon request.

Rev. Robert Newton has joined the staff to direct the Department of Family Education. Doug Cole is the director of the council on Christian Life and Public Affairs. Other staff members include: George Reed who does Citizenship Education and Ted Williams who directs the Department of Aging.

A packet of materials was prepared by the Christian Life Council to aid churches in the observance of World Hunger Day in August. Many churches have participated, through special services, offerings, study groups and other means, in helping hungry people around the world. Many more need to become active in feeding some of Jesus' brothers and sisters in his name.

Applying the radical teachings of our Lord to our day-by-day lives is not easy. Jesus said that in order for his followers to come after him, they must first take up their crosses. The task of the Council on Christian Life and Public Affairs is to help North Carolina Baptists to live life as Christ would have us to live it.

Justus McKeel

34 The Historical Report was presented by Edna Long.

The Historical Report

This is the first year the Historical Committee has been in existence. You will find the following events that were taken from the annual letters. We would like to encourage the churches to report to the associational office or the Historical Committee events that are history in the churches. We hope next year to begin a brief history on each church where the Annual Session is meeting and to be placed in the minutes for that year. Please help us to keep a good history of our churches in this association.

1. Histories have been written and printed on the following churches:
   a. Macedonia
   b. Riverside
   c. Greystone
2. First Baptist Church, Randleman had a note-burning and dedication of all buildings on Sunday, September 28, 1980.
3. Asbury has constructed a new fellowship building.
4. Macedonia celebrated its 100th anniversary on September 14 and also held a note-burning in August, 1980.
5. Ramseur, First, has installed Memorial Stained Glass Windows. The church also installed a new sound system.
6. Cross Road, in February, 1980, began a TV mlnlstry on channel 45 out of Winston-Salem.
7. Cedar Falls purchased a new Wurlitzer Organ.
8. Calvary started a building program adding classrooms and a fellowship area.

35 Rev. Hansel Neathery presented the report on Christian Literature.

Christian Literature Report

One of the chief means of proclaiming the gospel message of salvation and the ideals of our Christian faith is through the printed page. The quality of our literature seems to improve every year. Most of our writers and editors of Southern Baptist agencies are careful to avoid extremes toward fundamentalism or liberalism. Our writers are careful to be sound biblically and theologically. At the same time they seek to be practical and realistic in their writing.

The literature in our various church departments is ever changing in order to meet the needs of our church constituency in an ever-changing world society. Our Baptist Sunday School Board now publishes three main curriculum series for our youth and adults in Sunday School. The first of these is the Bible Book Series designed to study all sixty-six books of the Bible in a nine-year period. This is basically a content approach to Bible study with appropriate application to life, growing directly out of the Bible text. Both youth and adults will study the same Bible passages each Sunday with the King James Version being used for all printed passages.

Next is the Convention Uniform Series which offer in six-year cycles, a study of those portions of the Bible most fruitful for Sunday School classes. The topics and scriptures passages are determined by the personnel of the Sunday School Board in cooperation with other evangelical denominations. All studies are designed, written and edited by Southern Baptist. Emphasis is placed first on explanation of Bible content and then on the needs of learners. Again, the King James Version is used for all printed passages in the Convention Uniform periodicals.

The third curriculum is the Life and Work Curriculum Series. Bible studies in the Sunday School Life and Work Series are also selected for youth and adults by Southern Baptist educators. The study themes relate directly to personal, church, and denominational needs. Bible materials are selected to speak to these needs. When possible, especially in the adult material, an entire book of the Bible is studied. Books and passages selected for study frequently relate to Southern Baptist emphases in that year. Both, the King James Version and a contemporary version are printed in parallel columns in those Life and Work periodicals that print the focal Bible passages.

Then, there is the Sunday School Foundation Series which offer a Bible-centered way to teach children, ages six through eleven (grades 1 to six). The message of the Bible and the spiritual needs of children are considered when choosing Bible passages for lessons. The teacher's materials provide down-to-earth teaching suggestions. Helpful teaching aids give interesting ways to share Bible truths with boys and girls. Materials for the pupils help them to have real Bible learning experences through involvement in the lessons.

The last series is the Sunday School Foundation Series which offer a Bible-centered way to reach preschoolers, ages birth through five (to grade one). A new teacher's packet for an extended session is provided. The extended session is the continuation of Sunday School or Church Training sessions when the child is being taught while the parents attend the worship service.

Perhaps the most important change in the field of Chruch Training has been the development of Equipping Centers which are an exciting new approach to training adults and is available to churches through the equipping center program of the Church Training Department. Equipping Centers offer adults short-term training to meet special interests and special training needs.

Training resources are provided in six major study areas, called equipping centers, as follows: Evangelism and Missions, Family Life, Christian Doctrine, Leadership, Church and Community, and Christian Growth.

Equipping center courses called modules, are multimedia resource packages, offering such items as filmstrips, cassette tapes, or, in some cases, both. Each module offers two or more learning approaches with resourses for each learning approach. Church study course credit is offered with each module.

In all this we should not forget our own State Baptist paper, the Biblical Recorder, which is read by some 300,000 in some 90,000 homes.

On its pages this year it has carried a variety of reports of the activities of Baptist all across the state and in other countries as for instance the very inspiring report on the Baptist World Alliance meeting in Toronto, Canada. Also it has called attention to numerous alarming trends in our society such as alcoholism, crime, the growing inclination of churches to ask pastors to resign when things are not going to suit them, and also an increasing number of clergy marriages each year threatened by divorce.

The people of North Carolina owe a great debt of gratitude to the Recorder and its editor, Mr. Marse Grant and his staff.

Appreciation Committee

In the spirit of Ephesians 5:20, "Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ", we now express our profound gratitude for the 46th session of the Randolph Baptist Association.

Our hearts have been warmed by local and guest speakers and musicians who have challenged and inspired us to grow in Christ and to witness and minister to others in His Name.

To the pastors and members of the host churches, Richland Baptist and Central Falls Baptist, we express appreciation for their gracious hospitality and every extended kindness.

We are indeed thankful for our Moderator who led so ably and for our Director of Missions who patiently and lovingly labors with us.

To our wonderful Lord we give thanks for His guidance in the past, present and future.

39 The report on Christian Higher Education presented by Cecil Johnson.

Christian Education Report

There are seven North Carolina Baptist colleges and universities; Campbell, Chowan, Gardner-Webb, Mars Hill, Merideth, Wake Forest and Wingate. Baptist in their roots and their affections, these schools are Baptists' educational missions in our state. There are 53 such colleges including these seven, to state conventions within the Southern Baptist Convention.

The highest priority of your Baptist colleges is to serve God and man through Christian higher education. Ours is a secular world which views life and history, and even man himself, as having no overarching purpose.

To this hopeless view of the world, the Christian church through it's colleges and universities has an essential message. The message is that creation has purpose, life has meaning and direction and persons create the image of God have eternal significance.

The task of the Christian college is large and complex: searching for the answers to perplexing problems; guiding the lives of youth who have been greatly influenced by the values of a secular society; and interpreting this task in love and with reason to those who do not always understand the difficulty of the college task.

Your North Carolina Baptist colleges see themselves as you see them, as a valuable part of Christian missions. They operate out of the conviction that God's Holly Spirit leads persons in the discovery of truth, that through the Bible God has given us a sufficient guide for faith and practice, and that man is a sinner by nature who cannot save himself or redeem the world in which he lives.

Baptist Young people are sought and welcomed by Baptist colleges. We call upon the churches, through pastors and other leaders, to encourage Baptist youth to apply for admission to Baptist colleges. When they do, a creative blending of Christian education, financial assistance and spiritual guidance will help to shape them as tomorrow's leaders in the church, community, state and nation.

We thank you for your support of the colleges. We request your earnest prayers for each of them.

Respectfully submitted,
Cecil N. Johnson

42 Home Missions report presented by F. G. Alford.

Home Missions Report

As we begin the implementation state of BOLD MISSION THRUST it appears that an imperative of immediacy concerning world evangelism must become our paramount priority.

Our world stands today in perhaps the most precarious position politically that it has stood in the last three decades. Global brinkmanship and world survival have rapidly moved to the front of the line.

Consequently, we must maintain as a denomination a sense of urgency about our redemptive mission to America and the world. Certainly the moment is ours.

The decade of the 80's could be labeled the most pivotal decade in the history of our nation. This is the day for Southern Baptist to exhibit in our sacrifice and servanthood the exciting reconciling awareness that Jesus Christ lives.

The major emphasis of the Home Mission Board for the past year has been to coordinate the efforts of the staff in development of our mid-range plan (1979-82). This plan functions as a bridge between the long range plan, TARGET: A.D. 2000. and the annual operating plan. By approaching planning in this manner, the Home Mission Board staff has been able to coordinate their programs with the emphasis of the Southern Baptist Convention.

This year was marked by outstanding financial support by Southern Baptists. The largest offering for Home Missions in the world was received, with total receipts of the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering amounting to $ 14,171,637. Likewise, Cooperative Program gifts increased. The board received $ 12,500,000 in the Cooperative Program operating budget.

The 1980s have been called by some experts, "The Decade of the Volunteer." On December 31, 1979, there were 233 Mission Service Corps volunteers serving under appointment. The Home Mission Board goal is to have 2,500 Mission Service Corps workers assigned within the next few years.

At the end of 1979, the Home Mission Board had 2,922 persons on the home mission force, and 103 persons were serving on the elected staff at the Home Mission Board offices in Atlanta.

In implementing the National Witness Training strategy, 222 trainers from 33 state conventions were trained in two seminars to teach Lay Evangelism School and TELL Witness Training throughout the nation.

Counsel was given on church finance to some 1,600 churches and a number of churches were assisted in obtaining local financing. Where local financing was not available, loan applications from 249 churches were processed and/or approved on long-term commitments totaling $ 21,313,745.

Assistance was provided to ten state conventions for continuing education for Directors of Missions: to 30 state conventions for training and conferences to develop associational leadership.

Continued emphasis was given to needs of the more than 9,400 bi-vocational pastors through 26 conferences and listening sessions and a survey of needs. The In-Service Guidance program is active in more than 40 colleges, seminaries and Bible schools in 15 states.

43 Mrs. Alton Cook presented the report on Foreign Missions.

Foreign Missions Report

Southern Baptist outreach to the world through the Foreign Mission Board experienced a good year. Some indicators that this denomination is taking Bold Mission Thrust seriously are encouraging.

An event of notable significance in 1979 was the retirement of Baker James Cauthen as executive director. His effective 26-year leadership and dynamic proclaiming of foreign missons have challenged and inspired Southern Baptists.

The sending out and maintaining of missonaries is primary in Southern Baptist overseas missions through the channel of the Foreign Mission Board. Total Southern Baptist foreign missionaries exceed the 3,000 level by the end of 1979. This was made possible by a total of 332 appointments in all categories.

Net missionary staff totaled 3,008, including 226 missionary associates, 215 journeymen, and 15 special project medical workers. The Bold Mission Thrust objective to increase the missionary staff to more than 5,000 by A.D. 2000 remains a challenge.

In 1979 workers on mission fields reported growth from 10,449 churches and 1,214,699 members to 11,083 churches and 1,248,218 members. Field reports indicated a total of 96,376 baptisms. The Bold Mission Thrust objective of a tenfold increase in churches calls for still larger efforts.

There were some promising developments in 1979 in countries where evangelism has been difficult. Italy reported a 20 percent increase in baptisms. In Bangladesh, 10 new churches were received into the Baptist union. Other significant outreach included the sending of home missionaries by Indonesian Baptist and by the Peru Convention.

In 1979, Southern Baptists' contributions for foreign missions totaled $74,976,749. For the calendar year Lottie Moon Christmas Offering gifts amounted to $36,217,473. In 1978 Lottie Moon Christmas Offering topped off as of May 31, 1979, at $35,919,605.40. The 1980 offering goal is $45,000,000.

Approximately 50 percent of the Southern Baptist Convention Cooperative Program funds are made available annually for foreign missions. Still urgently needed on overseas fields are land, buildings, and equipment, amounting to several million dollars' worth. As the overall missionary personnel picture begins to express new boldness, the financing for world missions must also show a bold new thrust.

Respectfully submitted,
Mrs. Hilda Cook

3. Insurance benefits through the Board's church, agency and seminary programs amounted to $13,067,338.
4. Total assets held in trust at the close of the year equaled $667,521,987. This figure represented a growth of $97,787,516 over 1978's total.
5. Premium income totaled $69,548,849, including contributions and relief receipts. A total of $35,348,300 was designated for the Fixed Fund investment plan, $2,332,869 was earmarked for the Balanced Fund and $12,121,719 went into Plan A. Insurance premiums totaled $14,291,178.

In North Carolina as of March 31, 1980, 3,046 staff members of 2,316 churches and associations are participating in Southern Baptist Retirement Program. Through March 31, 1980, we had processed the following:

77 - Southern Baptist Retirement Program applications
14 - applications for age retirement benefits
3 - applications for disability benefits
6 - widow's claims

In Randolph Association 31 churches and 36 staff members are participating in the retirement program. Of this number 11 are still participating in the minimium of $33.34 per month. There is a great need to upgrade this to 10% of total salary for staff members.

How To Reach Our Associational Budget ?

SUGGESTED GOAL — (1) 3% of undesignated offerings from churches to Associational Budget.
(2) 10% over last year's contribution to the association.

If each church would give a percentage (3%) to the work of the association, we would have adaquate funds to carry on the ministries of the association.

Dr. Wade Armstrong, Director of Missions in the Yates Association said some things about percentage giving that I think show why it is the best way to support our work. He said:

"Percentage giving is equality giving. It makes giving equal for every church. Percentage giving is measurable giving. A church can measure itself fairly with its past record and with the giving of its sister churches. Percentage giving is easy giving. When the receipts are low in the summer the church still gives the same percent though the dollar amount will be less. When the giving is high, in the Fall and in the Sprng, the percentage remains the same although the dollars will be more. Percentage giving is scriptural giving. It is the Lord who gave individuals the principle of one tenth upon which to base the best of their giving.

WE URGE PERCENTAGE GIVING TO ALL OF OUR CHURCHES

THINK 3% THINK 3% THINK 3%

10% of 1979 total gifts to associational missions of $45,202.00 is $4,520.20 .

The Biblical Recorder Report

Faced with the same inflationary pressures that every family has these days, the Recorder has managed to get through another year without an increase in subscription rates. A church can still send the Recorder to resident families for only 7¢ a week per family, less than half the cost of a first class stamp and the best bargain in Christian literature to be found anywhere. Thus the Recorder is doing its best to hold the line by getting out a good paper at reasonable costs.

Cooperative Program Report

1980 marks the 55th Anniversary of the Cooperative Program. This represents fifty-five years of cooperatively sharing Christ with the world. Southern Baptist have frequently been called a people on mission for God. This mission is best accomplished through doing together those ministries which would be impossible to perform individually. Cooperation of this magnitude is a unique feature of Southern Baptists. The Cooperative Program might well be called our trademark. It has proven to be a democratic flexible, inexpensive way of world mission support. It has become the unified budget of the state convention and the Southern Baptist Convention. Through the years it has become a united and continuous appeal for many causes, cutting out the need for many special offerings, and giving day-by-day support for most work.

During the 1980's individuals and churches alike will be challenged to reaffirm our commitment to the Cooperative Program as our primary channel of mission support. It is successful, effective and economical. It deserves the wholehearted support of every Southern Baptist! Through it we all can participate in every obligation laid on us by the New Testament on a world-wide basis. Therein is growth and joy!

Respectfully submitted,
Bud Gillett
